THURSDAY, APRIL 15.

BREAKFAST — Cracked wheat and cream. Omelet. Buttered toast. Buckwheat cakes and maple syrup. Coffee.

LUNCHEON—Anchovy toast. Walnut sandwiches. Brown bread. Chocolate.

DINNER—Tomato soup. Boned calf's head. Potato timbale. Creamed onions. Mince pie. Tea.

Cut the recipes out and paste them in a scrapbook.

Anchovy Toast—Make fingers of nicely browned toast, an inch and a half wide and four or five inches long, and not very crisp. Spread with anchovy butter while hot. Set them a moment in the oven and serve at once.

Walnut Sandwiches—Half a pound English walnut kernels cut in small pieces, covered with a nice mayonnaise dressing. Cut bread in fancy shapes, round, square, triangular, and spread with the mixture. Keep in a cool place until wanted for serving.

Boned Calf's Head—Have the butcher remove the bare bones without injuring the skin, and also the center of the ears. Fill the head with a well-seasoned forcemeat. Cover all over with thin slices of salt pork and pealed lemon, pin up in a stout cloth and cook in plenty of water, with soup vegetables and aromatics for three hours. Then lift the saucepan from the fire, let it rest awhile. Drain the head, take off the cloth and lay the brain at one end of the dish and the tongue at the other, both of these having been cooked in the stockpot. Serve with ravigot sauce. This is made by stewing a minced onion in a gill of white wine vinegar and an ounce of butter, for twenty minutes, after which add a pint of veloute sauce and a handful of minced parsley.

Creamed Onions—Peel one quart of medium-sized white onions, place them in a saucepan and cover with boiling water. Boil till nearly done, and then add one teaspoonful salt. After boiling them a few minutes longer drain them in a colander. In the meantime melt one ounce of butter, to which add half a tablespoonful of flour, stir and cook two minutes; add half pint of hot milk, cook two minutes, season with white pepper and a sprinkle of salt. Put the onions in a hot dish and pour the sauce over them.

Potato Timbale—Pare eight good-sized potatoes, cover them with boiling water and let them cook thirty minutes. Drain the water and mash the potatoes smooth and light. Add three tablespoonfuls of butter, two of finely chopped parsley, some salt and pepper, and then gradually beat into them one cup of hot milk. Stir hard, and at last add three well beaten eggs. Butter an oval tin basin and cover it thickly with fine crumbs. Fill this with the prepared potato and bake in a moderate oven half an hour. Let the dish stand a few minutes after it comes from the oven, then place a heated platter over the top of the basin, and turn them over together. Press the tin to loosen the sides, and lift it gently from the timbale.

A Local Budget

Mr. Alex. Fraser, of Messrs. Fraser, McMillan & Co., has left on a business trip to the Northwest and British Columbia.

—Mr. George B. Sippi has purchased Mr. George Howe's new residence on Maitland street, near Dundas. The price paid was $4,500.

—Programmes for concerts or entertainments printed in the neatest style at The Advertiser Job Department. Prices the lowest.

—The Dundas Center Methodist Sunday school intend to have a grand service of Scripture and song for Easter Sunday, and have issued a neat programme. The orchestra and choir will assist.

—The people of London South want the Normal School located in that part of the city. The London South Liberal Club indorses that view, holding that other parts of the city have had their innings, and that therefore it is now London South's turn.

—Mr. Malcolm McPherson, a native of Westminster, died on Monday at his home near Glanworth. The cause of death was lung trouble, the result of exposure during a shipwreck on his return from England some time ago. Deceased was a son of Mr. Dugald McPherson, and was a single man.

—The Easter thank offering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church, was held on Monday last, about sixty ladies being present. An excellent programme, a generous thank offering of $75 45, and a social 5 o'clock tea at the close, made up a most pleasant and profitable meeting.

—The Toronto News says: "A number of the friends of Mr. John Marshall assembled at his rooms on Scott street on Monday evening and presented him with a handsome gold watch charm. Mr. Marshall, who was deeply touched at this evidence of esteem, responded feelingly. A pleasant evening was spent in song and other things. The recipient is going to London, where he has secured a lucrative position."

—A meeting of the Royal Helpers' Circle of King's Daughters was held at the home of Mrs. R. D. Colgrove, 181 George street, city. The subject of study was "Prayer," chosen by the leader, Mrs. T. Heritage. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served in the usual 5 o'clock tea style. All expressed themselves as having spent a very pleasant and profitable time.

—Hospital Sergt. McCullough, of No. 1 Company, R. C. R. I., Wolseley Barracks, has been compelled to resign his position because of inflammation in one of his eyes. On Monday evening he was entertained at the non-commissioned officers' mess and made the recipient of an address and a well-filled purse. Sergt. McCullough replied expressing his appreciation of their kindness and his regret at leaving the barracks.

—The Detroit News says that Geo. C. Huebner, of Detroit, and J. N. Vandegrift, of Philadelphia, will not build an electric road from London to Port Stanley, as, after a thorough investigation, they concluded that the deal would not pay. Mr. Huebner says it may be renewed at some future time, when the "natural conditions" change. This means, also, that the parties named will not electrify the St. Thomas street railway.

GOT HIS MONEY BACK.

Adam Jones, who was arrested here last week, came up before Magistrate Parke this morning. Jones came to London a week ago with a pocketful of money, and the intention of starting a store here, but he fell among the Philistines. A week ago Magistrate Parke ordered that the money be taken from him and handed over to Mr. Harry Ryan, his landlord, for safe-keeping, and that if he turned up this morning sober and businesslike, he was to receive his property. This he did, and the money was handed back again.

"RICHARD III."

Keene, the tragedian, had a counter attraction last night in the Crystal Hall fire, but for which he would undoubtedly have had the large audience which usually greets him in London. As it was, his auditors were very few. Mr. Keene's Richard has been enjoyed here before, and loses none of its strength with time. He does not lift Richard to the psychological plane to which the "higher criticism" says he belongs, but paints him as a consummate hypocrite and villain of a very worldly type. This is certainly the popular conception. Mr. Keene was handsomely supported, and he can be assured of a bumper house on his next visit—in case a big fire does not break out again.

WATER COMMISSIONERS.

At the meeting of water commissioners yesterday it was announced that the contract for catering at Springbank during the coming season had been awarded to Bradford & Hodgins. Mr. George T. Hiscox asked that the charge for water used in his building be based upon the consumption as shown by the meter. The committee decided to impose a minimum charge of $40 for the building, exclusive of the bank and Cameron offices on the ground floor. In the course of the discussion the commissioners deplored the absence of a more general system of meter charges. The board agreed to bear half the loss consequent upon a leak in the water pipe at the Saunby mill. John Brodie asked to have the water charges for his building redetermined, as the premises were now used for offices. The request was granted. The engineer reported fourteen feet of water in the reservoir, and the total amount pumped during the week 18,750,068 gallons.

JUBILEE COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the jubilee committee last evening, Mrs. English stated that the National Council of Women were unwilling that the local branch should work for the erection of a jubilee hospital in return for the privilege of having two nurses trained annually for the Victorian Order of Nurses; but that the women would work hard for the hospital as individuals. Mr. Bartram reported for a medal committee to the effect that 100 gross of souvenirs should be purchased to sell at 25 cents each, leaving a good margin of profit for the hospital fund. Ald. Winnett was instructed to ask the Minister of Customs to rebate the amount of duty on the music books. Several suggestions were offered regarding holiday excursions. The railways have been asked for special holiday rates for the days commencing on Saturday before the holidays and expiring the Monday after. The committee will meet again on Tuesday next.

MUSICAL EVENING.

A most enjoyable musical programme was given at the Dundas Street Methodist Church last night under the direction of Miss Bella Brown and in aid of the primary building society in connection with the Sunday school. The programme consisted chiefly of selections by Miss Brown's pupils, and was as follows: Piano solo, Mr. Wm. Caven Barron; vocal duet, "Heart Throbs," Miss Templeton and Mr. J. Spencer; vocal, "Daffodil Time," Miss Vinnie Phipps; vocal, "Sing On," Miss Peat (Petrolea); vocal, "I Have Been a-Maying," Miss Nellie Burnip (orchestra accompaniment); vocal, "Merrily I Roam," Miss Millis Sparksman; piano solo, "Rhapsadie Hongroise, No. XI.," Mr. W. Caven Barron; vocal, "Gypsies," Miss Ethel McKillop; mandolin duet and guitar accompaniment, (a) "Set of Waltzes," (b), "Two Step March," Misses Kildea, Westland, Jones and Grant; vocal (violin obligato), "A Day Dream," Miss Templeton; vocal duet, "What is Love?" Miss Nellie Burnip and Mr. R. Albert Brown; violin solo, selected, Mr. J. Cresswell; vocal, "O Bright Star," Miss Eva Roche; piano solo, selected, Mr. W. Caven Barron; vocal (violin obligato), "Spring Song," Miss Peat; vocal, "Kathleen Mavourneen," Miss Wells. During the evening Miss Brown was presented with a basket of roses as a token of appreciation of her services.

A DINNER PILL—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions, and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

Sent For Trial.

Hiram Smith, of Lambeth, Must Face a Judge

On the Charge of Stealing $80 from Alex. Bannatyne—Examination Concluded.

Yesterday afternoon the trial of Hiram Smith, of Lambeth, charged with robbing Alex. Bannatyne, was continued. The evidence of Alonzo Hall, the hotel-keeper, was to the effect that Smith and Muxworthy were in the shed on the west, and came in and sat in the sitting-room. While they were in the sitting-room three bicyclists came in from the city. The only time he remembered Smith leaving the room was when Smith had accompanied him to the door to look at the wheels, which was at 11:30. That was the last time he saw Smith. He went to his bedroom and did not return for three-quarters of an hour, and was under the impression that Smith was in the room when he came back. On Monday, the 5th, Smith had given him a check bearing the signature of William Smith, for $25. Hiram owed him $12 for board and about $3 borrowed money. Smith had promised payment on Monday, and kept his word. The check was cashed at the Hodgins House in London. Smith had borrowed $5, and on Monday had paid it back.

Fred Poole identified Smith as the man whom they met on the road at Bannatyne's house on Sunday, April 4, when the money was stolen.

Mr. Judd asked that the prisoner be discharged, as no evidence was produced that he did it, although the crown prosecutor, Mr. Magee, seemed to have conjured up in his mind very many suspicious circumstances. He thought the evidence of Hall acquitted Smith.

Mr. Magee replied briefly. He stated that during the time that Hall had left the sitting-room there was plenty of time to commit the robbery. The dust on Smith's coat and other circumstances were dealt with, which closed the case.

Squire Lacey said: "It is one of two things—either conviction or acquittal." He thought the evidence sufficient to send Smith before the judge at the general sessions in June. Smith was asked if he had anything to say, and he replied: "I am not guilty, my lord."

Smith was held, but will be allowed liberty if bailed by two responsible parties. The amount required is $800.

Fenian Raid Recalled.

Annual Meeting of the Veterans of 1866.

Movement to Secure a Silver Medal for Volunteers Who Saw Service—Officers Chosen.

A number of the veterans of 1866 met at the City Hall and agreed to a resolution to be submitted to the Dominion Government. The resolution, after referring to the troubles attendant upon the Fenian raid, and the important services which had been rendered by the volunteers of that time in restoring order and preserving the integrity of Canada, prayed:

"That you will be pleased to direct that all proper steps be taken to procure, if possible, the issue by her Majesty on the occasion of the completion of the 60th year of her reign, of a medal to all members of the volunteer militia force in her Majesty's provinces, who were in active service during the Fenian raids, and that you will cause such other suitable recognition of the said services to be made as to you may seem fit and proper."

The petition was signed on behalf of the veterans of '66 residing in the neighborhood of London by George Taylor, W.T. Duff, D. MacMillan, Wm. Mercer, E. T. Essery, John Macbeth, Frank Mutch, Jas. Jury, Jas. Crawford, Thos. Bannan, W. T. Strong, B. Jones, Edward Griffiths, R. W. Kidner, R. W. Rolston, R. McBride, Fred. Gilyatt, John Hance, Ed. Shannon, Hugh Arbuckle, James Burridge, W. Arbuckle, Thos. Scott, S. Spicknell, S. Rolston, P. Duguid, Peter Wilson, Alex. Arbuckle, Harry Merritt and George Nicholls.

It was further decided to send a representative to Ottawa with the petition to co-operate with the Toronto association.

The following officers for 1896 were then elected: President, George Taylor; vice-president, W. T. Duff; secretary-treasurer, W. Mercer. The report of the secretary-treasurer showed a satisfactory condition of the finances, and he was voted $5 for his services.

The latest results of pharmaceutical science and the best modern appliances are availed of in compounding Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Hence, though half a century in existence as a medicine, it is fully abreast of the age in all that goes to make it the standard blood purifier.

WHAT JOHN LAW SAW

At a Meeting of the Microscopic Section of the Entomological Society—Curious Specimens Under the Glasses.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Your readers may not know what there is to be seen in this city, and so look for it in The Advertiser, but the meeting of the microscopic section of the Entomological Society in their fine rooms in the Y. M. C. A. building is one of the rarest, and yet almost unknown glories of London.

Last night's meeting was one of the best and also the last of the season, as the botanical section comes to the front, and as Mr. Balkwell said, the flowers and fairy friends were ready to welcome the botanical members to fields and flowers grand.

What did we see there? Firstly, three microscopes, in charge of Bro. Balkwell, Dr. Hotson, Prof. Bowman, and they did good service, for they were in expert hands. Geology cannot get much from the microscopic section. Sorry, but then there is pleasure under the grief.

Dr. Hotson had low forms of life that Darwin talks of as being our life in the beginning, when life first started. There were as many as 25 independent, living, lively, transparent things, where the processes of life could be distinctly seen at play, at meat, and at all else that goes to make up life. In a drop of water was room and room to spare for these 25 creatures, to live and move and have their being in. They were brought from London West. What water they have to drink! The rich man in torment would scarcely want a drop of that water. Bro. Balkwell had another kind, more like the cut brad that shoemakers used to use, wider at the head, and like a wedge, but these were fairly transparent, and in high lights, and bright colors of rich design. Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. A drop of water was enough to allow for still life or nearly so; just a display of beauty, in a small bottle not as large as his little finger. Bro. Balkwell said there would be ten million of these insect lives. What a fatherhood Prof. Darwin had! But Prof. Bowman was in a glow with some specimens of animal and plant life, a mixed breed bordering on the vegetable and animal kingdoms; and kind of glued on to each kingdom between the third and fifth day of Genesis.

Prof. Dearness was well occupied in preparing slides for showing the curious crystals as forms from the human being, to which all life tends, which almost escape the lines given to Adam to have dominion over them, as they cause suffering and death, the last enemy which is to be conquered.

How far will the microscope aid the metallurgist in determining metal, to which a sample belongs, by the grain of every separate grain? We did not get the coveted satisfaction, as a certain kind of a microscope would be needed. So mote it be. We did better with the red water or scum from water at a spring on Clarence street. It was not dangerous, a kind of iron, so that Inspector Bell, or the health officer will not be needed. Why don't our young men and the ladies also call in?

Yours truly, JOHN LAW.
