FAT STOCK SHOW.

Secretary C. F. Topping reports everything ready for Toronto's seventh annual Fat Stock Show. The object of the exhibition is to demonstrate to producers and shippers of market cattle, sheep and swine that it pays to breed the kind of stock the market demands, and give it the best care and feed, so as to command the highest price when sold.

Last year's grand champion was from Brandon, Manitoba, which demonstrates the fact that the Toronto Fat Stock Show is now a national event.

As the entries are much larger than a year ago, the fair promises to be the best ever held.

GAS ROLLER SKATES.

Power-Driven Skate Promised For Ordinary Use.

Roller skating as a means of transportation as well as a recreation has a practical value, and inventors are continually at work perfecting it. One of the newest models provides a small gasoline engine upon each skate, supplying the power so that the skater has no physical exertion except to steer. It is not quite satisfactory yet because the engine is so small that it is difficult to get the explosive mixture into it and to discharge the burned gases, but it is believed these difficulties will be overcome and the motor roller skate become as popular for general use as the motorcycle.

SAVING ENVELOPES.

A western railroad has resorted to a novel way to reduce its envelope bill the last few months. Train reports and other written business matters are sent out in envelopes which have been ruled into 12 squares for names and addresses. Every time an envelope reaches its destination the name and address is crossed off and another written in the next space. In this way one envelope is made to do the work of 12. It is discarded only when all the spaces have been used. Nearly $2,000 has been saved from the usual expenditure for envelopes.
