A Beautiful Perfume Display

The Newest and Rarest Odors from Paris.

Perfumes are the one staple gift which you can safely give to everybody and be sure of your offering being appreciated.

Our new perfumes are wonderfully true to the rich fragrance of the flowers and possess in a great degree all the qualities requisite to satisfy the most refined taste.

Of all perfumes the violet is beyond doubt the one which is preferred; but it is also the one which perfumers had, until lately, reproduced most imperfectly.

A single drop of our new Violette perfume contains the fragrance of a boquet of fresh cut violet flowers; and is five times the strength of the usual extract for the handkerchief. It is the most natural and delightful of all Violette perfumes.

To obtain the true, exquisite odor of the violet, pour the Essence on the articles to be scented a few hours beforehand. Everything we have it of the highest quality.

You are sure of no regrets by making your purchase from us.

N. Y. Journal Correspondent Says What Will Be Done.

All the British Reserves To Be Called Out—Entire Militia To Be Utilized—Every Warship To Be Commissioned.

New York, Dec. 16.—A special copyright cable from London to the Journal today says: "The immediate effect of Gen. Buller's disastrous defeat at Colenso will be the mobilization of England's whole naval and military power. All the reserves will be summoned to colors, and the entire militia called into service; and every ship in the British navy will be commissioned, as a warning to the European powers to keep hands off, and to repel foreign interference, should it come, which is now impossible."

"The Cape colonists, who have been sympathizing more or less secretly with the Boers, will now undoubtedly rise in

OPEN DEFIANCE TO BRITISH RULE

in South Africa.

"The European nations are now certain to give at last their moral support to the Boers.

"How far, France, Russia and Austria will go no one can tell, but Russia is certain to take advantage of this opportunity to push closer to the borders of India.

"France will probably do the same in Northern Africa.

"Lord Charles Beresford has resigned from parliament, and will assume command of the Mediterranean fleet. The British government officials were routed out of bed early this morning by messengers with the bad news. Some hastened to the war office without a moment's delay, and orders were issued to strain every nerve to get the sixth divisional reinforcements off at once, to be followed by the seventh as fast as the men could be loaded on ships.

BRITAIN'S MILITARY STRENGTH.

"England's militia strength numbers 113,000 men, 40,000 of whom are already mobilized for home garrison duty, in order that the regulars can go to Africa. The remainder will undoubtedly be called out and sent to foreign service, relieving the regulars in India, Gibraltar and in various colonies.

"This will draw into service the very best young men of England. There will be no half-hearted efforts now by the government regarding reinforcements. The biggest and fastest ships will be doubtedly be requisitioned for transports. The Cunard liners, the White Star liners, and the Peninsular and Oriental liners, that can carry troops to the Cape in less than two weeks, will be requisitioned at once.

"Gen. Buller has a total of 30,000 men and over 100 guns, but these are scattered, while the Boers are at present concentrated."

LONDON PRESS COMMENT.

London, Dec. 16.—The Globe, after facing the situation and urging the immediate dispatch of reinforcements and the use of the militia, continues: "And we can turn with equal confidence to the strong arms and loyal hearts of our fellow-subjects in Canada and Australia. Those offers which were so liberally made and which were not too generously received, at the beginning of the war, we are confident, be renewed, as the urgency of the contests reveals itself. They see as keenly as ourselves that not only our supremacy in Africa, but the maintainance of the empire is at stake."

TRUSTS BULLER.

The Pall Mall Gazette's review of the situation says: "It is no use crying over spilt milk. Surprises of all sorts must be expected in war. Our position for the advance is intact. Nothing has occurred to shake our belief in Gen. Buller. Let us steadily trust him and furnish him as rapidly as possible with more guns and more horses and men.'

BRACING UP!

As the day proceeded, the morning's attack of nerves disappeared, and the only permanent effect of the serious news was to cause a tightening of fists and a more set determination to achieve the task country has undertaken. Departing troops were more vehemently cheered than usual and the troops themselves displayed even a more eager desire to reach the front. There was little excitement at the war office, but orders were being issued in all directions for the mobilization of the reserves and militia. The latter will replace the regulars in the garrison towns.

Queen Victoria was greatly concerned about the latest reverse. The commander-in-chief, Lord Wolseley, was at Windsor Castle when the news arrived, and he took a special train back to London.

Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford confirmed today the Associated Press announcement of his appointment to second in command of the British Mediterranean fleet.

Mafeking.

BRITISH WORKS ADVANCED.

Cape Town, Dec. 16.—Advices from Buluwayo say that a dispatch from Mafeking, dated Dec. 6, announced that the scheme of advancing the military works was acting well, and had forced the Boers to evacuate the strong commanding fortification northeast of the town. The British continued pushing back the Boers, and were then working toward their main siege batteries. The British casualties were trifling. The Boer force was then reduced to about 2,000 men, with four field guns

BOER REPOT.

Pretoria, Dec. 13.—Advices from Mafeking say an attack on a small British fort has been made with good results. The fort was demolished. Heavy cannon firing is proceeding. Col. Baden-Powell has sent the Boers a notice, advising them to lay down their arms and return to their homes. He promised them that protection would be given them as soon as Great Britain should have taken over the Transvaal.
