The Mystery of Two Hemispheres.

Prof. Don H. Cromwell

(Formerly Cromwell & Taylor),

The World's Greatest Psychologist, Mind Reader and Scientific Adviser on the affairs of Life, has arrived in London and located at 339 Horton Street, where he may be consulted for three days at one half his usual fees, in order to advertise and more quickly introduce his work.

So extraordinary are his marvelous tests of the wonders and powers of psychology that they must be witnessed to be believed.

$5,000 — Challenge! Challenge — $5,000!

To any psychologist on earth to perform his marvelous tests in life reading.

He calls you by name, tells you names of your friends and relatives, tells you what you called for, advises you with a strange certainty as to the proper course to pursue in life. No matter what trouble you may have with yourself or others, come and he will guide you.

He is consulted daily by reputable business men, and ladies from the leading circles of society; he is recommended by every one of his patrons—lawyers, doctors, scientists, and the press of the entire country recognize his work to be of the highest order.

If marriage, sickness, deaths, changes, travels, divorces, separations, law suits, business transactions, wills, deeds, mortgages, love or domestic troubles interest you, if you desire to be more successful, in a word, whatever may be your trouble or desires, call on this remarkable man, and he will send you away happier, wiser and bolder than ever before.

A brief talk with him on any of the above affairs of life may save you many dollars, many regrets and many sad hours. No matter how complicated or incomprehensible, by following his advice he will guide you successfully in all your movements, and lead you onward to success.

Satisfaction guaranteed or no fee taken.

All business strictly confidential.

All fees reduced for three days. Consultation 50c and $1. Hours, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The Talk of Old London.

The Jubilee Has Become Only an Echo.

But the Visit of the Premiers Proved a Revelation.

Particularly in the Case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Mrs. Langtry to Marry Again — Heart Burnings After the Devonshires' Ball—The Ladies, Dog Show.

London, July 10.—The jubilee has become only an echo. The colonial premiers are tired of being feted, and are hastening their departures. The visit of the premiers has to many Englishmen been something in the nature of a discovery of the British colonies, particularly in the case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier of Canada, who has been a surprising revelation of capacity. Lady Laurier has had an equal success socially as her husband has politically.

In the Canadian colony here there has been considerable gossip suggesting that Sir Donald Smith, the Canadian high commissioner, would resign on assuming his peerage, the two positions being incompatible. On this subject Sir Wilfrid Laurier said to a representative of the Associated Press: "I know of no reason why a peer cannot be an agent-general, and I know of no wish or thought displeasing to the present agent-general."

In regard to a dispatch from Ottawa intimating that Canadian Cabinet changes were pending, whereby Sir R. J. Cartwright, minister of trade and commerce, would succeed Sir Donald Smith as high commissioner, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: "I know of no changes, actual or contemplated."

MRS. LANGTRY TO MARRY AGAIN.

It is stated from an excellent source that Mrs. Langtry will shortly marry Prince Esterhazy de Galantha. The prince is about 60 years of age, has been twice married before, both his wives being dead. He is a great sportsman and the purchaser of horses for the Austrian Government. Prince Esterhazy is related to the Earls of Jersey, and his attentions to Mrs. Langtry are reputed to be most ardent.

AFTER THE HONEYMOON.

Sir Robert and Lady Peel arrived at Drayton Manor from their honeymoon on Monday. They were met at the railroad station by the mayor, who presented them with a congratulatory address. The town was gaily decorated for the occasion.

AFTER THE BALL.

The heartburnings of the Devonshire costume ball are not subsiding. By accident, the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha did not receive invitations, and the Duchess of Devonshire, meeting the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha at one of the jubilee fetes, said: "Of course you are coming to our ball?"

To this the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha freezingly replied: "Certainly not."

As an afterthought, the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha are going home considerably nettled over the jubilee, believing that some sort of a set has been made against them, particularly in keeping their names out of the papers. When the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha arrived here, he, as a reigning sovereign, started a court circular of his own, dated from the Clarence House, which the English newspapers did not print. The duke was unmercifully chaffed on this account by the Prince of Wales, his brother.

The Countess Dey, wife of the Austrian ambassador, caused a mild sensation at the ball by smoking cigarettes.

Mrs. Ronald's dress is said to have cost $12,000.

THE LADIES' DOG SHOW.

At the annual show of the Ladies' Kennel Association on Thursday and Friday at the Botanical Gardens, 1,800 dogs were exhibited. The exhibitors included the Princess of Wales, her Borzoi Alex easily winning all first prizes; her Basset Zero also won a first prize. The Duchess of Sutherland and Bedford, the Countesses of Carnarvon and Hopetoun, and Ladies Cathgart, Dunsany and Sykes also exhibited. The show is arranged for lady exhibitors. The feature was the vast improvement shown in the bigger sporting dogs, such as the greyhound. In this class ladies are the principal breeders.

At the Earlsfield Bulldog Show on Tuesday, Mr. G. G. Hopton, of New York, won to first prizes with L'Ambassadeur.

CHARLES DICKENS' WIDOW PENSIONED.

The widow of Charles Dickens the younger has been granted a small civil list pension, being in very straightened circumstances. A noteworthy coincidence is that the same list includes Anthony Trollope's widow.

Preparations are already on foot in Dublin for the Parnell anniversary demonstration in October, and it will be larger than ever this year. On the day following the procession a convention of Parnellites from all parts of Ireland will be held to consider the best way of spreading the organization independent of the league, which is already in a flourishing condition. Mr. John Redmond, the Parnellite leader, expresses himself as being confident in the future. The election of Mr. John Hayden for Roscommon will be most significant of the success of the Parnellite protest for the last few years against clerical influence. Mr. Hayden has been for years in direct conflict with the Bishop of Meath, who has published repeated pastorals denouncing him from the altar. The bishop also forbade his flock, under the pain of mortal sin, to read the Westmeath Examiner, Mr. Hayden's paper. But, in spite of all this, the paper flourished, and now Mr. Hayden himself is about to be returned without opposition as member of Parliament for Roscommon, the clerical party not venturing to run a candidate against him.

THE PISHOPS.

London just now is crowded with Anglican bishops from all parts of the world, those from Canada and the United States numbering some sixty odd, who are in attendance on the Lambeth Conference. Taking advantage of this circumstance, the Home Reunion Society has issued invitations to the leading ministers of other Protestant denominations and their wives to a conversazione in the great hall of the Church House, Westminster, on Wednesday evening next.

THE LIBRARY CONFERENCE.

The members of the international library conference have been invited by Sir Henry Irving to witness a performance of the "Merchant of Venice" at the Lyceum next Thursday evening. Some five hundred librarians from all parts of the world, including many from Canada and the United States, are expected to attend the conference. They will be entertained next Tuesday by the lord and lady mayoress at the Mansion House.

FAVORS BETTER EDUCATION.

Important Statement by a Member of the Liberal Government of Quebec.

Montreal, July 10.—At a political picnic at Chateauguay the other day Mr. Robidoux, a prominent member of the Quebec government, said the government charged itself with the task of reforming the educational system in this province. "It is in this connection," he said, "that I had an interview with his excellency the papal delegate to Canada, Mgr. del Val replied to me: 'The Province of Quebec is by right the first in Confederation. Let it also be first in fact. Reform your education system that you may ascend to the other provinces of the Dominion. I can only praise your project.'"

HEART PAIN.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Defies the Most Intense Pain—No Matter How Long Standing the Trouble, It Masters Disease in Half an Hour, and in the Case of John Crow Five Bottles Cured Heart Disease of Ten Years' Standing—Here's His Testimony Unsolicited.

John Crow, son of Mr. George Crow, farmer, near the village of Tara, Ont., writes: "I was alarmingly afflicted with palpitation and enlargement of the heart for nearly ten years. I doctored with the best physicians and tried numerous remedies with very little benefit. In our local papers I noticed Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart advertised, and I determined to give it a trial. Inside of half an hour I had relief. I have taken about five bottles, and feel today that I am as well as ever I was, I am completely cured." Sold by C. McCallum and B. A. Mitchell.
