TO YOUNG MEN.

Your names will not be on the list of voters at the next Hyman-Carling election unless you make application to be registered NOW.

The voters' list for the last Provincial election is not used in the Dominion election, and those who registered last spring must register again NOW.

Go to the Liberal Club room, Oddfellows' block, where a solicitor is in attendance to prepare applications.

The sooner you go up, the less trouble to those looking after the work.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

The time to get your Printing is now, the place is the London ADVERTISER Job Printing Department: Will our friends everywhere remember that we print positively everything, from a book down to the smallest card? Either call in or write for prices and samples. You will be gratified to find how well, how reasonably, and how speedily your order will be filled. We try to keep every promise to the hour.

At the opposite ends of the sofa
They sit with vain regrets,
She has been eating onions,
He—smoking cigarettes.

—Mrs. (Rev.) Charles Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Berry, in Chicago.

—Mrs. A. T. H. Johnson, of No. 345 Maitland street, is visiting friends in Chicago.

—First Division Court was held at the court house yesterday. Judge Mackenzie, of Sarnia, presided.

—Miss Lottie and Master Gordon Francis have left to visit friends in Chicago, Milwaukee and other western points.

—Mr. Neil Cooper sold two cottages and lots in London West, property of the late Henry Phair, to Mr. Colbert for $970.

—The W. C. T. U. of Teeswater have named their new headquarters "Thornley Hall," in honor of Mrs. Thornley, of this city.

—The Hand-in-Hand Club held one of their popular hops in the Castle Hall, Duffield Block, Thursday evening. It was attended by about 40 couples.

—The drygoods stock of John Wall, jun., of Chatham, valued at $15,000, was sold by Mr. J. W. Jones at 69½ cents on the dollar. Ham & Co. were the purchasers.

—Mr. W. L. Sutherland, on leaving Cayuga to join the Bank of Commerce staff in this city, was tendered a complimentary supper by the business men of the town.

—Mr. Patrick Dempsey, who was taken to the London Hospital some time ago, returned to the village on Monday, looking remarkably well. His sojourn in the hospital has done him a great deal of good.—[Belmont Times.

—The marriage in Detroit on Wednesday of Miss Ida Pigott, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Pigott, to Mr. Wm. Buchanan, jun., is announced. Both are well-known former Londoners. The groom holds a responsible position with the M. C. R. at Detroit.

—The London West Council will allow a discount of 5 per cent. on all taxes paid on or before Nov. 1. Interest at the rate of 5 per cent will be added after that date. The council are determined to have the collectors' roll returned this year not later than the 14th of December, 1894.

—A blaze in a cottage on York street, west of Richmond, necessitated the attendance of the fire brigade last night. A family named Sutton lives in the cottage, and the place is owned by Mrs. Paul. The fire originated in the kitchen, and was confined to that part. The damage will probably reach $150.

—Mr. Geo. A. Somerville, London, well known in Guelph, has been elected president of the London Curling Club. Curlers in Guelph would be pleased to meet Mr. Somerville and his club on Guelph ice when the season opens, and they will guarantee that they will put up a very interesting game for them.—[Guelph Herald.

—Young man, is your name on the Dominion voters' list yet? It is not, if you have not signed the usual declaration. If you have not signed it, go to the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' block, tonight. If you neglect this duty now, you cannot vote in the coming Dominion election.

—Rev. Robert Aylward, late of London, will be inducted to the pastorate of the Parkhill Presbyterian Church on Oct. 16. The Gazette says: "He is a speaker of much power, is thoroughly evangelistic, and will be a notable accession to the ranks of the Christian workers of the town and district. The call was a unanimous one."

—An enjoyable concert was given at Hope Sabbath School, con. 1, Westminster, last evening, in aid of the school fund, when a good programme of vocal and instrumental music, recitation and dialogue, was rendered. Mr. Yeo made an admirable chairman. The comic and topical numbers of Mr. A. Jutson, who was repeatedly recalled, were enthusiastically received. Solos were given in good style by Misses Murray and Main and duets by Misses Wright and Dowell. Mr. Skinner's solos were also well received. The Platt Bros.' clarionet and harmonica solos and duets were deservedly applauded. Miss Yeo and Mr. Victor Colwell accompanied in first-class style. The chief credit for the success of the concert rests with Mr. and Miss Yeo, who worked hard for that purpose, and the fund benefited materially by the proceeds.

Baptist Church Notes.

Mr. Truss, of Brantford, recently called attention to the neglected state of the grave of Rev. D. Fyfe in the cemetery at Toronto. The matter has aroused the Baptists of Toronto, and $30 will be raised to put the grave in good repair, and to have it so kept in the future.—Rev. E. L. Steves has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church, Blenheim.—Rev. T. M. Fothergill has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Strathroy church, and will enter upon his duties the first Sabbath in November.

Death of G. N. Tackabury.

Mr. G. N. Tackabury, the well-known map and atlas publisher, died at his residence, Canastata, N. Y., on Monday, the 1st inst., aged 66 years. Mr. Tackabury was at one time a resident of this city, but moved from here to Canastata about 30 years ago, where he has resided ever since. He died surrounded by his wife and children—Mrs. J. W. Wilson, of Canastata; Mrs. H. N. Marvin, of Syracuse; Mr. Geo. W. Tackabury, of Topeka, Kan., and Mrs. Samuel Stevely, of this city. He was buried with Masonic honors in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Canastata. Mrs. Samuel Stevely returned to the city yesterday from attending the funeral.

Into Other Hands.

At a meeting of the Prisoners' Aid Association yesterday it was moved by Dr. Arnott, seconded by Mr. Wm. Bowman, that the treasurer, Dr. Harrison, be instructed to place $11 50 to the credit of Mr. Fred Matthews for the use of the association, and that he be instructed to place the balance of the funds ($60) to the credit of Mr. H. H. Booth on account of the Salvation Army, for the purpose of the Men's Industrial Home, which is being established in this city by the army. The meeting also decided to hand over to the army the list of subscribers to the Prison Gate Home. Among those present were: Dr. Arnott, Wm. Bowman, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Cairfrae, A. N. Udy, Dr. Harrison, Staff Capt. MacMillan, and Adjt. Miller.

Epworth Reunion.

The sixth annual reunion of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor was held in the school room of the Dundas Street Methodist Church Thursday evening. The place was crowded to the doors. Rev. E. B. Lanceley, the pastor, occupied the chair. After singing and prayer Mr. Lanceley, with a few prefatory remarks, introduced the following choice programme:

Solo.....Dr. C. H. Ziegler
Recitation.....Miss Parker
Instrumental.....Mr. W. Moxon
Solo.....Miss B. Daly
Recitation.....Miss Boon
Solo.....Miss Ruse
Violin solo.....Miss McDonald
Solo.....Miss Gunn

Mr. Wm. Moxon and Mrs. Whiting were the accompanists. After the concert refreshments were served, and everybody proceeded to become better acquainted with his or her neighbor. The reunion proved to be eminently successful.

IT'S AN ILL WIND, ETC.

Misfortune to a Yankee Cruiser Brings a Harvest to the British Sealers.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 6.—The Indians ascribe the enormous seal catch of the British schooners to the grounding of the United States warship, Adams. She went ashore in a dense fog and was compelled to fire several hundred signals from her guns before the Yorktown heard them and went to her assistance. The firing scared the seals from the rookeries and the British schooners that happened to be in the vicinity reaped a harvest.

Mary and Her Little Pain.

Mary has a little pain;
Comes from torpid liver;
It follows her where'er she goes
Spite of all they give her.

Shubal Hill Tells of Lack of Ambition and the Cure.

He writes from Hamilton, Dec. 9, 1890, as follows:

Isaac Williams Company, London, Ont.:

Dear Sirs,—After suffering for a long time with pains in my back, extending to my lower parts, also no ambition to do my daily work, I was induced by Mr. Bickell to try Royal Crown Remedy. After taking two bottles, and Pills, as directed, I consider myself entirely cured, and can highly recommend your medicine, R. C. R. and Pills, to do all you claim them to do. Should be in every home. It saves hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills. Yours truly, SHUBAL HILL, ywt 177 Cannon street, east.
