THE CHIMES OF ENGLAND.

The chimes, the chimes of motherland,
Of England green and old,
That out from vane and ivied Tower
A thousand years have toll'd
How glorious must their music be
As it breaks hallow'd day,
And calleth with a seraph's voice
A nation up to pay!

Those chimes that tell a thousand tales,
Sweet tales of olden time!
And ring a thousand memories
At vesper and at prime;
At bridal and at burial
For cottager and king—
Those chimes, those glorious Christian Chimes,
How blessedly they ring!

Those chimes, those chimes of motherland
Upon a Christmas morn,
Out breaking as the Angels did,
For a Redeemer born—
How merrily they call star,
To cot and baron's hall,
With holly deck'd and misletoe
To keep the festival!

The chimes of England, how they peal
From tower and gothic pile,
Where hymn and swelling anthem fill
The dim cathedral aisle,
Where windows bathe the holy light
On priestly heads that falls,
And stain the florid tracery
And banner-dighted walls!

And then those Easter bells in spring,
Those glorious Easter chimes!
How loyally they hail thee round,
Old queen of holy times!
From hill to hill like sentinels,
Responsively they cry,
And sing the rising of the Lord,
From vale to mountain high.

I love ye—chimes of motherland,
With all the soul of mine,
And bless the Lord that I am sprung
Of good old English line!
And like a son I sing the lay
That England's glory tells;
For she is blessed of the Lord,
For you ye Christian bells.

And happy in my father's fame
And happy in my birth,
Thee too I love, my forest land,
Thou joy of all the earth;
For thine my mother's voice shall be,
And here—where God is king,
With English chimes from Christian spires,
The wilderness shall ring.

A silly but pretty woman complained to the celebrated and beautiful Sophia Arnold of the number of her admirers, and wished to know how to get rid of them. "O my dear," was the sarcastic reply, "it is very easy for you to do it; you have only to speak."

A jester in the court of Francis I. complained that a great lord threatened to murder him if he did not cease joking about him. "If he does so," said the king, "I will hang him in five minutes after." "I wish your Majesty would hang him five minutes before, replied the jester.

"Do you support Gen. Taylor?" "No." "Do you support Gen. Cass?" "No, sir." "What! do you support Van Buren?" "No, sir-ee—I support Betsey and the children, and its mighty tight screwing to get along at that, with corn only twenty cents a bushel."

A good Quaker lady, after listening to the extravagant yarn of a storekeeper as long as her patience would allow, said to him, "Friend H., what a pity it is that it is a sin to lie, when it seems so necessary in thy business.

A late celebrated judge, who stooped very much when walking, had a stone thrown at him one day, which fortunately passed over him without hitting him. Turning to his friend, he remarked—"Had I been an upright judge, that might have caused my death."

A Bloomer was seen in Cleveland on Tuesday. Her skirts were unusually short, and instead of the pantaloons a la Turk, she wore tights! It was the ne plus ultra of the fashion.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CHYLER SIR ANDREW AND CHEMISTS ARE IN THE HIGHEST APPROVED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About two years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Sultney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his leg, which so completely crippled him that he could not move without crutches for nearly two years. Recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigour.

(Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DISEASED SKIN DISEASE WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID BENEFITLESS.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Hind, Draper, of Ready, near Gainsboro, dated March 1st, 1852.

To professor Holloway.

Sir,—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer

(Signed) J. HIND, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED AND LEGS DEBILITY AND GENERAL ILLHEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of New-Castle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th 1852.

To professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey-street, in this town, to inform you that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill-health, accompanied with a disordered stomach and great detangement of the system. In addition to this she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In Pills and Ointment and she states, that in a wonderfully short time they effected a perfect cure, of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully.

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS, AND ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker & Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies, her health rapidly giving away under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above seventy years of age We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of the really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A Private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means, had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.

We remain, dear Sir, your's faithfully,

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co,

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:

ATLANTIC
LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,
CANNON STREET WEST.

London, 1st March, 1853.

THE Court of Directors have much pleasure in reporting the onward progress of this Company. During the year 1852, the new Policies issued were 324, assuring the sum of £182,957 18s., being the largest amount of new business transacted in any one year.

The Income of the year was £53,819 5s 5d., and the funds in hand, after providing for payment of bonuses to the policy holders and proprietors, and reduction of premiums allowed, had increased to £248,979 16s 7d.

Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that the expenses of management for the year did not amount to seven per cent. of the income. The number of policies issued, and the income of the Company during the respective years, were as follows:

Year.	No. of Policies actually issued.	Sums assured thereby.			Ann. Income.
1847	113	102,247	0	4	29,720	12	7
1848	126	116,045	2	6	35,214	4	7
1849	273	149,861	2	6	39,011	1	4
1850	301	156,370	13	0	42,207	5	8
1851	342	176,578	7	0	47,721	2	6
To in 5 yrs.	1153	695,102	5	4	193,874	6	8

Thus exhibiting a steady and gradual increase.

The following table illustrates the Bonuses declared:—

		Average reduction of Premium.	Average Reversionary Bonus.
1st Division—	1842...	16.833 per cent.	31 per cent.
2d "	1847...	31.333 "	63 "
3d "	1852...	35.22 "	60 "

It cannot be too generally known that the dividends paid annually to the proprietors are derived entirely from the investment of their own capital, the deed of settlement providing that any portion of the income of the Life Assurance Fund to be diverted to pay interest to the proprietors.

The distinguishing feature of this Company is—a guaranteed return at any time for the surrender of existing Whole Term Policies, effected by even rates of forty per cent. of the amount of ordinary premiums received thereon.

The objection often raised by persons intending to assure, as to the uncertainty of being able to continue the payment of their premiums, is thus obviated, and a policy holder will always know the value of his policy. Policies will also thus be rendered immediately available as securities.

Loans are granted on deposit of policies of five years' standing, to the extent of their value, thus enabling the holders to provide for the payment of future premiums.
