EAST LONDON

EAST ENDERS WANT A BRANCH MARKET

Say That It Is Their Only Due —Pleased With Action of Committee.

The action of No. 3 committee in recommending that the council secure prices of land in the vicinity of the East End Hall at the corner of Dundas and Rectory streets, for an East End market, is meeting with much favor among residents and businessmen of that section.

It is felt that it is a hardship on East Enders to compel them to attend the city market, as it is frequently impossible to have goods delivered so far oway.

The farmers are evidently in such a position that they can sell their goods in any convenient locality, and unless they are given an exorbitant price they will not go to East London.

There is a move on foot to have the large vacont lot on Dundas street on the west side of the East End Hall secured for the purpose, as it would be ideally located.

It would be practically in the centre of that part of the city, and would be convenient for the farmers, many of whom would prefer to offer their goods there.

It is large enough for all clasess of produce, and even a hay stand. The East End city scales are also on the same block, not one hundred feet distant.

EAST END MEN INDULGE IN FIGHT

One of Them Was Foun in the Police Court Toay.

James Rockwood, an East End young man, was fined $1 and $4.10 costs by Magistrate Love this morning for acting in a disorderly manner in a skating rink. Richard Sharratt was also charged with the same offence, but after hearing the evidence the court dismissed the case against him. John McNerney, constable at the rink, stated that he had seen Rockwood lying on a bench in a pool of blood under his head. Sharratt had told him that he had had to hit Rockwood or get whipped himself. Another young man testified that he had seen the two accused young fellows scuffling, and that Rockwood had told Sharratt he could lick him any day in the week.

The proprietor of the rink said that Sharratt had told him when he was going out that he had to hit Rockwood in self-defense. Sharratt, in the box, stated that he had pushed Rockwood, and that in falling Rockwood had bumped his head against a bench and made his nose bleed. Rockwood denied in the box that there had been any fight, but said Sharratt had pushed him and he fell over. The court asked Rockwood how many drinks he had had, and Rockwood said about ten.

"I hold that there was a fight," said the court. "It didn't last long, apparently, but I think Rockwood deserved all he got. I fine him $1 and $4.10 costs, and discharge Sharratt."

MOTHERS' CLUB MEETING.

A meeting of the newly-organized Mothers' Club of Chelsea Green was held this afternoon in the school, a large number of ladies being present. The club was organized with a large membership, and a number of additional names have already been added to the list.

Increase in Price.

Restaurant-keepers of the city are are agitating for an advance in prices, and it is understood that a meeting will be held to consider a new scale of quotations. They clai mthat there is no profit in the business at present, owing to the high price of everything on the market, and that they are compelled to put up the cost to make anything.

Scatcherd Is Well.

The Advertiser is in receipt of a telegram from Calgary stating that the story that Trumbell Scatcherd was stabbed by an Indian in the Rockies, is incorrect, as the young man is at the present time in Calgary and has not been away from there since coming to the city in August last. Someone who has a crude idea o fthe advantages of a sensation sent the story from Calgary.

The foreign missionary session of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Society of Ontario West opened this morning at the Adelaide Street Baptist Church with the president, Mrs. J. Firstbrook in the chair.

The officers were elected as follows: President—Mrs. J. Firstbrook.

First Vice-President — Mrs. John McLaurin.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. J. J. Ross.

Treasurer—Mrs. D. N. Robertson, Toronto.

The election of the members of the woman's foreign missionary board had not been completed at the close of the morning session.

After the opening service had been conducted by Mrs. M. P. Campbell, of Bothwell, and Mrs. Stephen Dadson, of Paris, the annual reports were presented.

The Reports.

The report of the recording secretary, Mrs. Glenn Campbell, of Toronto, showed a very gratifying condition of affairs. There was everywhere reported an increasing interest, and an enlarged work.

The report of the "Canadian Missionary Link," was presented by its editor, Miss Jacqueline M. Norton, B. A. There are at present 4,476 subscriptions, an increase during the year of 508.

Mrs. Lloyd, the home corresponding secretary, reported the conditions in the mission circles through Western Ontario as being in a most flourishing condition, amongst the most progressive being Elgin and Toronto associations.

The treasurer's report presented by the newly-appointed treasurer, Mrs. D. N. Robertson, was prepared by the retiring treasurer, Miss S. J. Webster. It showed contributions as follows: From mission circles and bands for missionary purposes: From the Elgin associations, $664 33; Guelph, $450 25; Middlesex and Lambton, $770 90; Niagara and Hamilton, $834 10; Norfolk, $455; Northern Association, $388 87; Owen Sound, $210 59; Oxford-Brant, $1,305 16; Peterboro, $471 58; Toronto, $4,630 95; Walkerton, $181 23; Western, $450 82; Whitby and Lindsay, $246 96; 243 circles sent $9,299 50; 122 bands sent $1,379 35; 18 other organizations sent $330 05; 11 associations sent $51 92, a total of $11,060 82.

Mrs. G. W. Barber reporting for the bands, said that 122 bands had given $1,375 35, ten more bands than last year having contributed. Last year 17 bands reported, from whom we have not heard this year, but on the other hand 27 bands who were not heard from last year have reported so far, and 13 new bands have been organized.

Circles and Bands.

Two ladies discussed the question of the "Link Between Circles and Bands," Miss J. Jeffrey being the first speaker. "Young ladies leave the band at the age of 16," she said, "and they do not feel then that they could enter the woman's circle, and, so it becomes necessary to organize a young ladies' mission circle." Miss Jeffrey then spoke of the methods used in the organization of such a young ladies' mission circle, and the work done there.
