THE SPORTING NEWS OF A DAY.

No Football Championship Honors for London; Juniors Defeated by Dundas, 21 to 2

It has been truthfully said that the saddest of all words are "What might have been." The truth of this assertion was never more plainly exemplified than yesterday afternoon and evening when nearly six hundred Londoners journeyed to Woodstock to see the junior semi-final O. R. F. U. match with Dundas played off, and the London team went down to defeat by the one-sided score of 21 to 2. By losing this game the prospects for Rugby championship honors have departed from London for this season. Both local teams are down and out now, though neither has in the least been disgraced.

Thanksgiving Day was almost an ideal day for Rugby. The only drawback was a light wind, which was blowing from the east, and which on most fields, other than the W. A. A. A. grounds in Woodstock, would not have mattered a great deal. But the wind blew for the greater part of the afternoon directly across the field, making it extremely difficult to catch the pigskin, and this was mainly responsible for the large number of fumbles by both teams. At 10 minutes to 2 o'clock between two and three hundred lovers of the good old game formed up in line at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, and followed the bugle band of the Seventh Regiment, 21 strong, headed by Drum-Major Cockburn, down Richmond street to the G. T. R. station. The club colors, red, white and black, were everywhere displayed—on hats, wound around canes, formed into neckties, fastened to coat lapels and in many other ways. Chrysanthemums, the patron flower of the game, were in greater demand than dealers ever remember experiencing before in London. One local florist alone sold over four hundred 'mums and had received upwards of one hundred dollars in payment for them. The procession reached the station and boarded the special train. Already over three hundred people were at the depot, and it was found necessary to attach two extra coaches to the train, making a total of eight, each of which was completely filled. Between five and six hundred people were in party, a number of the fair sex being included. Exactly at 2 o'clock the train pulled out and a fast run was made to Woodstock. Enthusiasm was boundless. Most of the rooters were confident London would win the match and the remainder expected at least a very close score.

Paraded In Woodstock.

A procession was formed at the station in Woodstock, the bugle band leading, followed by the players in a 'bus and the rooters in double file, and extending in a line nearly half a mile in length. The club colors, the 'mums, the triangular banners carried by many of the boys and the regular line of march combined to form a very bright picture indeed. The procession went up to Dundas street and then along that thoroughfare to Vansittart avenue; thence across a park and down Delatre street to the W. A. A. A. grounds. Throughout the entire march the calls: "Trees and flowers," "What have we done? What have we done?" "L-O-N-D-O-N," were continually in the air. The tramp was a long one, but not nearly so long as it seemed coming back. The boys walked the two miles quite patiently, and on arrival at the grounds found two or three hundred spectators already assembled, the Dundas team having previously arrived. A small crowd of supporters were with the team—perhaps not more than twenty-five, but a great many Woodstock people turned out. The London contingent first took possession of the western grand stand, which proved quite inadequate to hold the crowd, and after the game started nearly everyone formed up along the touchline and it was at times difficult to keep off the playing-field.

Game Free From Roughness.

Not a very great deal may be said in praise of the game, unless it be in regard to its freedom from roughness. Referee Hayes thought it one of the cleanest exhibitions he had ever witnessed. Not a single man was ruled off, and only very occasionally was time taken off for injuries to players. Unfortunately one accident occurred which may result more seriously than the average mishap in a game of Rugby. Alex Arder received a kick on the knee in the second half which compelled him to leave the field. Watson's injury to his arm forced him to retire, Hopkins took Watson's place, the accident occurring in the first half, but Quackenbush retired with Alexander in the second half.

London won the toss. No very great advantage from the wind could be gained by kicking in either direction, but Capt. Thomson kicked to the south.

Watson got the ball from the kick-off, but London lost it in the first down. Dundas had two downs on their 25-yard line, gaining nothing, and, Mason got the ball on the second down. London quite frequently lost the ball on the first and second downs. For the first fifteen minutes of play, London was very aggressive and the scrimmages were formed in Dundas territory. Big "Bud" Lucas' work in bucking the line was mapped out for him, and to him a great many times devolved the duty of tearing through the Dundas line. London had downs on the Dundas 10-yard line several times, but did not succeed in getting over. Dundas once got the ball on the third down and had two downs on their own 10-yard line. On the third down they made their gain, and would have made a much larger one but for a pretty tackle by Tierney.

London In Hard Luck.

London ran in hard luck for a few minutes. Nelson, of Dundas, kicked the ball from a scrimmage on the Dundas 25-yard line. It was a long, high kick down the field. Reid muffed, but London got the ball and it was their down on their 50-yard line. Thomson kicked on the first down, but a Dundas man blocked it and the ball bounced back. Quickly one of the Dundas wings snatched the pigskin up and succeeded in breaking through the London players and carrying it over the line. The touchdown was easily converted, as it occurred directly in London's goal. Three London downs occurred, the kick in the third being neatly blocked by the Dundas wings, who quite often broke through before Thomson could handle the ball. Dundas got the ball, as a gain was not affected, but lost it on their first down, because of an off-side play. London had a series of five downs, the first two being near the center of the field, and the others 15 yards farther towards the Dundas goal. On the third down Thomson kicked and Tierney got the ball from a fumble by a Dundas half. Two downs were made on Dundas' 5-yard line, but without gain and on the third Thomson kicked over the dead-ball line, scoring one point. Mason fumbled a long kick and Dundas got the ball on London's 25-yard line, losing it, however, on an offside play. Thomson punted 40 yards, where the Dundas half was tackled. Reid made a pretty catch of one of Nelson's punts, a moment later he handled another slowly and London was downed on her 10-yard line. A series of uneventful downs occurred, in which Tierney distinguished himself by a very neat tackle, and Billy Rowlands was injured for a few moments. Mason fumbled badly, nearly forty yards being lost thereby, and after two downs on London's 25-yard line, Nelson kicked over the dead-ball line, scoring another point. In Dundas' down on the center of the field, Nelson made another long punt, which Reid fumbled, and Alexander dropped on the ball just in time, as it was over the goal line. This made the score 8—1. Thomson made a good run for a gain of 25 yards, and a series of downs followed, in one of which Lucas nearly got free with a clear field ahead of him. Unfortunately for London, he was tripped up. Alexander made a good run after a long pass from Thomson. After three downs on Dundas' 15-yard line, London lost the ball, because of inability to make their gain. A short series of downs occurred, from one of which Alexander, after a short run, kicked the ball into touch in goal, scoring another for London. This was London's final scoring. Half time was called shortly after this score was made. Watson was replaced by Hopkins shortly before half-time and Towe brought down a big Dundas man in a splendid manner in a tackle. The score at half time stood 8 to 2.

The Second Half.

The game did not begin until nearly 4 o'clock, and because of delays the second half was played for a great part in the twilight. Dundas made the kick-off, and a number of downs followed in which Rowlands and Tierney did some good work. The latter followed up fast at all times, and did not play off side, as he has done so often in the past. Thomson got the ball on London's 10-yard line and a London down resulted. Dundas returned the kick and Reid failed to handle the ball behind the goal line, and a Dundas wing fell onto it, scoring five more points. On the try the goal was missed. It began to be quite difficult to handle the ball on account of the increasing darkness, and many misplays occurred on both sides. Reid and Alexander were both forced to rouge in this half. About ten minutes before time was called Alexander received a bad kick on his already sore knee from a Dundas man whom he had tackled, and was unable to continue playing. The prettiest play of the day occurred about two minutes before time was called, but it was made much more easy to accomplish by the darkness. Walker, the speedy right half for Dundas, made an end run for 30 yards' gain and carried the ball over the line. The try, though a hard one, was converted, making six points more—in all 21 for Dundas.

The usual cheers for the teams and officials were given immediately after the game. Referee Hayes and Umpire Robbins, both of Hamilton, gave entire satisfaction.

The line-up for London was as follows: Full back, Reid; halves, Alexander, Thomson (captain), Mason; quarter, Towe; center, McGregor; wings, Tierney, Westman, Lucas, Rowlands, Carmichael, Watson and Hopkins.

The line-up for Dundas was: Full back, Brady; halves, Rayeroft, Nelson, Walker; quarter, Quackenbush; center, Smith; wings, McKay, Stock, Simons, Bickford, Stutt, Martin.

Dundas now plays Kingston in Toronto on the 26th, and they have the well wishes of all the London team and supporters. They are a most gentlemanly lot of players, and deserve full credit for their victory, which was won by legitimate football. It was a case of the superior team coming out on top.

Many women are denied the happiness of children through derangement of the generative organs. Mrs. Beyer advises women to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with stomach complaint for years. I got so bad that I could not carry my children but five months, then would have a miscarriage. The last time I became pregnant, my husband got me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the first bottle I was relieved of the sickness of stomach, and began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my baby to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and can work better than I ever could before. I am like a new woman."—MRS. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn.

Another case which proves that no other medicine in the world accomplishes the same results as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was married for five years and gave birth to two premature children. After that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it changed me from a weak, nervous woman to a strong, happy and healthy wife within seven months. Within two years a lovely little girl was born, who is the pride and joy of my household. If every woman who is cured feels as grateful and happy as I do, you must have a host of friends, for every day I bless you for the light, health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought to my home. Sincerely yours, MRS. MAE P. WHARRY, Flat 31, The Norman, Milwaukee, Wis."

PATCH DID TRICK; DILLON FAILED

Two Great Turf Stars Went Against Their Records on Thursday.

Two of the great idols of the turf went against world's records yesterday. Lou Dillon failed in her attempt to lower the world's trotting record, but Dan Patch was successful in breaking the half-mile mark.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 17.—Dan Patch established a new record on the association track here yesterday. He went a full mile in 2:03, a quarter of a second lower than his own previous record. After breaking at the three-quarter pole, Patch recovered himself wonderfully and with phenomenal speed went the distance in record-breaking time. Five thousand people witnessed the effort and went wild when the time was announced. By quarters it was as follows: 30½, 1:00½, 1:31½, and 2:03.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 17. -- Lou Dillon today failed in an attempt to lower her world's record of 2:01. She was unable to accomplish the feat, doing nothing better than 2:03 flat. The track was in good condition. The time by quarters was 31¼, 1:01¼, 1:31¾, 2:03.

ODOM'S CLOSE CALL.

Jolted out of the saddle while riding Collector Jessup in the first race on the closing day at the Aqueduct, George Odom fell to the ground directly in front of the grand stand, 50 yards from the finish, and had a narrow escape from serious injury, because immediately behind him came Race King, who was, however, piloted out of the way of the prostrate jockey.

Odom continued on to the jockeys' room and preferred no charge of foul until sent for by the stewards. Then he was seen making his way to the stand, and after a short interval Pasadena's number was taken down, it being held that he swerved and bumped into Collector Jessup, causing him to fall. Odom was not injured and spent the rest of the day receiving congratulations at his narrow escape.

YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS.

At Bennings—Mary Glenn, 100 to 1; Chimney Sweep, 6 to 1; Gascar, 7 to 1; Race King 2½ to 1; Sheen, 4 to 1.

WILL NOT HAVE HOLLOW VICTORY

Young Corbett Will Have to Fight When He Meets the "Danish Slasher."

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Fight folowers here are slowly but surely arriving at the conclusion that Young Corbett will not score a hollow victory over Battling Nelson when the pair meet on the 29th of this month. Competent critics who have seen Nelson in action say that Corbett will have to be in first-class condition when he meets the "Danish Slasher."

The Denver boy realizes this, and is working very hard to take off a lot of the surplus weight he put on during his long term of idleness in New York city. Under the mentorship of Harry Tuthill, Corbett is doing lots or road work in preparation for the battle, and has taken off as much as twelve pounds in a single day.

Nelson has Eddie Santry, one of the cleverest performers in the 128-pound class, working with him Santry knows Corbett well. He boxes from four to six rounds with Nelson every day.

In his previous battles Nelson has shown ability to take punishment, and patiently wait for an opportunity to take advantage of any weakness that shows itself in an opponent. He is easy to hit, but not in vital points. He is an effective blocker and calm and collected under the fiercest fire. His favorite point of attack is the stomach.

What he will be able to do against a clever, aggressive ring general of the highest type, who carries a knockout punch in either mit, like Corbett, remains to be seen. The opinion of the sports is that Corbett will win if he is in as good condition as he was the night he met Jimmy Britt. The Denver boy has already been installed favorite in the betting, although Nelson has admirers who are taking the short end.

Nelson's manager, Jimmy Murphy, of Chicago, says: "I will have about $2,000 to bet on the 'Danish Slasher' at prevailing odds, which will be quite liberal, I think."

If Young Corbett disposes of Nelson without much trouble he may be matched to fight Jimmy Britt on Dec. 19 at Mechanics' Pavilion.

BOTH MEN WON IN PRIZE FIGHT

One Got Victory by Fluke—Met Opponent Second Time and Was Knocked Out.

In the ten-round bout between Larry Connelly, of Boston, and Fred Bryson, of Cambridge, before the Cambridge (Mass.) A. C., both men won. In the first round Bryson, who has a fine left hand, tried to reach his rival's jaw. As he did Connelly made a rush, shoved Bryson's guard to one side, and dropped him to the floor with a stinging right on the jaw. Bryson was not unconscious, but simply dazed. He took the count, but misjudged the seconds. Instead of rising at the toll of nine, he stayed down until ten was counted. He was practically knocked out and the referee declared Connelly the victor.

The crowd began filing out and Connelly, realizing that his victory was a fluke, agreed to meet his rival again. So the crowd returned, and after fifteen minutes' rest the scrap was resumed, with the first victory going to Connelly's credit. The pair fought the entire ten rounds. Bryson had all the better of the struggle from the opening round and got the verdict on points. So both men beat each other on the same night, a thing unparalleled in the history of the ring.

MAY FIGHT AGAIN.

Negotiations for another match between Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt are under way. The Yosemite A. C., San Francisco, is the first California club in the field for the battle, with an offer for the men to meet in the latter part of January. Britt says that he is satisfied to meet the negro again under the conditions which prevailed when they fought a few weeks ago. However, before meeting the lightweight champion, Britt wants a chance to come east and pick up some easy money by indulging in several six-round bouts at Philadelphia. As Gans has declared that he will not consider a match unless the weight is 135 pounds, at 6 o'clock on the night of the scrap, a return bout seems improbable. But Britt may change his mind and conclude to face the colored man at Gans' terms.

RYAN WON IN FOURTH.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 17. — Tommy Ryan won from Jack Graham, of Kansas City, in the fourth round, the police stopping the contest to prevent injury to Graham. Graham was outclassed by the wily Ryan, but took a good beating being knocked down four times in the last round. In the preliminaries Young Burgars was knocked out by Red Hanlin in two rounds, and Louis Durond got the decision over Napanee Kid in four rounds.

AMERICA'S CUP SAFE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

New York, Nov. 17. — Members of the New York Yacht Club have about concluded that the America's cup is safe for another year, and that no races will occur in 1905 for that trophy.

It is provided in the rules governing the case that challenges shall be made in writing ten months prior to the dates for the races. While the conditions allow racing in October, nearly all yachtsmen—British and American, have declared against sailing outside Sandy Hook in October, owing to the heavy seas which generally prevail at that season, so that no challenge is considered likely this year.

YALE MEN LIKE BUNCH OF KITTENS

Filled With Enthusiasm Over Saturday's Prospects—Norcross for Michigan.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 16. — Frisky as a bunch of kittens, Yale's husky 'Varsity football team arrived in New Haven late yesterday afternoon from Ardsley-on-Hudson. The players in the evening met the coaches at the gymnasium for signal practice.

Yale's undergraduates are filled with enthusiasm over the prospects for the game next Saturday. The splendid condition in which the team has returned home leaves nothing in that respect to be desired, and it is now believed that Yale will line up exactly as she faced Princeton.

If Harvard's heavy line attacks are to have with them the power which Harvard professes they have, Yale may have to use one or two substitutes. Kineon for tackle, Flanders at guard and Erwin for center, are the men who will get into the game if their presence is required.

The string of "subs" was again today the center of attraction at the Yale field. Field Coach Rafferty, Edgar Glass and Harold Metcalf took them in hand. There was a scrimmage behind closed gates, and after the gates were opened the men were worked at getting down the field under punts, receiving the ball and forming running interference. Chamberlain, Holloway, Bigelow and Linn, of the freshman squad, have been taken over to the 'Varsity squad for use in the college team.

It is generally believed that the 'Varsity and college teams will have a scrimmage tomorrow afternoon.

The scrubs, with the exception of the college team, break training tomorrow night. There will be a gigantic rally at the field tomorrow afternoon, in which about a thousand students will participate. Mass meetings to rehearse cheers and songs are being held every night.

NORCROSS CHOSEN CAPTAIN.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 17. — Fred Norcross, of Menominee, Mich., the plucky quarter back of the Michigan football team, was elected captain by unanimous vote of the members.

Norcross' strongheld is grit and hard work, and through them he has developed wonderfully since the opening of the season.

Coach Yost Manager Baird and Trainer Fitzpatrick have left for the east to attend the Yale-Harvard game and to have a look at West Point.

Retiring Captain Heston is on the lookout for a good coaching position for next year, and in the meantime is devoting himself to his studies. A professional team in Akron, Ohio, is very anxious to secure him for a big professional game, and are said to have run the price up to $1,000. Heston has no particular prejudice against $1,000 bills, but has decided that it will hurt his chances of landing a coaching position, and will injure his football reputation in general to go into professionalism in this way, so has definitely turned the proposition down.

MONEY IN FOOTBAL.

The following report of the graduate treasurer of athletics at Harvard has just been submitted to the athletic committee.

As usual football is the most lucrative sport, the profit for the year being $57,223 30. The heaviest loss is against the crew, which has a balance on the wrong side of $6,481 52. The track team only lost $553 62, while university baseball made a profit of $4,035 13.

GALT TEAM WON OLYMPIC HONORS

The Canadians Win Final Game and Take Championship at St. Louis.

Word has been received from St. Louis to the effect that yesterday the Galt Association football team defeated the St. Rose's School team of St. Louis, thereby winning the Olympic championship. The score was 4 to 0, two of the goals being made by Taylor, and another by Twait. The fourth was kicked for Galt by a St. Rose's School man.

TIGERS SCORE WIN AGAINST 'VARSITY

That the eastern football teams are not to any marked degree faster than London was demonstrated at Toronto yesterday, when the Hamilton Tigers defeated 'Varsity by a score of 37 to 6. At the end of the first half, which was stubbornly contested, the score stood 6 to 5. In the second, however, the Tigers forged ahead and increased their score materially, while the 'Varsity figure remained practically the same. H. C. Griffiths, of St. Catherines, refereed the game.

Mellor was the favorite in the betting, and made the distance in 1 hour, 48 minutes and 43 seconds, breaking the record of John Coffery, of Hamilton, which was 1 hour, 51 minutes and 52 seconds. THE TURF.

PAID $5,000 FOR RELEASE.

Fuller, the colored jockey, has money, and he wants to be his own master. At the Aqueduct the other day he stated that he had purchased his riding contract from Archie Zimmer, and would set out for California on Saturday next in company with John Bullman. He intends to ride this winter at the Los Angeles meeting. He paid Zimmer $5,000 for his release. This is a new feature — a jockey purchasing his own freedom. He will ride this winter at 105 pounds.
