MAYOR M'LAREN CONFERS WITH HYDRO-COMMISSION

Likely City Council Will Join Municipalities in Cheap Power Movement.

HAMILTON, Jan. 15.—(Special.)—Mayor McLaren and many of the aldermen had an informal conference this evening with Solicitor A. F. Lobb and P. W. Southmam, engineer of the hydro-electric power commission. The commission's project was discussed. The decision in the Smith suit leaves the city free to join the project, and as there are thirteen members of the council favorable to that couse, the council will likely repudiate the contract entered into last summer with the Cataract Company.

Beach Wants Divorce.

At a meeting of the beach commissioners and residents this evening, the desire was expressed that there should be a complete divorce between the Beach and Saltfleet Township. The government will be asked to appoint a board to control the beach liquor licenses, and that the public school be separated from the township. It was also agreed that the Birely property should be purchased for a park, and the government asked to give a grant towards a park scheme. A satisfactory financial statement was given by the commissioners, which showed that the receipts were $30,822 and the expenditures $28,496. About $19,000 was spent on the waterworks system.

Attacked Criminal Code.

At the annual meeting of the board of trade this afternoon, H. C. Beckett attacked the criminal code, which had made possible what he called an outrageous attack on the alleged grocers combine. The new president, H. H. Champ, criticized labor unions and what he called the "foreign labor agitators." The following officers were elected: W. S. Champ, president; W. J. Southam, vice-president; Charles Stiff, secretary treasurer. The following council was elected: George E. Bristol, H. H. Champ, C. W. Graham, F. C. Fearman, A. F. Hatch, Walder Parke, R. A. Robertson, W. G. Bailey and C. B. Linton.

A jury this afternoon awarded Alfred Cox $525 damages against Wagstaffe, Limited, for wrongful dismissal.

Labor Council Officers.

The Trades and Labor Council this evening elected the following officers: C. I. Aaitchison, president; Jos. Gimblette, vice-president; Phil. Obermeyer, recording secretary; W. Burton, financial secretary; M. Silverman, treasurer; George W. Walker, sergeant at arms; auditors, William Penny, Chas. Welby, and Charles Layland; trustees, Allan Studholme, M.L.A.; H. J. Halford and J. J. Burns.

Several contractors are figuring on the contract of building the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph Railway, including a branch to Galt.

The younger members of the police force have decided to petition for the restoration of good conduct badges, which entitle the holder to draw ten cents a day extra pay. They also want one day off duty every four weeks.

A lunacy commission has decided that Mrs. I. Kauffman, who attempted suicide, was a victim of melancholia.

Obernesser Committed.

Jacob Obernesser, proprietor of the Union Hotel, who was wanted on a charge of hitting John A. Walker over the head with a billiard cue, gave himself up this morning and was committed for trial. The complainant said he could not remember what happened, and the magistrate threatened to send him to jail to refresh his memory.

Crown Attorney Washington caused an enquiry to be made into the death of Mrs. Thompson, Marsh-street. She was taken from the hospital last Christmas after being treated there for several months, because she insisted upon leaving the institution in spite of the advice of her husband and the doctors, and died suddenly last Wednesday from heart disease.

Boils and Pimples

Are caused entirely by the blood being in an impure condition, and the quickest and simplest way to get rid of them is to take a few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters.

This purely vegetable remedy has cured thousands of cases of these painful and unsightly troubles during the past thirty years.

BOILS. Mr. S. J. Weir, Riverview, Ont., writes:—"Last summer I had nineteen boils on my neck and back. I was off work for over two weeks. I took everything I could think of but to no effect. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and before I had used half the bottle the boils were gone. I took the rest of it, however, and I have not had a boil since."

PIMPLES. Mrs. W. J. Crandon, St. Mary's, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with pimples on my face for a couple of years and tried a good deal of patent medicine, but they were not of much use. Finally I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and am now entirely cured."

Guest Slander Suit.

The law in the suits for slander brought by E. J. Guest against Col. Ptolemy and W. E. S. Knowles was argued before Justice Teetzel this morning. Acting for the defendants George S. Lynch-Staunton, K.C., argue dthat nothing could be a slander that did not impute a crime or a disease. It was charged by Mr. Guest that Col. Ptolemy said that Mr. Knowles had informed him that Mr. Guest approached him and proposed that he tamper with the ballot boxes in the by-election in 1905, or that he allow some one to enter his office and do it. Mr. Staunton argued that there was no crime imputed in this statement, and asked for the dismissal of the action. His lordship expressed the opinion that if Mr. Knowles had written these things it would have been actionable, but not when they were uttered by word of mouth. He reserved judgment.

Wanted at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Jan. 15.—(Special.)—A warrant is out for the arrest of James Sugden, who to-day pleaded guilty in Montreal to several charges of bank fraud and will be executed as soon as the Montreal sentence expires. The charge here against him is that he defrauded one of the banks of the sum of $400 by means of forged cheques. Sugden, whose right name is Harry O. West, opened a bank account and made several deposits. Then he deposited several forged cheques, and the next day closed the account, defrauding the bank of about $400. United States detectives also want him for forgeries.

WOULD COST TOO MUCH TO BUY OUT FRANCHISE

Mayor Oliver Cautious About City's Applying for Power to Control Street Railway.

Mayor Oliver, when asked to give an opinion on The World's suggestion that the city apply to the legislature for power either to buy street railway stock or expropriate the plant, said:

"I don't see that there would be any advantage gained by purchasing stock. If the city went into the market to buy, the price would go away out of sight. As for making a private arrangement with the company for taking over stock, this would be very difficult, if not impracticable. A very large block of shares is held in Montreal.

"As to expropriation, the question is what is the franchise worth for the remainder of the time it has to run, and what advantage is to be secured by expropriation which would compensate for the extra price the city would have to pay? The company would have to be considered as a going concern, and the price would be fixed, not on its present earnings, but on what they would be estimated to be in the future. They are growing constantly with the growth of the city.

"I am willing to do anything in the best interests of the city," he concluded. "Something will have to be done to extend the lines so as to serve people in the outlying districts."

Violin Recital.

Nothing better in the way of "chamber music" has been heard in Toronto than the violin recital given last night in the Conservatory of Music Hall by Miss Lina Drechsler-Adamson, which was given under the patronage of Mrs. H. C. Cox, Mrs. H. S. Strathy, Mrs. Murray Alexander and Mrs. Edward Fisher.

Miss Drechsler-Adainson is the daughter of the first violinist in the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, and she shows herself to be far on the way to virtuosity in violin technique. It was exceedingly inspiring to hear Mrs. Drechsler-Adamson and her daughter in the beautiful concerto for two violins by Spohr, the "andante" movement being rendered with superb effect.

As a soloist Miss Lina Drechsler-Adamson displayed superior command of technique in Godard's "En Regardant le Ciel," and in the scherzo from Sitt's "Tarantelle." Miss Adamson is really distinguished by her technique, and her recital last night proved that she will eventually become a virtuoso in the so difficult art of violin playing. She was assisted by Miss Eugenie Quehen, who was encored repeatedly for her playing of Scardatti's sonata in D major, and Moszkowski's Caprice. Mrs. Gerard Barton re-established her fame as an interpretative accompanist.

Arraigned on Perjury Charge

Mrs. Bella Perry was arraigned in morning police court yesterday charged with perjury, alleged to have been committed in a civil case brought against her by Mrs. Emma Weston for alienation of her husband's affections.

The evidence of James Warning, who wanted to return to his home in Gravenhurst, was taken upon Mrs. Perry's counsel entering a conditional plea and election.

He said that in January, 1906, he had been employed as a clerk at the Clyde Hotel, Toronto. He remembered giving a man who registered as H. Weston of Guelph, room 19 at 11.15 in the morning. A few minutes later Mrs. Perry came in and asked to see Mr. Weston. He showed her to a parlor and told Mr. Weston. He was asked by others in the hotel to go to room 19 which he did and finding Mrs. Perry there partially dressed ordered her out of the hotel.

WAS SWAYED BY CHURCH

Benjamin Lehman, However, Regrets Agreement and Seeks to Collect $1200.

A case of considerable interest is being fought out in the non-jury assizes before Justice MacMahon.

Benjamin Lehman, who is caretaker of the Mennonite Church at Altona, got judgment last September for $1200 against Orval Kester, a farmer of the neighborhood, for the seduction of his daughter, Gertie Lehman. On Oct. 30 Kester entered an appeal, but according to Kester's solicitors Lehman made an agreement about two weeks before this with Kester whereby he was to drop the judgment and Kester settle the costs. The appeal was then withdrawn.

Lehman now claims that this quit claim agreement was obtained by misrepresentation and by the undue influence of Bishop Wideman of the congregation of Mennonites, and an elder of the church named Hoover. He now asks that the agreement be voided.

Lehman testified that Bishop Wideman and Hoover told him that they would expel him from the church unless he dropped the action.

George Hoover admitted having advised Lehman to drop the action because it would be inconsistent with the principles of the sect.

Bishop Wideman also said he had used influence to this end on Lehman.

What Would He Do?

Great interest is aroused by the series of pictorial addresses on "What Would Jesus Do?" not being given at the People's Sunday night service in the Grand Opera House.

In Cleveland 10,000 volunteers have joined a movement to live for a month as they believe Jesus would in their circumstances and the movement is backed by the churches.

Part III. of the series, "In His Steps," will be given to-morrow night, and an exhibition of the principle as applied to Rachel Winslow, the talented vocalist; Dr. Marsh, the college president; Milton Wright, the merchant, and others. The service cannot fail to interest and profit the great audience that will be present.
