THE GRAND OLD WOMAN'S SILLY SPEECH.

LONDON, Jan 18-Sir Stafford Northcole made an unusually aggressive speech at Exeter tonight, in which he suggested that under a continued Liberal administration Irish independence might be far from impossible. The Conservative leader said there were quite reasonable grounds for the existence of suspicions that some members of the present Ministry would hardly object to the separation of Ircland and England and who were quite willing to have " the Government abandon the Protestants in Ireland to their fate and allow the Orangemen to fight out an unequal contest with the Land Leaguers.

SPEECHES CUP SHORT AT TABLE. THE LEAGUE MEETING AND BANQUET AT BLACK-LION INTERBUPTED.

Durlin, Jan. 18-No disturbance occurred at by the authorities, both the Orange Society and the National Lengue having proposed to hold meetings at the same time, and both having been interdicted by the Government. The Government took pains to sond a sufficient police force to the village, which is some miles from bulamore, in Kings County. The Orangemen made no attempt to maet, and the meeting of the Land Lesguers scarcely amounted to anything which could be construed into a demonstration.

thing which could be construed into a demonstration.

Mr. Biggar and other prominent leaders were present, and the preposed meeting was changed into a dinner at the old tayen from which the village takes its trane. This the police made no objection to until a ter the cloth had been removed and toasts were in order. When the first health had been disposed of and speech making begun the police, under their instructions, decided that the meeting was a public one within the meaning of the prohibition order of the Government. Very strong protests were made, but they were ineffectual, and the officers carried out their instructions and prevented the delivery of the speeches. The guests then adjourned to the house of the resident priest, where the officers were obliged to consider the addresses those of a private dinner party.

PERPLEXITIES AND ANXIETIES OF MINISTER WEST.

PROTECTING THE BRITISH LION'S TAIL. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.-The New York

Herald's correspondent writes:-During the last twenty-four hours Mr. West, the British Minister, has not, so far as is known here, been interviewed. He may have taken to letterwriting or he may be relating to Earl Granville, in his own peculiar sty.e, the recent occurrences in which he has cut so painfully ridicu-MODER Sigure.

What kind of matte. Mr West cends over to the British Foreign Office the following curious eramples will show :-

WHAT MR. WEST WEITES ABOUT.

Two years ago there was much task of the im prisonment, without trial of Americae citizens, or persons who claided to be such, in Ireland, On January 2: Mr. West wrote to Earl Grauville, evidently in great excitement, that the House Committee on Foretin Affairs bad reported a resolution of inquiry concerning such persons, and then added:—

ported a resolution of inquiry concerning such persons, and then added:—
Upon which Mr. Robinson, of New York, made a violent speech, a copy of which is herewith enclosed, against the British Government, and said, ciliuding to the prohibition of the importation of hegs into England from America some time ago, which created so much sensation, "On that we only paid as much attention, as much honor, to a live American citizen as we do to dead Uncinnuti hogs!" I called Mr. Frelinghuysen's attention to the terms of this resolution and to the language used in debate upon it.

what MR. WEST IMAGINED.

Mr. West apparently imagined that Mr. Frelinghuysen would at once send up to the Caplitol and have Hon. Mr. Robinson arrasted, without bail. But Mr. Frelughuysen clearly considered Mr. West an imperiment bore, to be got rid of as quickly and cheaply as possible.
Mr. West reports to Earl Granville that the Secretary told him 'he had no knowledge of any such resolution as I had now alluded to and which I showed to him, nor could he tell me what was likely to be the ultimate fate of it. I remarked to Mr. Frelinghuysen that although not much importance need be attached to such language as that used by Mr. Robinson, still the wording of the resolution was calculated to produce a bad effect and might cause unnecesasry irritation."

Mr. West seems to live in a powder magazine WHAT MR. WEST IMAGINED.

produce a bid effect and might cause unnecessary irritation."

Mr. West seems to live in a powder magazine. The great object of his life is to foresta! the production of bid effects and to prevent the "unnecessary Irritation" of that noble beast the British lior. He is, in fact, according to this, his own account of himself, an extremely silly person. A ruder man than Mr. Freitinghuysen would have told Mr. West to mind his own busines, but the present Secretary of State is a gentleman, and he merely answered Mr. West as one answers a troublesome child. He told him he would see about it. It takes more direct language than this to make Mr. West aware that he has been snubbed. "Beven days later—on the list of February—Mr. West wrote again to Earl Granville reporting the passage of the resolution of inquiry concerning American citizens said to be hold in captivity in Ireland, and once more showed his rep in passage of the resolution of inquiry concerning American citizens said to be hold in captivity in Ireland, and once more showed his extreme anxiety that the British lion should not be unduly agitated. He wrote:—

"I do not think it necessary to trouble Your Lordship with comments on the abusive speech of Mr. Robinson, of New York, in support of his amendment, to which no importance was attached, but at the same time I would remark upon the fact of the resolution having buen adopted as showing the importance attached to conciliating the Irish vote."

Now the resolution was a perfectly proper one, precisely such a petition as would be adopted by the British House of Commons it British subjects were believed to be held in captivity, without trial or prospect of release in Turkey or by an African chief.

The British Government ought really to withdraw Mr. West and send here some one of less glaring and magnificent incapacity, some one who will not run to the Secretary of State every time Mr. Robinson amuses himself by twisting the tail of the British ilon. Mr. West is altogether too susceptible. He makes not only himself out his country ridioulous; he is almost as funny as Artemus Ward. Earl Granville should call him home at once and before Mr. Robinson makes another speech.

By the way—and this is for Mr. West's private information—Mr. Robinson has lately seriously objected to the current description of himself as engaged in twisting the tail of the British ilon. "This phrase," Mr. Robinson is credibly reported to have said. "Is an invention of the onemy. What I want to do is to wring his throat."

This is truly horrible and blood curding, Perpense Mr. West will van up and tail Secretary. TOO SUICEPTIMLE.

This is truly horrible and blood curdling. Perhaps Mr. West will run up and tell Secretary Freinghuysen that such language is "calculat-ed to produce a bad effect and might cause up-necessary irritation."

fore it is through with. Captain Condon says that the Clan Na Gael orders thoughout the United States are being communicated with, and that a similar mamorial will be forwarded to Congress by all of them. The association here claims the possession of conclusive proof that Minister West utilized a private conversation to mis-represent the wishes of this government as to the respite asked for O'Donnell,

A meeting of the Clan-Na-Gael Association of Washington was held to night to consider what was termed the perfidious conduct of Minister West. Captain O'Mesger Condon, at whose solicitation Mr. Hewitt introduced the O'Donnell resolution, presided, and the shows a total turnover of £361,905 14s 8d, or association adopted the following preambles an increase on the corresponding quarter of and resolutions, printed copies of which last year of £50,155 1s 6d. The profits were malled to night to Speaker Carlisle and each member of the House :

Whereas, It is charged that on various occasions the Minister of Great Britain in Washhim to the government and Congress and people of the United States, attempted to exercise undue and unwarrantable influence over the proceedings and acts of the House of from passing through. BRITISH POLITICS.

ABUTING MR. CHAMBERLAIN-THE CONSERVATIVES --- STRETAFF RD NORTHCOTE DENGUNCED BY THE "TIMES" -- BOCIALI: T DI: CU:SION.

New York, Jan. 20 .- The Sun's London Cable says there has been much speach making this week. The tension of the hour displays itself in language exceptionally rude and ferocions. Gladstone and Chambersain are the chief targets of attack. The Premier has been curtly described by one political opponent as a humbug, by another as a timeserving and unscrupulous politician, and by a third as a traitor to the empire. He is meantime quietly ensconced in Hawarden. Next week he comes to Downing street and cabinet councils. Chamberlain, whose latest epithe: from his enemies is " a meddling and concelted youngster," has again distinctly advanced himself by facing a meeting of rude and angry shipowners and hearing all their objections to his new bill for the protection of life at 88a

Lord Salisbury and the Tory Quarterly Review have defined the newest and most eocentric attitude of Toryism to the franchise question. Ireland, he says, ought to have it if England gets it, but as Ireland cannot have it because of its rebellious people, England must wait. This is interpreted to mean that Salisbury will force a dissolution in the hope of winning a majority and that he then will bimself announce the franchise and save the Tories by gerrymandering the redistribution.

Sir Stafford Northcote has also been talking, but even the London Times denounces him as flabby, and ordinary people no longer read his speeches.

Attacks upon landlords, which form one of the new features in English journalism, are getting more and more personal. One peer is attacked by name for puffing an insurance company, another for refusing school sites, and an agricultural journal publishes a black list of those who forced their tenants to contract themselves out of the tenant-right act of last year. It is also significant that the address to reply to the Queen's speech will be seconded by Mr. Samuel Smith, a liberal of the ultra-philanthropic school. Henry George, however, makes no head way, and is denounced by the Liberals as helping the Torles. He is smartly reprimanded by an Irish weekly for disparaging the Celtic and enlogising the Saxon race.

Boolalistic discussions show no signs of abatement, Mr. Bradlaugh announces a series of lectures against socialism, and challeages the leading socialists to meet him on the platform.

THE FRANCHISE BILL.

It is generally understood shat the government Franchise Bill will embrace England, Ireland and Scotland, and a re-distribution of seats bill will be introduced as well. A still more difficult subject is the referm of the corporations of London. One proposal is to extend the The third point relates to an improvement election of Mayor and aldermen to the whole in the method of nominating episcopal candiratepayers; another is to abolish these offices entirely and travele: the chief duties to the in the method of pasteral discessar visitation Board of Works and the rest to the different and in the rules creating a diocesan clergy.

POPE LEO TO THE AMERICAN BISHOPS.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 16 .- The Sun has the following despatch from London: "Cardinal Simeori, Prefect of the Propagada, in an interview to-day said that the American prelates had received printed accret instructions as a result of the conference with Pope Leo. These instructions will be considered in the plenary council to be convoked in Baltimore in November next, and, perhaps, amended. When adopted by the council they will be returned to Rome, and the Holy See will confirm them as canon law for the United States. Cardinal Simeoni said that, in deference to the See of Baltimore, he would inform the correspondent of four of the points in the instructions.

The first point touches upon high sacerdotal education, which will embrace a two yourse, a broader study of the physical rolenoss as demanded by the exigeroles of the times, and also a broader Biblioal exegesis throughout ecolesisatical history and canon

Cardinal Simeoni said that the Council of Baltimore would be authorized to determine the preliminary rule regarding the tenure of priests. He declined to say who would be the next American Cardinal, but he allowed the correspondent to Infer that Archbishop Gibbons, whom the Pope esteems, would be appointed to that position. He said further that there was no pressure brought to bear to withdraw the mission of Seppisol to America or to create Archbishop Gibbons delegate apostolic. The Pope wished an American for America.
