"A TEMPEST IN A GAS LAMP" is the way it ought to be quoted in Chatham hereafter.

MILL OWNERS are interested in an advertisement which occupies four columns on our fourth page.

MR. WIPL is what the Sun calls its correspondent "Senex." His signature looks very much like it.

THANKSGIVING :—To-day is Thanksgiving day, by appointment of the Lieut-Governor, and a public holiday.

CHATHAM POST OFFICE ought to be removed to the new quarters soon, as the work in the Government building will probably be completed in a few days.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Clark will return to Chatham on Tuesday, 26th November. After that date he will be found at his office, ready to attend to all who require his professional services.

ERRORS.—The Post Office, Chatham, is not removed yet, as stated by the Telegraph's Newcastle correspondent. He is also in error in stating that the Waverly Hotel, Newcastle, is being removed. The thermometer has not been 35° below the freezing point at Miramichi, as the same correspondent states.

WHY was that street lamp, in its late useless position like a vessel taking cargo from the wharf? Because it needed no lighter. Why is it, in its present very useful and proper position, like a vessel receiving cargo in the stream? Because it requires a lighter. Why is that street lamp now like the influence of the amiable old party who was going to prevent its being removed? Because it is lighter. Why is that street lamp like telling an ugly girl that she's pretty? Because its a lie t'her. Why is it like the sun? Because it left the West (end of the town) in darkness, but made light in the East. Why did that bad tempered, evil-minded old—well, we won't say any more about it this week.

METHODIST.—A Convention of Ministers of the Methodist Church in the Miramichi District is being held this week. We went to press too early to admit of our having any report of the proceedings. Last night a public meeting was held in the Methodist Church. A paper on temperance was read by Rev. W. B. Thomas and discussion of the subject was also on the programme. To-day, (Thursday) there is to be a prayer meeting at 9.30, a. m.; at 11 a. m., a Thanksgiving service will be held. At 2 p. m., a paper on the Eternity of Punishment, will be read by Rev. A. R. B. Shrewsbury. This evening Rev. Mr. Campbell will read a paper on Missionary Enterprise. The meetings will be public.

Mr. Donald McLaughlan, in his address, stated he was about to hand over the $208 deposited in the Saving's Bank in his name, to the Society. When his term of office expired he had had handed over all books and papers to Mr. W. Johnston, the present Treasurer. After some remarks relative to the purchase of the piano and organ, he said he did not think the $208 would remain long in the Saving's Bank. Entertainments such as they had that evening were a mere programme. He wanted to work, and would have had the shell of the new hall up by this time. He wished some money saved to send an agent through the country to advocate the new Temperance Law. He had been in several temperance Societies and always left them with funds in hand, and he advised the Society of the Dutcher Reformers of Chatham, not to part with the money they had, until they had done something towards introducing the new Canada Temperance Act into this County. In conclusion he said he thought the remarks of the ADVANCE relative to his being six months out of office were very unjust.

Mr. A. D. Shirreff the chairman, at the close of the meeting rose to explain that the ADVANCE had made no remarks on the subject referred to by Mr. McLaughlin, but merely given an abstract of the Treasurers report, as a necessary part of the report of the proceedings at the quarterly meeting, and that the facts stated were about correct.

As the meeting was breaking up, Mr. James McKay proposed that a committee should be appointed to consider the advisability of introducing the new Canada Temperance Act into this County. The matter was postponed till a future occasion.

REMARKS BY THE EDITOR.

Mr. Donald McLaughlan appears to have indulged in unnecessary reflections upon the ADVANCE at the above meeting of the Chatham Dutcher Society. It is not the first time he has behaved in that way towards this paper in public meetings, and lest it might be believed that we deserve his attacks we may say that the ADVANCE made no remarks "about his being six months out of office." We have given up a good deal of our space to reports of proceedings at Dutcher meetings for the past year, our reporter being instructed to attend them regularly. We published a report of the meeting of last week almost a column and a half in length, including the President's Report in full and summaries of the Treasurers's and Secretary's reports. In the summary of the Treasurer's report, which was stated to be such, the following appeared, and it is the only allusion made to Mr. McLaughlan, with exception of that made afterwards by John Shirreff, Esq.

"The report drew attention to the fact that there was a sum of $209.62 deposited in the Savings Bank on behalf of the Society, in the name of D. McLaughlan, the first Treasurer, who had been six months out of office, and recommended that the amount be handed over to the Society to be re-deposited in the name of the Treasurer to be appointed for the ensuing quarter."

In connection with the above, the ADVANCE published the following—a fact which would prove to a person less prejudiced against this paper than Mr. McLaughlan appears to be, that we desired to do him every justice:

"John Shirreff, Esq., stated, in regard to the money deposited in the Savings Bank on behalf of the Society, that Mr. D. McLaughlan had expressed his anxiety to hand the money over to the Society, and he, Mr. Shirreff, thought it best that a committee should be appointed to act with the Treasurer and receive the money.

A resolution was then passed that Messrs. Jas. D. McKay and Wm. Murray be appointed with the Treasurer, to wait on Mr. McLaughlan and receive the money on behalf of the Society."

It may be that the person who read the report from the ADVANCE to Mr. McLaughlan omitted to read what we gave of Mr. Shirreff's remarks. In any case, Mr. McLaughlan ought to be more guarded in his references to others. It is his habit to make gratuitous attack upon the ADVANCE—seemingly under the inspiration of others—but there are several considerations—chiefly in the interest of those who, unfortunately, must have already enough to suffer through his peculiarities—which induce us to let Mr. McLaughlan off, this time, with only the above statement of facts.

Building Improvements.

We continue our list of improvements made in Chatham in the way of new buildings, additions etc.

Hon. Wm. Muirhead.—On Johnstone street, a house 1½ storeys high, 20x18 ft. with a hipped roof and an ell 16x20 ft. The house contains 3 rooms on the ground flat, and the same on the second flat;

Also a neat block of 2 tenement houses 60x22 ft, with a hipped roof. Each house contains a tenement of 4 rooms on each flat, with cellars.

Running eastward by the side of the last mentioned building, Mr. Muirhead has erected a long outhouse 140x15 ft. containing 9 woodsheds for the use of the tenants occupying the adjoining blocks.

On Muirhead street, running east from Johnston street, a building 46x22 ft. with a hipped roof, each flat being a separate tenement of four rooms, the upper flat is entered from a door on the West and the lower flat from one on the North. There are three bed rooms in the attics. This building is neatly finished with suitable entrance doors and pediments over the windows.

Mr. Muirhead has also erected near the lower end of Johnston street, a house 23x30 ft. with a hipped roof. The ell is 20x14 ft. This building is now well advanced, and will contain three rooms on the ground flat and four on the second flat.

All these buildings were finished this year. The builder employed was Mr. R. Whelan.

Mrs. Walsh.—On the corner of Johnston and Muirhead streets, a neat 2 storey house and store with a pitched roof, 24x36 ft. with an ell 14x20 ft. The building rests on a wooden foundation and has a good cellar. On the ground floor there are three rooms and the store, which is fitted up with stalls as a refreshment saloon. On the second flat there are seven bed rooms. The builder is Mr. Stephen Jackson.

Week of Prayer.

On Tuesday evening the 12th, inst, the meetings under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. were continued in the Temperance Hall. Mr. A. W. Paterson occupied the chair. The subject of the evening "Young men, their power for good", was introduced by the Rev. Mr. McBair. Further remarks interspersed with prayer and singing, were made by Messrs. James Creighton, Lemuel Abbott and James Nicol, after which the meeting was brought to a close with a benediction.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Samuel Irvine presided. The subject of the evening "Something stronger than the strength of young men", was introduced by the Rev. Mr. McKeown, who was followed during the meeting by Messrs. Whittaker, W. Rae and W. S. Loggie.

On Thursday evening Mr. James Nichol occupied the chair, and the meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. McKeown. The subject of the evening. "How to teach young men", was introduced in an address by Mr. Oakes. who was followed by the Rev. Mr. Mr. George and Mr. Thomas Fountain. An opportunity was then given to any in the audience to address the meeting and several gentleman present spoke. Addresses were then delivered by Messrs. Robert Blake and A. W. Paterson, after which the meeting was brought to a close by the Rev. T. L. Smith pronouncing the benediction.

At the meeting on Friday evening Mr. W. Rae occupied the chair. The subject of the evening, "Young men, their special temptations" was introduced by Mr. Samuel Irvine. The speakers who followed were the Revd. Messrs. McBain, McKeown, and George, and Messrs. Thomas Fountain and George Tait. The meeting was closed by the Rev. T. L. Smith with a benediction.

On Saturday evening, Mr, Simpson presided. The subject of the evening "A pattern for young men", was introduced by the Rev. Mr. McBain, who was followed by the Revds. Messrs. George and T. L. Smith. During the meeting a number of those present engaged in prayer.

On Monday evening Mr. Whittaker presided. The subject of the evening "Salvation for all" Text John chap. 3, 14 to 17 vrs., was introduced by the Revd. Mr. McKeown, who was followed by Messrs. Wm. Rae, Creighton, Robt. Blake, A. W. Paterson, W. S. Loggie, Chas. McAlister, and Geo. Whittaker. A proposition was made to continue the meeting on Tuesday evening, but on being put to vote was lost.

A Case of White and Black.

On Sunday evening, Mr. Joshua Black of Richibucto arrived in Chatham in search of one Philip White (or Leblanc) whom he desired to capture. It appears that White, who belongs to Petitcodiac (the French village near Moncton) had been pretending to look for a school in Aldouane about three miles this side of Richibucto. He came across Mr. Black in Richibucto and told him he had been playing "bluff" with some of the bloods of the town and lost a considerable sum of money and he wanted him as security. Black accomodated White who next took a horse belonging to the latter and started towards Chatham with it. When White was seven miles on his journey Black overtook and turned him back, but the former again eluded Black and getting to the Intercolonial, came to New castle. He stopped at Kirk's Hotel, Newcastle, on Sunday night, Black being at the Waverley without knowing how near he was to his man. Next morning White proceeded to Douglastown, and Black, thinking he had come to Chatham, came as far as the ferry landing on the other side of of the river and while waiting on Mr. Haviland's steamer, saw a boat proceeding down stream, with two men in it, one of whom he believed to be White. He came over to Chatham and getting a horse, drove down to a point opposite Middle Island where he and two assistants concealed themselves, as the boat was approaching that vicinity. Soon, Mr. White landed and Mr. Black pounced upon him. White showed fight and Black showed the necessary legal documents and fire arms, which soothed White and he was made a prisoner. The last seen of Black and White, was on the road to Newcastle, where they took the train for Richibucto. The end is not yet.

It is just as well that White is captured and his true character developed. He is a great imposter and has victimised a good many persons, from St. John tailors to farmers and others all over the country, upon whom he has lived while "looking for a school," which appears to have been his chief employment.

Newcastle Items.

By our Newcastle Correspondent.

STREET CROSSING.

Commissioner Atchison has, at last, collected money enough to enable him to make street crossings in several places, and hopes to be enabled to raise as much of "the needful" during the present week, as will be required to make a number of others. It has been the intention of the Commissioner, ever since he was appointed to make these improvements and they would have been made long ago, had it not been for the difficulty that attended the collection of the road tax.

MR. GREMLEY'S STABLES.

Mr. Richard Gremley, the deservedly popular proprietor of the "Waverly Stables" has made substantial improvements. Besides building a new stable in the rear of the hotel premises, he has had the large barn removed to the rear line and intends it for a baiting stable. This alteration adds much to the appearance of the property and in a sanitary point of view, will benefit the hotel. Mr. Gremley has also made alterations of a material character on his new house, having had a new piazza built and the interior entirely remodeled.

EDUCATION AMONG THE INDIANS.

We are informed that the Indian Commissioner, Chas. Sargent, Esq., offers all the lumber to the Indians, that will be required to build them a new School house, provided they perform the work. At the present time their teacher has to go from camp to camp, and to endure as much anoyance as "a Snowball man" in Newcastle. Hon. Richard Hutchison has always taken considerable interest in the improvement of educational facilities for our Indians and he will, no doubt, be glad to hear of what is being done.

COW KILLED ON THE I. C. R.

On Monday last Mr. Allen McIntyre whose farm is at the lower end of the town met with a great loss. His three cows, which were in the pasture found their way out into the lane which crosses the Railway track and there being no fastnings on the gates, owing to the neglect of the Railway authorities, the cows attempted to cross the track just as the "Pay Train" (which is an irregular one) was passing on the down grade. The three cows were run into. One escaped with slight injury; another was so badly injured that she had to be killed on the spot and Mr. McIntyre is afraid the other will die. He will present a claim for damages from the Railway.

Bread and Potatoes—Not Politics.

Sensible people are wondering when the Advocate will cease to publish such nonsensical stuff as appeared in it last week respecting the sentiments of the people of Northumberland towards Mr. Mitchell. According to that paper the whole County is in feverish excitement because he was not elected in September as our representative at Ottawa. The Advocate ought to know that its usefulness as a public journal has been very much marred in the past by its absurd praise of Mr. M. and its determination, figuratively speaking, to cram him down the people's throats. The electors showed that paper, in September last, that they differed from it in their estimate of its chief proprietor; and it is essentially silly in it to be found indulging in the same old and disproved assertions which have been its sole stock in trade for years.

The position is just this,—a large number of persons in Northumberland have a warm personal regard for Mr. Mitchell, but a still larger number have not, some of the latter having been badly used by him or the chiefs of his party, while the remainder know little, and therefore, care little about them. All who have personal knowledge of him know that he possesses fair abilities and considerable determination, and that when a good deal is at stake he is not particular about the means he may employ to succeed in his undertakings. The country throughout regrets that his better qualities are marred by an absence of correct principle and by political immorality which have, year by year, since Confederation, rendered it necessary for his party to discount his aspirations and keep him removed at a judicious distance from prominent and full association with him. He is looked upon as a good man in his place—but the difficulty has always been in keeping him there. So far as this County is concerned, it has rejected him because it desired to honor another with the position he had not done much to adorn for many years. Not one person in a thousand in Northumberland can, to-day, say where Mr. Mitchell lives. As soon as the late election was over he shook Northumberland dust from his feet and went northward. When his Election Petition against our representative in the Commons obliged that gentleman to take legal action against him and it became necessary to serve papers on him, he could not be found within the time provided by law. The time was extended and still he could not be found and a second extension has become necessary. As he is said to be so innocent and yet so plucky, withal, he cannot, surely, be dodging service in the matter, so the inference is that he chooses to be very hard to reach by the people of Northumberland, save and except when he wants them to elect him to Parliament. It is clear that a man of Mr. Mitchell's political status and migratory habits ought not to expect so intelligent a constituency as Northumberland to worship him, as the Advocate tells its little world they do. Just now they are more concerned about home matters. They want a rest from politics and would like to hear more about bread and potatoes. While the Advocate is slashing away at politics, which it knows so little about, they want to know when there will be a chance to get better wages for cutting logs and getting them to market; they are speculating on the run of winter fish and the prospects of business in the spring. They may well cry to the Advocate to cease its accustomed whine about the claims Mr. Mitchell has upon them and ask that gentleman and its other proprietors to deal, for a time, at least, with more practical subjects.

MURDER CONFESSED!

Dowd says he killed Ward.

We received the following special despatch yesterday in reference to the New River murder case:—

The jury found the prisoners Dowd and Mrs. Ward guilty yesterday and they were sentenced to be hanged January 14th.

Dowd, this morning confessed that he murdered Ward.

He says they met and had some words. Ward attempted to strike him with the pitchfork he was carrying. Dowd then struck him with the axe and killed him.

THE INDIAN, BERNARD, who committed the Hopewell outrage has pleaded guilty and will be sentenced to the Penitentiary for life.

MORE MURDER.—At a frolic near Baddeck, C. B., where all the parties were sober, one young man killed another by stabbing him seven times. A family dispute over some land was the cause.

ANOTHER PROTEST.—The election of Messrs. Caulfield and Deveber, as Councillors for the Parish of Westfield, K. C., is protested against on the grounds of bribery and corruption.—Freeman.

WHAT other preparations fail to do, Hall's Hair Renewer surely accomplishes. it renews the hair and especially restores its color when gray and faded. As a dressing it is unsurpassed, making the hair moist, soft and glossy. The most economical preparation ever offered, its effects remain a long time, and those who have once made a trial of it will never use any other. Advertiser and Union, Fredonia, N. Y.

FOR public speakers or singers, Gray's Syrup of Red Spruce Gum will be found invaluable in preventing that dryness of the mouth and throat complained of by those who have used the ordinary cough lozenges or troches. John Andrew, Esq., Professor of Elocution, Montreal, remarks that it has been of essential use to himself, and that he has on many occasions induced public singers to use it, who have invariably expressed themselves delighted with its effect upon the voice.

REV. MR. NEALES.—We take the following from the Lake Democrat of Lakeport, Cal., dated 2nd inst.:—"That was an agreeable surprise given Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Neales last Tuesday evening, the same being the tenth anniversary of their marriage. It was buzzed about on Tuesday that some recognition was due the couple, by their friends, of the arival of this period, and it culminated in a meeting at their house of the most agreeable character. The visitors were loaded with presents made of tin, many being useful household articles. The reverend gentlemen and his estimable wife enjoyed the event hugely. May they live in health and happiness among us here and pass the period of all intermediate weddings until they reach the golden. They have troops of friends in Lakeport and throughout the County. Mr. Neales has worked with zeal and efficiency among his parishoners and we doubt not deserves this hearty endorsement."

ST. EUNAN'S:—We take the following from correspondence of the Dublin Freeman's journal of 4th inst:—

The solemn dedication of St. Eunan's Catholic Church, Raphoe, was performed by his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. M'Gettigan, Primate of all Ireland, to-day. There was a large and highly respectable congregation, including visitors from all the surrounding parishes and many non Catholics. High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. John Doherty, Convoy, with the Rev. Patrick Blake, Raphoe, deacon; Rev. John M'Nulty, Stranorlar sub-deacon, and Rev. John M'Menamin, Stranorlar, as master of ceremonies. His Grace the Primate preached the dedication sermon and gave Benediction of the Blessed Sacrement also, which closed the ceremonies. After the first Gospel a collection was taken up, when the parish priest, the Rev. Bernard Kelly, announced that over £600 had been taken up. The church is a very handsome building of the Romanique style designed by Mr. Heevey, architect, Belfast and built by Mr. M'Adorey, contractor, Belfast. It cost some three thousand pounds, part of which yet remains unpaid. Amongst those present to-day was the Rev. Mr. Bannon, Chatham, Canada, representing his bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Rogers. The Rev. Father M'Shane, Chicago, and Rev. James Stephens, Killybegs, were also present.

Terrible Railway Accident

Last Thursday night about ten o'clock the most shocking Railway accident that has ever occurred in the Province took place on the N. B. (Riviere du Loup) Railway at Peel station, which is about seventy five miles from Fredericton. The train was behind time and left Peel station tank at a lively rate of speed. Robert M. Dow, Baggage Master, just after the start was made, observed a bundle of bags for C. A. Harmon of Peel, which he seized and threw from the car. These rolled back upon the rail and getting under the truck threw the passenger and smoking cars from the the track. The engine, however, kept the rails and dragged the cars over a bridge, at the end of which they rolled down an embankment and hill towards a beach, overturning three or four times before stopping. In the descent lamps and stoves were up set and fire being communicated to the passenger's clothes, the woodwork, etc., the whole became a smoking, burning, mass before the injured and bewildered passengers had time to collect their thoughts and make efforts to save themselves. People living in the vicinity hastened to the spot. A scene of the wildest description presented itself. Cries, groans, prayers and entreaties reached their ears. Already the car had taken fire and added fresh horror to the scene The men for a moment were horrified, but once aroused they fought manfully, dashing through blinding smoke and fire to the rescue of the poor unfortunates. Some through their own exertions clambered through the windows and were borne by willing hands to places of safety. Four of the unfortunates, either from being stunned or blinded by the smoke, perished in frightful agony, the strongest hearts having to turn away as scream after scream rent the air about them. Neither Mr. Isaac Hacker, of Fort Fairfield, nor the newsboy, Beattie, were ever seen by any one. Mr. Avard Harmon made an unsuccessful attempt to drag Mr. Perry, of Presque Isle, through the window, he being a very large man, weighing upwards of two hundred and twenty-five pounds. He sank back and was seen no more. Those who were injured were immediately transferred to houses near by, and messengers despatched for medical aid.

Mr. W. T. Whitehead, a civil engineer and one of the passengers who escaped uninjured, says he was in the first class car and when it left the iron he knew something serious had happened and sprang for the door just as the car was toppling over. He sprang ahead of the car down the hill, fortunately alighting under a small mound of earth, the car going over him. The cars made four revolutions before getting to the bottom. The smoking car went down the hill about five hundred and fifty feet above the first class car. The engineer, Davis, and fireman with Mr. Whitehead ran down the hill immediately; when he got to the car found it right side up. He burst open the door and dragged some five or six out. In this way one little girl about 12 years of age clambered out of the window and wonderful to say did not receive a scratch.

An inquest has been held on the dead victims, four in number. Several passengers were also seriously wounded.
