SIGHS AND SIGNS.

A man, being asked the name of the inventor of butter stamps, replied that it was probably Old-man, as he first brought letters into Goderich.

A little girl, upon her return from a children's party, being asked if she had a good time, replied: "Yes; but there wasn't much boys there."

"Where are you going?" asked a little boy of another, who had slipped and fallen down on the ice pavement, "going to get up" was the blunt reply.

If a pretty postiness marries a pillow-post, why may she be said to make a bad bargain of it? Because she lets him have a "duck," and gets nothing but a quack in return.

"What'll you ask to warrant these horses good?" asked a buyer of a horse-dealer. "Why, don't trouble yourself, I'll warrant them good for nothing," was the equivocal reply.

A Western poet who had expressed a wish to die "amid the grand solitude of the eternal mountain-tops," was killed by the explosion of a pint of cheap kerosene.

There is nothing half so sad in life as the spectacle of an auctioneer attempting to sell fifteen thousand dollars' worth of goods to an audience whose aggregate and tangible assets fetch up 20 cents.

The Danbury man says that the maddest kind of a woman is one who spends a half-hour in arranging her toilet before descending to the parlor on the arrival of a visitor—who proves to be a book agent.

"John, I saw your cousin Isaac a few weeks ago, and he had just received a fall, which cut a most horrible gash in his arm." "Ah, poor fellow, what did he fall on?" "Well, really, I forget now; but it strikes me he fell on Tuesday morning."

"I will add bequeath," said Pat, "to my beloved wife Bridget all my property without reserve, to my oldest son Patrick one-half of the remainder, and to Dennis, my youngest son the rest. If any thing is left, it may go to Terence O'Carty in sweet Ireland."

An adroit thief, who abstracted an ostensibly dirty handkerchief from a thousand dollars from the gifts at a wedding the other day, only to find that the old man's treasure in one bank was four times less and fifty cents, thinks there is no chance for honest industry in that city.

A gentleman took the following telegram to a telegraph office: "I announce with grief the death of uncle James. Come quickly to read will. I believe we are the heirs.—John Black." The clerk, having counted the words, said: "There are two words too many, sir." "All right. Cut out with grief."

A young man in Williams College, having been seen in a rather intoxicated state several times, was told by the college authorities that if found again in a similar condition he would be expelled. One day, having taken a deep too much, he met the President, who indignantly said: "Drunk again?" "Sho-o am I," was the reply.

"Now, boys, suppose twelve men divide forty-eight bushels of corn equally, how many is that for each?" Boldest boy:—"Please, sir, we're not gone that far." "Your teacher told me you had learned all the first four rules." Boy—"Yes, sir; but we have always done our sums in potatoes or turnips—we never had any corn."

It is reported that a man went home at about three o'clock Wednesday morning; and using his umbrella for a billiard cue, aimed his sleeping wife in the short ribs, carving "Pull!" and sunk into a sweet slumber. He has since explained to his wife that women can have no idea how the cares of business will sometimes affect a man's brain.

A teacher, questioning little boys about the gradation in the scale of being, asked: "What comes next to man?" Whereupon a little shaver, who was evidently smarting under the sense of previous defeat, immediately distanced all competitors by promptly shouting, "His shirt, ma'am!"

"O! your nose is as cold as ice," a Boston father thought he heard his daughter explain the other evening, as he was resting in the next room. He waited in for an explanation, but the young fellow was at one end of the sofa and the girl at the other, while both looked so innocent and unconscious that the old gentleman concluded that his ears had deceived him, and so retired from the scene without a word.

"How much is your stick candy?" inquired a boy of a candy dealer. "Six sticks for five cents." "Six sticks for five cents, sh! Now lem'me see. Six sticks for five cents, five for four cents, four for three, three for two cents, two for one cent, one for nothin'. I'll take one." And he walked out leaving the candy man in a state of bewilderment.

FATAL MODESTY.—For people to allow disease to become seated upon them rather than consult a Physician, or to suffer as many do for years with the different kinds of piles, without going at once to the Druggist for Fowler's Pile and Humor Cure, which is an infallible cure.

The London Times of the 25th ultimo gives an account of the terrible accident on the Great Western Railway, in which thirty-one persons were killed and upwards of seventy wounded.

☞Twenty years experience in using "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have proved them to be the most effectual remedy for coughs, and irritation of the throat, caused by cold, or unusual exertion of the vocal organs; public speakers and singers will find them most beneficial. The entire freedom from all deleterious ingredients renders "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," or Cough and Voice Lozenges, a safe remedy for the most delicate person, and has caused them to be held in high esteem by all who have used them. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts. per box.

Miss Emily Faithful says New Zealand is the paradise of unmarried women. Housemaids and cooks there get from $150 to $250 a year wages, and other help is rewarded in proportion.

The London Globe says correspondence is in progress between the Governments of England and the United States in relation to some territory in British North America which England claims, but has never formally annexed to her dominions.

CORRESPONDENCE.

There is Porter's Hill, without a mill;
A village of great renown;
It grows so fast it will be so last,
A mighty market town.

A school house there stands on the square
With a master of great pith;
On an outside spoke, a blacksmith shog,
Owned by C. H. C., the smith.

With tools renowned for harrowing ground,
He plies his skill on Porter's Hill,
To earn an honest penny.

He boasts that he can never see,
A harrow his to beat;
But let him go to any show,
Where Strachan's is, to compete.

Five prizes Strachan has justly drawn,
For his superior rig;
At Clinton show, a year ago,
C. H. C. stood back and scratched his wig.

Strachan sells his ware—a thing most rare—
For cash at his shop door,
And such demand, I understand,
Sold a hundred sets, and more.

Whereas then C. makes two or three
From springtime until fall;
And even that, by trusting men,
He scarce can sell them all.

O, then, the puff! dear me, what stuff,
Your corresponding scribe,
Must have a will to raise the Hill,
Or labor for a bribe.

He speaks of the fame of the blacksmith name
Spreading over our vast domain;
I cannot but smile, when I think of his style,
And I fear he is anxious for fame.

I but ask you, if free, to look here with me,
At the energy, the push, and the skill,
Of this undaunted Strachan, when comparison is drawn,
Between him and the man of the Hill.

BY LITTLE JOHNNY.

THE RHINOCEROS.

But you dont kno wot a lamy is, cos it is from South America were nobody goes, but maybe there is one in the Zoo, I dont kno. It is some like a sheep and some like a camel, and carries things, and that is all I know about a lamy, wich isnant lame, say how, but is jes call that, but when it comes to rhinoceroses I can tell you a lot about them fellers.

Wen my uncle Ned tole me one day my diddent I rite about the unicorn I said I wuds, and I set down and rote about its one horn, and how it war found in Africa, and boy it fel lions, and all about it, but wen I come to its tail I said did it have a tassil. Uncle Ned he said Johnny won youve got to the end wy dont you stop? Then he tole me not to bother him, but look in books and wen I had look thru some books about animals, I cuddent find any unicorn, so he said it was only a rinoceros, and you never see such a fierrice boy as I was! I got a picture of a unicorn and a picture of a rinoceros and shode 'em, and said did he think I was a fool. Uncle Ned he lookt at the two pictors careful, and after a wile he had to confess they wasnt the same. But he said Johnny, if you was a artist, with a lite and graceful fancy, and such a thing as this rinoceros was a sitton to you for his picter, suddent you be tempted to flatter him jest the least bit in the worl by a few dollars touches here and there. I said yes, but I dont kno wot he ment.

The rinoceros fites with elephants wich it lifts on its horn and makes 'em sick. A book wich I have says wen one has a elephant on its nose the elephants fat gits in the rinoceroses eyes and puts 'em out, but if I had a trunk, and two big tusses you woundent catch me a fitin with fat, and a furnishin myself.

In Africa the niggers sometimes set their houses on posts to keep the snakes out, and one day a nigger wich had his house that way was sitting on the flore a playing cards with another nigger, and a rinocerous wich had got under the house stuck his horn thru the flore between the two niggers, and wen it come up one nigger he said wot's that? But the other wich had jes pladed card was a looking in his hand and diddent see the horn, so he said you kno wel enuf wot it is, have you got anything to take it with, that the question. Then the other nigger said no he diddent think he had, less he plade a trump—he sposeed wen a horn was plade he ot to trump it. But he diddent see the house was upset forw he cude make up his mine.

THE CROCKY DILE.

Ally gaters is jus the same thing only livin under a other form of government, for the diles is mostly Egipt uns, but the gaters like America the best, were there aint any Queen, wich ol Americans thinks sets on a throne and eats fokeses heads of, and these animals bleeves they has got nice heads like Shake's pear. But he diddent have notches in wy the diles and gaters is call sawrians. Some crocky diles is as long as this room and one wich was in Injy was see by my uncle Ned a comin right toards him and he says it was so long it reminded him of the road leadin to the fort were the sojers were.

A other time, wen uncle Ned was in a swomp, there was a big dile wich come to him as tame as a ole cow. I set him did he tri to cetch it for the Zoo, and he said it was jest the other way, and wen I said my diddent he cetch it, he said he new he ot, but the fack was he see it was a goin his way, and he diddent bleeve in compulsin fokes, wich was a goin rite in the long run.

Crocky diles has jus skins wich is so thick that nothing can't hurt 'em. Once they was a doc see one a lyin down, and the dog run quick as it cude, about a mile, and wen it lookt back the dile had dent move. Then the dog it went back, and took a other bite, and the dile roled over on its other side and yond and shet its eye like it said I was up so late, I mustn to git some sleep or I shant be fit for work. Then the dog seen it diddent mine it, went to its tale and lay down, too, not to sleep, but to chew the pint of the diles tale. When it had chude a hour the dile it began to snore, and then the dog, wich had almose wore itself out a chuin, got up and shook its head very sad like sayin poor feller, it mus be awfle to be tuf, I aint got no time to stop, let him go to the ospital.

Sech big mouths nobody ever see! A man wich wanted to cude sit down in a crocky diles mouth and read the Standard

They was a crocky dile a swimmin up a creek, and it saw a horse more than a mile away on a hil, and it now it cuddent help throin open its mouth every time it see horse, when ever it opened its mouth the water ud run in it, and there wassent any to swim in, so it stuck fas on the bottom. At last it got out on the bank and wokt, and said it never see such times as the worl was come to wen a gentlem cuddent take a quiet swim wi hout bein annoid by upstart horses, which ot to kno their place and keep it. I spose he was a conservative of dile thats wot I think.—London Fun.

Burns, Cuts, Bruises, &c. Universal as it is the demand for this invaluable preparation of the Ancient Druids, it has remained for the last generation almost a secret confined to the Highlands of Scotland. Now, however, it is by the Proprietor set up and offered to the public as an article which may be relied on to do what it is recommended to do, namely, to relieve pain in the shortest time, and to cure in the quickest time the worst Burns, Cuts, Bruises, and Contusions.—He gives the assurance of the Proprietor that he has tried it in his own family for all the purposes for which it is recommended, and it never failed in one instance to give perfect satisfaction. Mole Cricket Oil is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cents per bottle, or four times the quantity for $1, and by Thomas Kerr and Co., Hanway Street, Oxford Street, Proprietors, Wholesale and Retail Druggists, Oxford Street, London.

A PUBLIC CAUTION.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment are neither manufactured nor sold in any part of the United States, although they may be obtained in the B. N. American Provinces.

Each Pot and Box bears the British Government Stamp, with the words, "Holloway's Pills and Ointment, London," engraved thereon.

It has become necessary to make this announcement, because the New York Chemical Company (who pay nobody), finding at last that their name has been exposed, have assumed the title of "Holloway and Co.;" but, even now, no one will buy their medicines direct from them, so that they have made arrangements to supply exclusively the firm of Messrs. Henry and Co., of New York, with their so-called "Holloway's Pills and Ointment."

It is presumed that, from the large connexion Messrs. Henry and Co. have in the British Provinces and elsewhere, the public is very likely to be imposed upon by unscrupulous vendors and others unless they exercise great caution to prevent their being misled, by finding these medicines bearing a stamp with the name of "Holloway and Co., New York," printed thereon.

Many respectable Firms in the British Provinces, who obtain my medicines direct from here, have very properly suggested that I should, for the benefit of themselves and the public, insert their names in the papers, that it may be known that my medicines can be had genuine from them.

The following is a list of the Firms alluded to; and I particularly recommend those who desire to get my medicines to apply to some of the Houses named:—

Messrs. Avery, Brown & Co., Halifax, N. S.
Messrs. Forsyth & Co., Halifax, N. S.
Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons, St. John, N. B.
Mr. T. Dos Brisay, Charlotte Town, P. E. I.
Messrs. Langley & Co., Victoria, B. C.
Messrs. Moore & Co., Victoria, B. C.
Dr. John Pallen, Chatham, N. B.
Messrs. Munro & Co., Montreal.
Messrs. J. Winer & Co., Hamilton, Ont.
Mr. H. J. Rose, Toronto.
Mr. A. Chipman Smith, St. John, N. B.
Mr. John Hood, Goderich, Ont.
Messrs. Elliot & Co., Toronto.
Mr. J. Chaloner, St. John, N. B.
Messrs. Harrington Bros., St. John, N. B.
Mr. R. S. Priddy, Windsor, Ont.
Mrs. Orpen, Morden, N. S.
Mr. George C. Hunt, Jun., Fredericton, N. B.
Mr. W. H. Thompson, Harbor Grace, N. F.
Mr. J. M. Wiley, Fredericton, N. B.
Messrs. W. & D. Yuile, Montreal.

The medicines are sold at the lowest wholesale prices, in quantities of not less less than £20 worth—viz., 8s. 6d., 22s., and 34s per dozen boxes of Pills or pots of Ointment, for which remittances must be sent in advance.

Chemists and other vendors of Holloway's genuine Pills and Ointment may have their names inserted in the local papers if they will please apply here—

THE GREAT NUMBER OF CASES benefited and cured has established beyond a doubt the remarkable efficacy of Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya in the treatment of diseases of the lungs. Consumption, in the majority of cases, is unmistakably the result of depraved nutrition and poor blood. There is loss of appetite, feeble digestion, imperfect assimilation of food, and consequent failure of nerve power, to maintain the vital forces. The cough, raising of phlegm, night sweats and general debility arise from slow starvation, as it matters not how much nourishment is taken in if the stomach cannot prepare it for sustaining the constitution. The Elixir immediately supplies the waste of brain and nerve, invigorating the stomach liver and kidneys, and thereby arresting decline.

We speak from experience in the matter, having tested it thoroughly; and therefore those who are suffering from any of the complaints for which it is recommended, may depend upon it being a Sovereign Remedy.

The astonishing efficacy of the Canadian Pain Destroyer in curing the diseases for which it is recommended and its wonderful effects in subduing the lacerating pains of Rheumatism, and in relieving Nervous Affections entitle it to high rank in the list of Remedies. DOCTOR BALLOU
OFFICE
No. 10 King Street West,
Three doors from Yonge St., Toronto.

As an evidence of his ability we give below a few of the testimonials of some of the cures performed when he was with us before, which is, in our opinion, sufficient to keep him busy, for some time to come, in the city, which will be until he cures every case he will take.

I desire that the citizens of Toronto and vicinity (to whom I am well known) should know of the wonderful cure which Dr. Ballou performed upon my son, William J. Spears, in this city, on January 1st, 1871. He had a very severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and was so crippled that he could not move in bed, or attend to his business. The Albion Hotel, bedsides Indian Halls towards, to be treated by Dr. Ballou, having little hope that he was ever to be cured, after making so many afflicted with it for a lifetime. But what glad surprise awaited us. After one single treatment his pain entirely left him, his swollen knees and ankles became as natural as ever, and in three days he was, and is to this day, as well as he ever was. In any other age such a cure would be considered almost a miracle. If there are any who desire further proof let them come and see.

ACHIBALD SPEARS,
No. 408 Queen street West, Toronto.

I would cheerfully recommend Dr. Ballou to all my acquaintances, as his services to me were beyond all price, and I had tested the skill of the so-called best physician

D. A. CAMPBELL,
175 Sherbourne street.

Dr. Ballou cured me of Lung and Throat Disease in three treatments, when I was so weak that I could scarcely walk to his office.

KATE ROBBITER,

Dr. Ballou cured my daughter of Epileptic Fits which she had for eleven years, and she never had one after his first treatment, and before it she had them as often as eight to fifteen every week.

WM. F. McMULLIN,

Many other cases of Rheumatism, Dyspepsia Dropsy, Liver and Lung Disease, Heart Disease &c., may be seen at his office.

The Doctor also cures Cancer, Paralysis, Spermatorrhœa, and is perfect master of all Sexual or Private diseases. Treatments strictly confidential, and all letters addressed to him at 10 King street, West, will be attended to. Box 2045. 1442 1y
