One woman keeps her ties and belts hanging over a rod fastened on the inside of a closet door. As they hang in a row she can see at a glance which one she wants. Lying in a pile in her bureau drawer they are likely to become rumpled when they are pushed aside in a hurry to find the one wanted, which may perhaps be at the bottom of the pile.

BEULAH SURVEY LOTS SELLING

Take a stroll over the survey and you will be convinced that we are offering superior value in "Beulah Lots," and you will also agree that we are justified in advancing the price $2 per foot May 1st. A word or two about restrictions: The purchaser is not compelled to build, but should he desire to do so, then he must erect a dwelling with a cash valuation of at least $1,500. The wall of house next to street shall be 14 feet from street line, and 4 feet from northerly line of lot, this restriction giving a uniform building line on each street, also permitting lawns on south side of every house. Not more than one dwelling shall be built on each lot, thus ensuring sunshine and a healthy surrounding. We think these wholesome restrictions will appeal to "Home Builders" in preference to a "Lone Lot" with no restrictions.

Present prices $12 to $15 per foot. Terms—To suit purchaser.

Dun's Review says trade reports indicate a little more activity and percentage of idle machinery decreases.

Bradstreet's says while the outlook is hopeful, prospects seem to indicate a fluctuating trade in coming months.

Failures Last Week.

March 21.—Commercial failures this week in the United States, as reported by R. G. Dun & Co., are 323 against 322 last week, 332 the preceding week and 185 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 36, against 43 last week, 36 the preceding week and 25 last year. Of failures this week in the United States, 114 were in the East, 109 South, 71 West and 29 in the Pacific States, and 123 report liabilities of $5,000 or more, against 141 last week. Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for March are $10,825,167, against $3,706,655 for the same period the previous year.

Dun's Review.

Trade reports indicate a little more activity and the percentage of idle machinery decreases, but more reductions in wages and dividends show that the process of readjustment will take some time. Weather conditions in all sections facilitate the distribution of seasonable wearing apparel and house furnishings, improving sentiment, yet retailers are not disposed to replenish stocks beyond the business actually in sight. Thus for no strife is expected to follow the new wage scales that go into effect next month, and the number of unemployed will be materially reduced if labor will contribute its share to the lower cost of production necessary to restore normal consumption. Prices of securities have fluctuated irregularly, but no general weakness followed the cuts in dividends, as the previous decline presumably discounted smaller returns on investments. Final returns for February established a new high record of exports from all ports of the United States for that short month, while imports were smaller than in the same month of any recent year, supplying a trade balance in favor of this nation of $88,743,361.

Clew's Report.

New York, March 21.—The upward movement in stocks, which has been in progress for some time past, received a check in the latter part of the week, owing to unfavorable railroad reports and a disposition to take profits. A good deal of realizing has recently taken place, especially by the larger interests which brought stocks during and immediately after the panic to check the decline. It evidently appears to be the motive of the big leaders to induce activity by creating frequent moderate fluctuations. While the technical situation of the market appears to favor the taking of profits and the exercise of caution in buying, the general situation appears to be growing better rather than worse. Among the signs of recovery are a slightly better demand for some products of steel and iron. The most disturbing issue in the stock market is the political outlook. The Presidential campaign is growing in intensity, and more or less uncertainty is inevitable until the nomination can be ascertained.

Pittsburg, March 23.—Oil opened $1.78.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, March 23.—The market during the morning developed buying of influential character in St. Paul, Reading, U. P. and Northern Pacific, with London offering Steel and some selling of Reading, U. P., Pac., Steel and Copper, which could be called good. There was considerable manipulation of the industrial stocks, blt most of it warranted by scarcity of stocks and improving conditions at which many of these were selling.

The opening of the Montana extension of the St. Paul is reported adding to traffic, and an official says the road to Butte will give a great deal of business. An official of the Illinois Central reports a fair average business in all lines. Despite the heavy increase in capitalization of Steel in interest and dividend, requirements have been reduced since organization by over $1,500,000. It is believed that the President's message contains provision which will especially help such roads as the Southern Railway. April interest and disbursement payment will amount to about $126,000,000. There is a slow but steady centre of money in the market.—Ennis & Stopnuani. Dunszwighnd, pani.

ROMANCE OF THE DIAMOND.

Sir William Crookes Tells of the Queen of Gems.

Sir William Crookes contributes an instructive article to the North American Review entitled "The Romance of the Diamond." He refers to the theory advanced by some scientists that the diamond is a gift from heaven conveyed to earth in meteoric showers, and he confesses that the theory is not without support. He deals with the question of the manufacture of diamonds. His description of the Kimberley diamond mines is particularly interesting. The writer says:

"Many circumstances point to the conclusion that the diamond of the chemist and the diamond of the mine are strangely akin as to origin. It is evident that the diamond has not been formed in situ in the blue ground where it is found. The genesis must have taken place at vast depths under enormous pressure. The explosion of large diamonds on coming to the surface shows extreme tension. More diamonds are found in fragments and splinters than in perfect crystals; and it is noteworthy that, although these splinters and fragments must be derived from the breaking of a large crystal, yet in only one instance have pieces been found which could be fitted together; and these occurred at different levels. Does this fact point to the conclusion that the blue ground is not their true matrix? Nature does not make fragments of crystals. As the edges of the crystals are still sharp and unabraided, the locus of formation cannot have been very distant from the present sites. There were probably many sites of crystallization differing in place and time, or we should not see such distinctive characters in the gems from different mines, nor indeed in diamonds from different parts of the same mine."

Science Suggests a Way of Dealing EXERCISE AND ALCOHOL.

With Drunkenness.

In Hygienische Zeitschrift is an interesting article on the influence of muscular energy in eliminating alcohol which has been introduced into the blood. Dr. Gredhandt made a series of experiments, dosing with alcohol and then examining the blood after a varying number of hours. He found that under varying circumstances the elimination of alcohol was extremely slow. He then had constructed a wheel three meters in diameter, into which a dog could be placed and kept moving. Alcohol was introduced into the stomach of the dog and after five hours in the wheel its blood was examined, when it was found that the alcohol had diminished much more rapidly than when the animal was not exercising. Herr Gredhandt commends the result of this experiment to the consideration of men who have somewhat overindulged and suggests that the experiment might show beneficial results from riding in a carriage when the state of indulgence was too great for walking.

The Plague of the "White Nun."

From present indications it appears that the dreaded "white nun" butterfly, which in previous years caused such injury to pine forests in Bohemia, is likely this year to reappear in even greater numbers. The Ministry of Agriculture has, therefore, appointed a commission of experts to consider how best to stop the ravages of this destructive pest. Beginning in the forests of Saxony and Bohemia, the "white nun" has gradually spread over Moravia and Silesia, and even down to lower Austria as well. As the forest lands in Austria cover some twenty-four million acres, more than two-thirds of which are pine woods, the necessity for stopping this work of destruction is very urgent.

A novel method for fighting submarines is, it is said, to be tried. Three ship's cutters have been fitted up to carry a steel net about 200 feet long. While the cutters are being towed along they will drop these nets, and endeavor to take in them the submarine boats they may locate. The submarines on their part will try to dive under these nets or break holes through them.

ON BAD HABITS.

Norman Camp at the Y. M. C. A. Yesterday.

"How Can Men and Boys Overcome Bad Habits? Mr. Norman H. Camp, Bible reader and evangelist, discussed this question yesterday afternoon at the Men's meeting in East Hamilton Y.M.C.A. He said the religion of Jesus Christ was intended primarily to make men holy; then they would be happy. Men and boys had certain habits both open and secret that, if unopposed, would grow stronger, those who desired victory over sin must first be saved from the penalty of the same. The power of Christ in the heart changed loves and hates and without this power new resolutions would be broken continually. One could not overcome by his own will power, but should yield to God. Sin and the devil are stronger than mans' will, but Christ has power to overcome and will give us victory. Temptation is not sin, but yielding to temptation is sin. To overcome one must choose God and his power as there is no neutral ground. There was a good attendance at the meeting. Mr. Harry Richardson led the singing and sang a solo very acceptably.

BROTHER OF JUDGE TEETZEL.

Dr. William McQueen Teetzel, brother of Judge Teetzel, of this city, and of Dr. Teetzel, of St. Thomas, died on Wednesday in Cleveland, and his body was brought to Toronto on Saturday for interment. Dr. Teetzel was stricken with a spinal disease while attending a case on the previous Saturday, and becoming violently insane was removed to a hospital, and thence to his home, where he passed away at 1 p. m. four days afterwards. He was a graduate of Trinity College, Toronto, was thirty-five years of age, and considered one of the most progressive men in the profession. He belonged to the Oddfellows, Eagles, and Knights of Pythias, and had been a member of the 34th Battalion, Whitby, Ont. CENTRAL Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The men's meeting in the Central Y. M. C. A. held yesterday afternoon was addressed by Rev. A. Y. Haist, B. S., of Waterloo, Ont., his subject being "The King's Business." Mr. Haist said the King's business required haste, and pointed out the danger of delaying salvation. He urged the elder Christians to speak to the young men about the dangers of temptations and bad companionships. A large number of men were present. Mr. E. S. Hogarth was chairman, and a solo was sung by Mr. R. Symmers, which was much enjoyed.

BASKETBALL.

Hear the cry, "Mark your man!" coming from the girls, and 'tis leap year, too. The way they go into the basketball practice every evening delights old lovers of the game, and they need not be afraid of losing interest, as the girls will play just as strenuous a game as their sturdier brothers, and the Alexandra rink will be crowded to see the Hamilton girls, looking so trim and neat in their gym. suits, trying to lower the Toronto Y. W. C. A. colors. The number of skaters will be limited on Wednesday night. Tickets now on sale at the rink.
