WHEAT FIRM ON EXPORT DEMAND

European Harvest Interfered With by Wet Weather—Corn and Oats Weak.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Larger exports than any previous day this season caused firmness today in wheat. The market closed steady at last night's level to 1-8c higher. Corn showed a net loss of 1-4c to 3-4c and oats a decline of 5-8c to 3-4c. For provisions the outcome was from 5c to 7 1-2c lower to 7 1-2c advance.

Export sales of wheat here today amounted to a full million bushels. The total for the day before was also large, 800,000. Exporters were said furthermore to be outbidding ordinary dealers in Kansas and Nebraska. Wet weather, interfering with the European harvest, was accepted as explaining the unusual foreign demand.

Country offerings, which early in the day had fallen to practically nothing, assumed liberal proportions when the market advanced. Hedging sales that resulted then wiped out in turn most of the gain, but still left bullish sentiment uppermost in the final trades.

Big Primary Receipts.

Primary receipts of wheat continued heavy, 2,228,000 bushels, against 1,327,000 a year ago.

Wet weather over a large part of the belt led to rush of selling in corn. There was good speculative buying on the break, but the effect was offset by the slowness of eastern demand.

Oats dropped with corn and as a result of cool temperatures allowing the late planted fields to fill better than had been expected.

Trade in provisions was rather quiet and prices were steady.

EUROPEAN MARKETS.

The Liverpool market closed unchanged to ½d lower on wheat and ¼d to ½d lower on corn. Berlin wheat was unchanged, Budapest ¼c higher and Antwerp ⅝c lower.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN EXCHANGE

LIVERPOOL, July 23.—There was some pressure at the opening, as a result of continued favorable reports from Russia and prices were lower. Following the opening shorts were inclined to cover, and prices reacted slightly with the steadiness in July. Paris opened firm with unfavorable weather in France, and cargoes were more firmly held. Arrivals lighter and there is talk here of lighter world's shipments again this week. Just before mid-day pressure in a mild way developed and the market again became easy, but with the trading dull, largely due to the decline in corn and freer Australian offerings and Italian official report.

Corn opened ¼c lower and later further declined ¼ to ⅝, with undertone easy. The weakness in American cables and talk of large Argentine shipments this week, together with free plate offerings, caused profit taking.

RECORD OF PRICES IN MINING MARKET

The following table shows the course of prices in the Standard Stock Exchange during the past week. It will be noted that a good deal of irregularity has been shown, and that whereas at one interval a fair recovery in values had occurred, the closing figures were not the top of the week. In the Cobalts, Bailey, Coniagas, Gould, Kerr Lake, La Rose, McKinley and Nipissing all improved their position, while in the Porcupine Dome Lake, Hollinger and Porcupine Gold wound up the week higher than where they had begun. The weak spots of the list, which ended at declines, were Cochrane, Crown Reserve, Great Northern, Peterson, Dome Extension, Jupiter, Pearl Lake and Swastika.
