AT OSGOODE HALL.

Two Councillors Will Hold Their Seats—Another Batch of Barristers and Solicitors—Court of Appeal.

Mr. Justice Rose has given judgment in Reg. ex rel. McKenzie v. Duross, on the defendant's appeal from the judgment of Mr. Cartwright, voiding the election of defendant as a Councillor of the Township of Oliver. The defendant qualified as the owner of lot 13 in the second concession. The lot stood in the registry office in the name of defendant's daughter, but she admitted his ownership. He had been assessed as owner and paid taxes on the lot for 17 years previous to the time of election. It was shown that the proceeds of a $300 mortgage on the lot, made by the daughter, had been received by the defendant and expended in improvements on the lot. The learned judge finds that the defendant, upon this state of facts, has sufficient property qualification and dismisses the appeal with costs.

In Reg. ex rel. McKenzie v. Martin, the same learned judge dismisses the relator's appeal from Mr. Cartwright's order refusing to unseat the defendant as Councillor for the same township, thus confirming Mr. Martin's election.

Railway Changes.

The number of important railway changes occurring almost weekly, on both the G.T.R. and C.P.R., are regularly issued and delivered to their subscribers every Monday, by the publishers of The Toronto Weekly Railway and Steamboat Guide Company, Ltd. This guide is one of the handsomest and most useful railway guides published. The railway companies' time cards and folders are irregular in their appearance, but the weekly one is always on time and up to date, with few, if any, errors, and is now recognized as reliable and official. Arranged alphabetically and placed in a frame where one can always refer to it completes the system of a good thing.

Trades Clothing.

The closing exercises in connection with the boys' departments of St. Francis and St. Patrick's Separate Schools took place yesterday before a large attendance of parents and friends of the scholars. Among others present were: Vicar-General McCann, Rev. Fathers Wynn, Gregan, Dodsworth and W. McCann; Trustees W. Ray, M. Walsh and James Ryan. A program of readings, recitations, songs, etc., was rendered by the pupils. Vicar-General McCann and Father Wynn complimented the pupils and teachers on their good work.

TORONTO FRUIT MARKET.

There were about 3100 packages of fruit by cars and boat, the great bulk being strawberries, about 200 baskets of cherries, some few baskets of gooseberries, green peas and new potatoes, all Canadian production and coming from the Niagara Peninsula. The market was firmer than on Monday on account of the rain, which would hinder the picking, and, therefore, the supply would not be sufficient for the demand for to-morrow's market, as next day is Dominion Day.

Strawberries were worth from 4½c to 7c, and some few extra choice lots 8c.

Cherries sold from 60c to $1 and were slow at that; gooseberries, 25c to 35c per basket, green peas 25c per basket.
