GENTLEMEN,—It has afforded me much gratification to learn that the result of the double canvess of the West Ward, which has just been made by Messrs. R. P. ISAACSON and A. B. STEWART, on behalf of myself and JOHN FISHER, Esq.,—and by Messrs. J. H. ISAACSON and C. SMITH, on behalf of myself and H. H. WHITNEY, Esq., is that my name has been almost unanimously placed on both tickets.

If the confidence thus so generally expressed should place me, at the approaching Municipal Election, in the Corporation as one of the Councillors for the West Ward, I beg to assure you that I shall endeavor to promote the interests of the City to the best of my ability.

I have the honor to be,
GENTLEMEN,
Your most obedient servant,

Yours very truly,

THE BANK OF NEW YORK.

IT would be idle to suppose there are any so ignorant of passing events as not to have heard of the wonder of the age, THE GREAT WORLD'S FAIR. It would be absurd to suppose that any who have heard of this event would not have a strong desire to witness this novel, gigantic and grand Exhibition. But amid the tens of thousands in whom this desire exists, there are thousands UNWILLING and thousands UNABLE to make the necessary outlay for a journey to and from London. To every one of these an Engraving, which shall be valuable as well because it is a truthful picture of the interior of this fairy-like crystal palace, as because it exhibits the extremest perfection of art, will be an object of interest.

We have taken the trouble to ascertain, by a careful and elaborate estimate, that to produce an Engraving worthy of this memorable occasion, and to make 4,000 copies of it, would cost at least $5,000. For such an Engraving the print-sellers would charge certainly $10, probably $15 a copy, and pocket perhaps $20,000 of profit. Instead, however, of letting this enormous sum be swallowed up by the print-sellers, we will publish the Engraving by co-operation, so that each subscriber can obtain a copy at, to say the least, one half the price the print-seller would charge, and then have a large sum to spare to distribute as prizes.

First, we intend to secure the services of a first-rate American Artist, who will proceed to London and make a sketch of the interior of the Great World's Fair in the very zenith of its splendor, when every thing will be displayed to the greatest possible advantage on the occasion of the visitor thereto of the projector, the Prince Albert, his Consort the Queen of England, and their children. From this sketch the Engraving will be made, and will form the most magnificent and interesting tableaux.

The number of Subscribers is limited to 4,000.
