OPPOSITION OPENS ITS CARLETON CAMPAIGN

The opposition campaign in Carleton county was opened in Debec last evening with the opposition taking as their slogan "A clean win or no win," and with that end in view the campaign will be pursued.

Charles L. Smith, of Woodstock, was the first speaker, followed by F. B. Carvell, M. P., who spoke about an hour on both federal and local issues. He received a stirring reception and there was every evidence that the electors present appreciated to the full extent his efforts to rid Canadian politics of graft and corruption.

E. S. Carter, opposition organizer, spoke of the issues in the coming contest being greater than any individual or any candidate.

In Carleton county on September 21, the opposition would not spend a dollar for votes or a cent for whiskey. If B. Frank Smith secured his election by money and rum he was welcome to his seat in the government for the short time his government would last. No matter what Smith and his friends did the opposition course would be the same as outlined.

"And now," said Mr. Carter, "a word or two to the Standard newspaper, which for the time being is adopting a threatening attitude as to what it may do if I and other opposition critics persist in making charges against government members and their supporters."

"Mr. chairman, it does not scare me one bit. Let the Standard say what it pleases; my action will be the same."
