THE TERRIBLE STUDENTS.

Mayor Says Militia Will Be Called Out IF Necessary.

President Falconer of the University of Toronto had a talk with Mayor Oliver and Chief of Police Grasett at the city hall yesterday concerning the conduct of the students as it ought to be to-night.

"We'll keep order on the streets of Toronto to-morrow night, even if we have to call out the militia to do it," is the reported ultimatum of the mayor. "We'll see if a lot of hoodlums can boss the city."

The students, however, may not provoke the riot his worship anticipates. The S.P.S. are taking their annual excursion to the big industrial plants at Buffalo and the Falls and won't be home until very late. The meds. to the number of 600 will have a reunion in Convocation Hall. Then there is the Hallowe'en Varsity dance.

The current issue of "Varsity," discussing the student-police fracas of Monday night, says: "Revenge, be it noted, must have been the worthy motive of these worthies. Their worshipful chief had recently been reprimanded for laxity. They were now to vindicate his name. To find a way or make it, was their motto. Possessed of this idea they carefully separated students and themselves from the telltale eyes of ordinary citizens, directed the crowd towards the shaded Varsity grounds and then, undeterred by public gaze, rushed valiantly to butchery."

OLD MAGISTRATE TO RESIGN

Magistrate Bartlet of Windsor, Octogenarian, Will Drop From Public Life

WINDSOR, Oct. 30.—Alex. Bartlet, Windsor's "Grand Old Man," and magistrate of the Windsor Police Court for nearly 31 years, announced to-day that on the occasion of his 86th birthday anniversary, Dec. 31 of this year, he will retire to private life. He has definitely decided to send in his resignation to the department of justice.

Magistrate Bartlet is the oldest police court justice in Canada, so far as can be learned. Previous to going on the bench he was town clerk, to which position he was appointed in 1854. His appointment as police court magistrate came 20 years later from the Mowat administration. He is certainly the oldest public servant in the Dominion in point of service. Mr. Bartlet is the only living charter member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, which celebrated its 50th anniversary only last year.

To-day Mr. Bartlet is hale and hearty and is possessed of a keen memory, which he attributes to his abstinence from liquor and tobacco.
