TIGERS CLIMB UP TO THIRD IN RACE

Make Clean Sweep of Series With Highlanders, Taking Final by 2 to 1.

BOTH PITCHERS IN FORM

Stroud and Warhop Do Great Work For Their Teams—Cobb's Single Wins.

Detroit, Aug. 9.—The Tigers climbed into third place and shoved the Highlanders, who a short while ago had strong hopes that the 1910 flag would fly in New York, down a peg when they captured their fifth straight and made a clean sweep of the series with Stallings' men by a 2 to 1 score.

Unlike the rest of the games in the series, yesterday was a great battle between Ralph Stroud and Jack Warhop, and, like most twirling duels, the result was made possible by an error that looked small at the time, but that enabled Ty Cobb to drive in the winning run in the third inning.

This idea of getting in enough runs early in the game seems to be a habit with the Tigers of late, and they have made that old ninth inning finish unnecessary. In the last five games, all of which were won by the Tigers, they have made enough tallies before the third man was out in the fourth inning to cinch the contest. The scores

[Special to The Advertiser.]

New York, Aug. 8.—Stanley Ketchell has an inflamed right foot and will not fight Australian Bill Lang on Friday night at the Fairmount A. C. The bout has been postponed until Tuesday, Aug. 16.

About a week ago Ketchell chafed his instep from lacing his shoe too tight. The next day he went canoeing and wet his feet. He thinks the green dye of his socks soaked in the chafe. At any rate, the sore became very painful and it has been lanced twice. Ketchell's doctor expects to have his patient cured within a few days.

DR. ROUTLEDGE IS NAMED A JUDGE

Will Take Part in Horse Show To Be Held in West.

Dr. G. A. Routledge and Mrs. Routledge, Lambeth, leave this week for Medicine Hat and Edmonton, where the doctor will judge light harness horses in the shows at both cities. He returned last week from Winnipeg, where he judged light horses.

"The quality of horses is improving all through the west," he declared. "At Winnipeg there were some very fine animals, and I expect to see just as good when I go farther west. From what I can learn of the crops in the west, they are good in some localities and poor in others. In the north part of the country they are very good, while in some parts of the south they are completely burned up."

On the turns his wheel ran to the fence and each time he lost fifteen yards, which he steadily gained till at the finish he was some six yards behind. Fred is now in the pink of condition and feels assured with everything working right he will have the race all to himself. He left for Toronto yesterday and will take a few turns on the track to get used to it. After his race Saturday he will return to Newark.

CHICKEN THIEVES MURDER

Believed That They Knifed and Shot Millionaire Rice.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 8.—The police of this city and county today are working to solve the mystery of the death of W. L. Rice, millionaire attorney, who was shot down near his home on Euclid Heights Friday night on the theory that he was killed by chicken thieves. They regard the bag of stolen chickens found yesterday in the bushes 60 feet away from the scene of the murder, as the most tangible clue yet unearthed. County Detective Devoran, who has charge of the case, was at first skeptical of the supposition that chicken thieves did the killing, but now believes this is the correct theory. He argues that Rice, returning from the Euclid Club, where he had spent the evening, met the thieves returning booty-laden from the hen house of W. P. Palmer, his next door neighbor, and attempting to arrest them, was first knifed and then shot. The theory is that the robbers, frightened by the lights of an approaching automobile, then fled, discarding the bag of chickens as they ran.

UHLAN DOES MILE TO WAGON IN 2:01

Billings' Famous Black Gelding Sets a New Mark at North Randall Track, Cleveland.

HENRY WINTERS SHOWS

Johnston Bros.' Horse Was in the Money in 2:19 Trot on Grand Circuit—Nancy Royce Beaten.

Cleveland, Aug. 8.—The 2:10 trotting stake, the feature of the opening of the Grand Circuit racing at North Randall this afternoon, furnished a surprise in the defeat of the heavy favorite, Nancy Royce, winner at Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Detroit, by the local mare, Teasel, owned by H. K. Devereaux, president of the Grand Circuit, as well as of the local association.

Nancy Royce was such a strong favorite that after a few pools had been sold she was barred in the betting, but even then Teasel was not liked, Alice Roosevelt having the call over the others. When it came to racing Teasel had all the speed and that other outsider, Oro Belline, was the main contender after the favorite had made the winner take a new record of 2:06¾ in the opening heat.

Mile to Wagon in 2:01.

One of the most wonderful performances ever accomplished by a trotter was that of the black gelding Uhlan in his trip against the wagon record for geldings of 2:02¾, made by himself at this track some weeks ago. He was driven by his owner, C. K. G. Billings, and trotted the mile in 2:01, which also equals the fastest mile ever trotted without a pacemaker in front, and is a new track record for North Randall, the best previous being the heat by Hamburg Belle, in 2:01¼ last summer, when she defeated Uhlan in the match race. It is the unanimous opinion of the experts who watched him today that Uhlan will beat 2:00 handily, hitched to sulky, and with other conditions favorable.

Trims Record Again.

That old Ohio half-mile track king, Major Mallow, trimmed his record again, when he defeated Ross K. in the first heat of the 2:04 pace in 2:03¾. Then Ross K. went on and beat him in slower time. The Major has been racing five seasons, part of the time on the half-mile tracks, and each season he lowers his record a little.

In the 2:21 pace Lon McDonald started the three-year-old pacing filly Baroness Evelyn, and won second money behind Nellie Temple. This filly is a full sister to Baroness Virginia, the trotting filly which won the Stock Farm and Kentucky Futurities last fall, and her showing today against aged horses was very good.
