THE 8TH HUSSARS IN CAMP.

The 8th Hussars went into camp on the 29th September under the command of Major Markham. The four squadrons comprising the regiment were in camp. Sergt.-Major Dingley, of the Toronto Cavalry School, acted as instructor. There were 353 officers and men and 317 horses in camp. Col. Domville was unable to be with the regiment at first, owing to his Parliamentary duties, but joined the regiment later. Major Lessard, inspector of cavalry R.C.D., inspected the camp on the 7th by squadrons under the command of the squadron leaders, second in command and troop officers respectively. It was expected that the Minister of Militia would have been present, but he was prevented at the last moment.
