FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Sept. 9—Yesterday afternoon a very successful tea and sale was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington. It had been advertised as "a children's tea and sale," but they were assisted by many older friends in contributions and work. The grounds were gaily decorated with flags and about the lawns, under the shade of trees, were arranged the various tables which, together with the presence of many happy children in white frocks and many colored hair ribbons, the summer costumes of lady workers and patrons, the garden beds bright with bloom, made the scene a very attractive one. Afternoon tea was served at small tables on the wide verandah. At the gate Elmer Puddington and Fenwick Armstrong took the tickets. The "fancy work' table was served by little Misses Florence Puddington, Ruth Robinson, Kathleen Blanchet, Helen Allison, Catherine Peters, with Miss L. W. Thomson as cashier; candy, Misses Emma Turnbull, Georgie Trueman and Lillie West; home cooking, Miss Annie Armstrong; guessing weight of cake and beans in a bottle, Miss Katherine Skelton; mystery table, Miss Mary Armstrong; orange trees, little Misses Elizabeth Armstrong, Margaret Peters, Rachael Armstrong, Millie Hibbard, with Miss H. G. Thomson as cashier; ice cream, Mrs. Hibbard and Miss Domville, assisted by several little people. On the verandah Mrs. James F. Robertson and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong poured; Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Blanchet, Miss Muriel Fairweather, Misses Sue and Helen Hevenor, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Miss Crosby and Mrs. Oliver Peters served. Miss Hooper superintended the replenishing and kept everything running smoothly. A handsome sweater made by Mrs. Puddington and raffled was won by Mrs. Oliver Peters, and a lovely cosy made by Miss Bell, won by Miss Gertrude Davidson. Mrs. Blanchet guessed nearest the weight of the cake and Rob Mackeen the number of beans. The proceeds were over $195 and after a few expenses are deducted will be divided between Rothesay Red Cross and Dr. MacLaren's hospital.
