CAN'T SAY ENOUGH IN THEIR FAVOR

Why Miss Gusty V. Campbell Recommends Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to all her Friends who have Stomach Troubles.

"I cannot say enough in favor of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," so says Miss Gusty V. Cambell, Little Shippegan, Gloucester Co., N. B. Of course Miss Campbell has reasons for making a statement like this and here they are:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia for two months and was always getting worse till advertisements led me to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. One box cured me and I can honestly recommend them to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

The moral of this is that if you take your stomach trouble before it gets too firm a grip it is easily cured by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. One box cured Miss Campbell.

But as in Miss Campbell's case, stomach trouble if neglected always grows worse. In its worst stages it takes time to cure it. But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will do it.

Fashion Note.

"And what is the neatest, prettiest thing in waists for the season?"

Mr. Vansant thought a moment and replied solemnly:

"The tenant!"

Too Expensive.

"What a happy dog you are! Don't you ever borrow trouble?"

"Nope. Can't afford it. The interest is too high."

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY.

As mercury will destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c. per bottle.

Vegetables Need Skilled Cooks.

Foods from the animal kingdom are so rich in flavor that poor cookery cannot quite ruin them, while the milder flavored vegetables and cereals require skillful handling in order to win for them our liking. Indeed, a general increase of preference for vegetable foods might almost be taken for a proof of advanced skill in our cooking, remarks a household exchange.

WOMEN WITH WEAKNESS.

For all weakness which girls and women suffer, no surer remedy exists than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They maintain that bracing health every woman so earnestly desires; they uproot disease, and bring strength that lasts till old age.

"No medicine could be more beneficial than Dr. Hamilton's Pills," writes Mrs. Mary E. Ayrton, of Victoria. "I have been strengthened, my digestion is better, I have improved in color and feel considerably better since using Dr. Hamilton's Pills." Sold everywhere, 25c. per box or five boxes for one dollar.

THE CROSS FAD.

New Jewelry Fancies and Fashions of Smart Dressers.

The heart, worn not on the sleeve, but dangling from a long chain, and the round locket containing a miniature are passing into a romantic memory.

Whether it is the beckoning hand of Easter or merely one of fashion's mysterious and untraceable ripples that has revived the cross as an ornament does not matter. With whatever sentiment its use may be viewed, the cross it is to be.

Many a woman other than the fair Lenten penitent will now grope deep into her box of cherished old fashioned jewels and bring to light one of those huge jet crosses that were the fashionable accompaniment of the black gown some years ago.

Jet, however, is by no means the preferred material today. The cross of the best turned out dresser will be of polished silver or gold in the flat style represented in the sketch and of large size, running up to four inches in length. This is the plain article. Others, also large and in the Roman shape, are enameled or composed entirely of some one kind of stone set in gold wire. The amethyst, sapphire, topaz and opal represent the usual stones for this purpose. These crosses are all worn on a plain and rather light lorgnette chain of gold.

Less pronounced and appealing to quieter tastes are the small and dainty versions of this object in either the Roman or the Greek form. A favorite is in gold with a single stone in the center, as here sketched. This less aggressive presentment of the new accessory will better act as a pendant on the dog collar, which is largely supplanting the slender necklace that has had so phenomenal a run for the past two seasons.

The quite young and the sentimental contingent of society will rejoice in another new notion in danglers. It is straight from Paris and a very neat thing, by the way, to mention to the one who is endeavoring to discover what you'd like for Easter. This is a pendant made up of stones the initials of which spell the wearer's name. Should the name be Hope, for instance, the stones called for would be hyacinth, opal, pearl and emerald, and the longer the name the more jewels.

Amethysts, with their rich, velvety, lovely tint, are undoubtedly very much in fashion again, and it is said to be the exquisite taste of Queen Alexandra that first launched them upon another period of popularity.

Gold beads will this season find use not so much as a single strand, but as broad collars of many rows with gold or jeweled bars or slides.

What, Indeed?

A man who had been half starved during the ministrations of an incompetent maid and a trained (?) nurse during his wife's illness decided to do a little cooking himself. After an ominous rattling of pots and pans he appeared at the convalescent's bedside and asked what a fellow was to do when the cookbook said "break six eggs separately into bowls" and there were only five bowls in the kitchen. Wiser heads than his might easily find the average cookbook formulas a trifle bewildering.—Exchange.

Embroidered Buttons a Pretty Fancy.

Embroidered linen blouses, as we all know, will be foremost among spring clothes, and later will come a tempting choice of summer dresses in Irish linen, white or colored, with touches of embroidery deftly introduced.

As a natural sequence embroidered buttons, now a fancy of the day, are being evolved in handmade, washable form for linen blouses and dresses. The buttons are made of white linen neatly stretched over metal rings and closely covered over with lace stitches and are both strong and extremely pretty.

Other forms of embroidered buttons, not necessarily in washable materials, are shown in the cut.

Leather Covered Furniture.

Leather covered furniture should be frequently sponged with warm water softened with borax and rubbed perfectly dry with an old soft cloth; then rub in a few drops of glycerin, after which polish well with chamois. When leather acquires a shabby, dull look it may be freshened by applying the white of an egg, slightly beaten, with a bit of flannel, says the Ladies' World.

WHY THAT WEARINESS?

You're uneasy, restless, without appetite. Still worse you are thin and fagged out. Work must be done, but where is the strength to come from?

Make your blood nutritious and you'll have lots of strength. Your only hope is Ferrozone, an instant blood-maker, blood-purifier, blood-enricher. It brings keen appetite, digests food and supplies nutrition for building up all the bodily tissues. Ferrozone makes muscle and nerve-fibre, increases your weight, instils a reserve of energy into the body that defies weariness or exhaustion from any cause. To have virility and healthy vigor use Ferrozone, which all dealers sell in 50c. boxes.

Thoughtlessness of a Wife.

In the window of a public house in Whitechapel has been seen a card on which was written the following notice: "A friendly lead will be given on Wednesday night in aid of Bill Sykes, whose wife has just died and left him totally unprovided for."

There are some women who seem to be perennially youthful. The grown daughters are companions as well as children, and the color in the mother's cheeks, the brightness in her eyes, the roundness in her form, all speak of abounding health. What is her secret? She is at the middle age of life when so many women are worn, wasted and faded, and yet time has only ripened her charms. The secret of this matronly health and beauty may be told in the brief phrase, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The general health of woman is so intimately related to the local health of the delicate womanly organs, that where these are diseased, the whole body must suffer. "Favorite Prescription" dries the debilitating drains, heals ulceration and inflammation, cures female weakness and imparts to the delicate female organs natural vigor and vitality. Women who have lost their health and their beauty have been made "robust and rosy cheeked" by the use of this marvellous medicine.
