CHARLES A. ROSE, ESQ.

At a meeting of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. John's church, Clyde, held on the 24th day of February, 1875, the following proceedings were had:

It having pleased our Heavenly Father, in His wise Providence, to remove from the field of his earthly labors, our friend and brother, the late Senior Warden of this parish, CHARLES A. ROSE, Esq., we, the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. John's church, Clyde, desire to place upon the records of the parish a memorial of our appreciation of his unpretending worth, and the great loss the parish and ourselves have sustained; therefore

Resolved, That we hereby tender to the family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy with them in their severe affliction, believing their irreparable loss is his everlasting gain. That a copy of this minute be forwarded to the family of the deceased; that the same be entered upon the records of the parish, and published in THE CHURCH JOURNAL and the Clyde Times.

WM. S. STOW, Clerk.

THE LATE JOHN TWEDDLE.

The Vestry of St. Peter's church desire to enter upon the records of the church a simple but sincere tribute of respect to the memory of their deceased friend, JOHN TWEDDLE, for many years a member, and of late the Senior Warden, of the parish.

As an upright, pure-minded man, a sincere Christian, a zealous Churchman, and a faithful official, he won our esteem and affection.

He was unostentatious in manner, wise in counsel, generous in judgment and deed. His deep interest in the affairs of the Church stimulated and strengthened the endeavors of his rector and fellow vestrymen; while his generous aid to manifold benevolent enterprises, as well as cases of individual need, indicated a profound sense of his stewardship of the things committed to him by God.

Under cover of such formal words as these there lie the sincerest regard for the man, and the deepest sense of our personal loss in his decease.

His words of Christian truth and resignation during his last illness betokened the reality and simplicity of his religious character. He leaves a memory which is a solace to those bound to him by ties of blood and affection, and which is the worthiest legacy of his life of successful toil and honorable action.

To the bereaved family, the Vestry would express their deep sympathy, and as a token of respect to their deceased brother, will attend the funeral in a body. [Signed]

WALTON W. BATTERSHALL, Rector.
