CANADIAN ROUTE FASTEST

Liverpool, Dec. 6.—The steamer Empress of Ireland which sailed from Halifax last Sunday at noon, arrived here tonight at midnight, making the trip across the Atlantic from port to port in the remarkable fast time of 4 days, 19 hours and 30 minutes.

This, in comparison with the performance of the Mauretania, of the Cunard Line, is most direct evidence of the advantage of the Canadian route. The Mauretania's time from New York to Liverpool was about 5 days, 8 hours. These figures show that the Canadian Pacific steamer crossed the ocean in thirteen hours less time than it took the Mauretania to cross.
