EXPECT WORK ON WINDSOR HOSPITAL TO BEGIN THIS MONTH

Some few matters remain to be adjusted regarding the additional building to the new Salvation Army Grace Hospital, Windsor, but these will be attended to in the course of a few days, and the contract will be let at the earliest possible moment. It is expected that work on the new structure will be well under way before the end of August.

It is expected that $175,000 will be raised for this purpose, of which the Windsor council have already granted $60,000; $10,000 has been raised by popular subscription, $26,000 of this amount already being paid in, and the remaining $76,000 to be paid within a short time. Many of these donations were large sums, several of them being for $10,000 each.

When completed this hospital will be the largest in the territory west of London.

LEGAL QUERIES

HIRED FOR A YEAR.

Ques.—On February 28th last, I hired with a farmer here for a year (verbally). Now he informs me that he will not need me in the winter. I reminded him that he hired me for a year and he tells me that a month's notice is all that is necessary. Is this correct?

Ans.—No.

Ques.—If not, what redress can I get.

Ans.—Sue for damages.

Ques:—I have not got my notice yet, not until all the hard work is done. Should I get another job in the meantime? Can I give a month's notice?

ANXIOUS.

Ans.—No.

A HYDRO POINT.

Ques.—I live in a village where hydro was installed one year ago. By some mistake they neglected to give me a street light. All the other street corners have one and mine was on the plan; they put the poles and wire but no light. At first, when I spoke of it, they said they would give me one in a few weeks, but have kept putting me off and now say they would not give me one unless I wired my house. They did not ask the others to do so, neither have they done so. Please let me know will I have to pay hydro street light taxes when I derive no benefit? In fact it is darker here than before and spoils the sale of my house. By kindly advising me what I should do, you will greatly oblige. A READER.

Ans.—If the rules of the commission for your village provide that you should pay for the extension, you will have to do so. If you could send us a copy of their regulations, we could advise you more fully.

A TENANT QUESTION.

Ques.—Some years ago I leased a house for one year. Since that time there has been no new lease, but the owner has twice advanced the rent. Am I a yearly or monthly tenant?

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—Yearly tenant.

EXEMPT.

[Exchange.]

Maggie (home from church)—Say, Tom, the preacher said today that any one stealing potatoes from his field will go to hell.

Tom—Well, did he say anything about turnips?

Maggie—No, not that I heard.

Tom—Well, then, it's nothing to me.

TAX EXEMPTION FOR ALL NEW BUILDINGS URGED BY ALDERMAN

G. A. Wenige Says Plan Will Act As Incentive To Building.

Total exemption from taxation of all new buildings for five years after erection in this city, as an incentive to building, lowered rents and a solution of the unemployment problem, was advocated by Ald. G. A. Wenige at a regular meeting of No. 1 committee of the city council Wednesday afternoon The committee decided upon his motion to ascertain if the law permits such procedure, with a report to be presented at the next meeting.

"It will lower rents, provide work and create a building boom," predicted Ald. Wenige. "We get the taxes on the land only now, and if it were built upon it would not remain vacant, and this motion would assist building."

President McGuire of the trades and labor council addressed the meeting, urging that the motion regarding the renting of a stall in the markethouse to the Western Fish Company to operate in opposition to the municipal fish stall be repealed. No action was taken by the members, who decided to rent this stall to the Western Fish Comvany at a previous meeting.

"It is a special privilege to a private company against a public utility," contended President McGuire. "The private company is there for profits."

Ald. Wenige opined that competition is best for good business.

"It is an open market and we have no right to bar anyone," commented Ald. F. R. Watkinson, who presided.

Was Misquoted.

Appearing "as a private citizen," Fred Young, who is a member of the local trades and labor council, said: "I was misquoted in the report of the trades and labor council meeting, which said that I was the only one present who objected to the motion to deny this company a stall in the market. This motion from the trades and labor council was a minority report.

"I will tell you plainly that those who are making the kick are not kicking so much against the Western Fish Company coming to the market, but are against them coming to the city at all. This is not disloyalty, but I am speaking as a citizen of London."

"It is time to call a halt on this kind of stuff," he continued. "I claim that anyone has a right to come in and compete. I object to any member of the trades and labor council, chamber of commerce of Kiwanis Club, acting so un-British to say that opposition should not come in. I don't care if they kick me out for my objections."

Ald. Watkinson explained that the proprietor of the fish company holds a union card, and that he intends to sell dressed fish 5 cents cheaper than prevailing prices. He will be allowed to rent a stall in the market house.

Want Representation.

A communication was read from the trades and labor council, asking representation on the special gas committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of procuring natural gas for London. It was referred to the city council to be dealt with.

A second communication from the same body, asking that the council indorse federal and provincial measures for the working classes, particularly clause 13 of the peace treaty, and that the Government be urged to take steps "to grapple with the unemployment situation," was also referred to the city council.

The city clerk of Peterboro wrote regarding disposition of police court fines, stating that the member for that city will urge in the legislature that laws be passed alloting fines collected in municipalities to the said cities or towns. The committee decided to call the attention of Dr. H. A. Stevenson, M.L.A. for London, to this matter, with a request that he back up the Peterboro member in his stand.

Offers Coal.

An offer of the W. A. Freeman Coal Company offering 1,000 or 2,000-ton lots of egg, stove, or nut coal f.o.b. mines at $8.80, $8.95 and $8.85 per ton, respectively, was referred to the Public Utilities commission. In the opinion of some members present, exchange, freight and loss by leakage in transit, will bring this price up to $16 per ton, with no advantage to citizens in purchasing same.

City Clerk Baker reported: "It was hoped that public schools and separate schools of the city would pay for local improvements. We cannot compel them. The public schools will pay, the separate schools refuse. I recommend that in future no local improvement be charged to the board of education, as it would be unfair to charge the public schools when the separate schools refuse to pay." The clerk's recommendation was adopted.

The committee renewed the contract for heating No. 1 fire station with the Helena Costume Company at a price similar to that now in force. An application from Police Court Clerk John Moule for an increase in salary was laid over.

Raise Rates.

The Humane Society accounts read showed that a charge of 20 cents per day is made for maintaining stray animals, with 50 cents as the increased price for collecting and burying them. "It is worth it to keep stray dogs off the streets," commented Ald. Wenige as the accounts were passed.

Delegates to the 23rd annual session of the Ontario Municipal Association, in session at Toronto August 31, September 1 and 2, were appointed, as follows: Ald. F. R. Watkinson, Ald. G. A. Wenige, Ald. W. A. Wilson, City Clerk S.Baker and Assessment Commissioner Stephen Grant.

SAMPLE OF PUBLIC SPIRITEDNESS SHOWN BY LONDON WOMAN

Following publication of the fact that permanent playgrounds for the children of West London are not available at present, owing to the fact that property in this section of the city suitable for recreational centres, is owned by citizens who demand exorbitant prices for their land, a local woman has written to General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the public utilities commission, offering to sell her lot in London West to the city for use as a public playground at its assessed value.

"This is a very fine example of public spiritedness," Mr. Buchanan informed The Advertiser. "Unfortunately, however, this land offered is too small to be utilized as a public playgrounds. We appreciate the offer, and only wish that owners of property in London West, which the playgrounds committee desires for the kiddies, would take this as their cue, and offer to sell their land at a reasonable figure, or better still, at its assessed value."

3,500 Britishers Enjoy Picnic At Lakeside Resort

St. George's Society Stages Best All-Round Outing of the Season.

Fully 3,500 people enjoyed, in the English picnic at Port Stanley Wednesday, one of the all around most delightful outings of the season. There have been in other years attendances equally as large or even larger at the big annual gala day under the auspices of St. George's Society, but probably never has there been so interesting a program, so nicely balanced and presented, without an interruption, as yesterday. Every event or series of events was presented on schedule time, and there was no overlapping, everyone being able to witness all the events with plenty of time for supper between the conclusion of the big baby show and the commencement of the keenly-diverting aquatic sports.

Wins Gold Watch.

The announcement of the result of the drawing for the gold watch, won by Mrs. McNiven, was made from the platform of the open air theatre, where the Great War Veterans' band, under the capable direction of Lieut. C. C. Irwin, played at the conclusion of the picnic program proper. Plenty of train accommodation was provided by the London and Port Stanley Railroad, but practically all the trains were comfortably filled returning from 7 o'clock onwards. The program of pictures in the open air theatre kept a considerable number of the picnickers at the beach until the later trains.

Difficult Task.

It was the best baby show in years, everybody declared, and Inspector Joseph Saunders of the Children's Aid Society and Mrs. W. P. Martin of Vancouver had not easy task selecting the best babies out of some 75 entering the various competitions. SPRINGBANK PICNICS

COMBINED CHURCHES' PICNIC.

An interesting picnic was that of the combined churches of Lucan—Methodist, Presbyterian and Church of England—who held a glorious time at Springbank Park Wednesday afternoon.

About 500 members of these churches and Sunday schools and their friends motored to the park, and on their arrival a baseball game between the married men and the single men of the various congregations was staged. The married men showed the "youngsters" that they weren't old-timers as yet, when they put the finishing touches to the game by a score of 10 to 2.

After the ball game all repaired to the pavilion, where refreshments were served.

NEIGHBORS COMPLAIN AND POLICE ARREST TWO NOISY DRUNKS

Third Member Is Captured With Bottle of Whiskey As Bedmate.

Dan Stewart and William Williamson made such a disturbance at Stewart's home on Florence street Sunday that a neighbor had to call the police. He said that his family could not sleep because of the noise that was being made. Peter Williamson was there also, the complainant said, but he was not as noisy as the others. Dan and William were allowed out on suspended sentence on a disorderly charge after they had pleaded guilty to being drunk.

When Constables Last and Clemens arrived on Florence street they found Dan and William sleeping on woodpiles and other places, but could not locate Peter Williamson or Walter Slaght, a fourth man, who was also alleged to have been a noise-maker. At the time court adjourned he had not been apprehended.

Last night Peter Willamson was found asleep in a shed at 196 Simcoe street by Sergt. William Middaugh, with a bottle of whiskey not a foot from him. He swore that the bottle was not his, and that it belonged to another man who had been with him. As he pleaded guilty to being intoxicated from drinking the contents of another bottle—which was not found—he escaped a $200 fine, the court giving him the benefit of the doubt. He was fined $10 and costs for being drunk.

Chief Birrell stated that as long as the prisoners had money and whiskey they would be in police court. They came to the city a few months ago, and have been creating trouble ever since, he claimed.

Frank Curran, who defended two of the prisoners, stated that Stewart had recently been discharged from a military hospital, and asked the court to deal leniently with him.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

----For The----

WESTERN FAIR

Commencing on Monday, Sept. 12, and continuing throughout the entire week, TWICE DAILY, there will be offered what will in all probability be the best program ever seen at London's exhibition. The following are some of the artists. They will all appear at every performance:

THE DUTTONS

A wonderful equestrian act. Their night performance is certainly beautiful. They carry their own spotlight and do their act on the track. They also have a second act with a trained donkey driven by a clown on the track. Lots of fun.

THE INTERNATIONAL NINE

Whirlwind acrobats, in two acts, one on the track.

FOUR BALLIN SISTERS

Lady aerialists—a wonderful act.

THE CROMWELLS
