SCHOOL EXHIBITION

A representation of the various committees of the School Exhibition met on Tuesday evening, March 15, at Dr. Armstrong's office to map out a prize list for the next exhibition.

Some little changes were made in the writing, flower and vegetable lists of last year.

It was decided to include the following outside sections: Carleton's Corner, Clarence West, Centrelea, Tupperville, Chesley, Gesner, Beaconsfield, Belleisle and Hampton.

The prize lists will be out and distributed as soon as possible.

Last year we led the province in the amount of money paid in prizes and had a surplus of $37.95.

We wish to thank those who helped so much to make our exhibition a success, and we hope that we shall have the hearty co-operation of the parents and citizens again this year.

R. E. THURBER.

FARM FOR SALE

The subscriber will sell the Israel Elliott farm, situated in Clarence, one of the best all-round farms in the Annapolis Valley for hay, apples, tillage and pasture. A very excellent wood lot of about thirty acres. A living spring running the whole length of the farm. Cut eighty tons of hay the past season and produced seven hundred barels of apples; in 1911 it produced twelve hundred barrels. A macadamized road crosses the property; is next door to the school house and hall; on the daily rural mail route. One mile from Elliott's siding on the H. & S. W., and three miles from Lawrencetown on the D. A. R. This farm is of light clay loom soil, not stony, easily tilled, and very productive. Like all Clarence farms, it is not affected by late spring or early fall frosts. Apply to

WHITE LEGHORN EGGS FOR HATCHING

GET THE BEST. At the recent Poultry Show, my stock, or stock that I had sold, won eight out of eleven prizes offered. These hens are prolific layers, and while eggs are likely to remain high, there the ones to raise.

My best pen is headed by these High Class Birds. My second pen is headed by a very fine Cockerel of heavy laying stock that won the first egg laying contest ever held in Canada.

Better order early as I will only have a limited number from the best pen. Orders will be filled strictly in the order in which they are received. A number are already booked for April 1st.
