HAMPTON

"Hillside Cottage", the Summer home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bath, at which cosy spot Rev. B. J. and Mrs. Porter and family, of Kentville, and Miss M. D. Robb, of Halifax, have been spending their holidays, was the scene of a very enjoyable afternoon tea party Thursday, Aug. 30th, when the visiting guests assisted by Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Howe, of Kentville, were at home to the occupants of "Hillside Cottage" and their neighboring friends in the village. The spacious lawns surrounding the cottage were decorated with the daintiest of Asters and Sweet Peas, while bright bunting floated over the picturesque scene. Following an enjoyable period of games and music a delicate and bounteous tea was served on the lawn amidst many pleasantries and repartee. The evening was happily spent in games and song and story, concluding with familiar melodies and arias of ye older times. This function at "Hillside" will long linger in the memory of the visiting guests, all of whom pronounce this vacation period one of the most enjoyable ever experienced.

Rev. J. W. Howe and family who with Rev. B. J. Porter and family have been Summerng at Hampton returned to Kentville Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Foster have closed their Summer home at Hampton and have returned to Bridgetown.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Alfred S. Barnes, of New York, was a recent visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alfred Barnes, Upper Granville, and of his sisters, Mrs. Abner D. Troop and Mrs. Geo. W. Foster. Mr. Barnes was a passenger on the "Fall River" boat when during a heavy gale on Wednesday, August 22nd about 11 p.m., the propellor shaft broke and swashed a hole in her side below the water line. Taere were 200 passengers aboard and for a time there was the wildest excitement. The pumps were set going and for nine hours the vessel lay to for repairs. Another vessel in trying to give the injured boat a tow, had her bows smashed through contact and was obliged to give up the attempt. Later with the aid of three tugs the vessel was safely towed into port. Mrs. Barnes returned to New York on Friday, August 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Young and daughter Ruth, of Halifax, spent the week-end in town, the guest of the former's mother, Mrs. E. C. Young, Court St.

Miss Margaret Garde and Miss Mary Garde, of Halifax ,N. S., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Craig.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dalrymple, Valley View Farm, were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Norma and Gordon Barnes, of Maccan; Mrs. T. P. Lowther, of Amherst; Miss Lula Sharpe, of Halifax; Mrs. Dwight Bisbee, of Boston; Rev. F. E. Barrett, of Windsor; Miss Mary Pugsley, Amherst, and Mr. Langille, Annapolis.

Miss Leta Phinney has accepted a position in the store of H. H. Anthony, Lower Granville.
