BURGLARS IN GUELPH.—The burglars, it seems are still busy at work in Guelph.—Last night they paid a visit to the Alma Block, and entered the stores of Messrs. James Messie & Co., and Mr. M. Melholland. On Saturday night the sleeping rooms of Dr. Trotter were made the subject of a visit by some one in search of plunder, but who was forced to leave without accomplishing his object. A few nights ago the residence of Mr. John Howitt, sen., situated about a mile from the town, was also entered, and Mr. Howitt seized by the throat by one of the burglars, and held while the premises were being searched. What booty they obtained we are unable to say.—[Advertiser.

To ROBT. GIBBONS, Esq., and one hundred and eighty-five others, Municipal Electors of the town of Goderich:

Gentlemen,—

Your requisition, so largely and respectably signed, reached me here this morning, and in compliance therewith I beg to say, that although I had resolved to retire altogether from Municipal politics, I cannot refuse to comply with your request, and, therefore, place myself at your disposal. In doing so I assure you that if elected, with regard to all important questions affecting the finances of the town, including that of the Market, I shall be guided entirely in my line of conduct by the voice of a majority of the Municipal Electors of the town.

I am, gentlemen,

With highest respect,

Your obd'nt serv't,
