LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"TRUTH," an excellent publication, issued weekly, in Toronto, has been received.

THE Dominion Parliament is summoned for the dispatch of business on 8th February.

AN article upon Civic affairs, and other matter, have been crowded out of this week's issue.

WE regret to hear that a man named McDonald, belonging to Tracadie, was badly frozen last night on his way home.

MR. AND MRS. COOKE, of Little Rideau, Ont., were murdered, and their three children dangerously wounded, by a man servant last week.

THE annual meeting of the Catholic Literary Union will take place in St. Patrick's Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, Jan. 10, at 8 o'clock.

CAPT. WILSON, of Barrington N. S., who was accidentally shot a short time ago in a hardware store, in Halifax, died on the morning of the 4th inst.

THE truth of the report current a few days ago, that Mr. Hackett, M. P. for Prince County, had resigned his seat in the Commons, is denied by that gentleman.

WE understand that the Bill passed by the Dominion Parliament legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister, has received the sanction of Her Majesty the Queen.

THE funeral obsequies of Gambetta, France's deceased statesman, were held in Paris on Saturday last. The ceremonies were very imposing, and the procession numbered 200,000 persons.

THE classes at the Prince of Wales College and Normal School were reopened yesterday. We are glad to learn that Professor Caven has completely recovered, and resumed his position on the teaching staff.

As will be seen on reference to another column, the popular Superintendent of our Railroad has taken unto himself a partner for life. We congratulate Mr. Archibald upon the event, and wish him and his fair bride all possible happiness.

THE Customs Receipts at Charlottetown for the quarter ended Dec. 31st, were $55,402.19 and the Inland Revenue Receipts, $8,925.34. For the same period the Savings' Bank Deposits were $160,070, and the withdrawals $88,410.76, being an excess of deposits over withdrawals of $70,659.24.

ON New Year's Day several business men of Summerside called upon our confrere, Mr. McKinnon of the Pioneer, and presented him with an address, expressive of their appreciation of his efforts in the journalistic line, and asking his acceptance of a New Year's gift of $88. We congratulate Mr. McKinnon upon his good fortune.

Messrs. G. W. DeBlois, agent for the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, John MacEachern, agent for City of London Fire Insurance Company, and H. Haszard, agent for Western Assurance Company, will please accept our thanks for the very handsome Calendars and Almanacs which they have placed upon our table.

IN a news item which we published in our issue of the 27th ult., we were in error in stating that the Baldwin's Road Schoolhouse had been burned. It was the Clonee or Cardigan Road Schoolhouse which was destroyed, and we are informed that there exists no good grounds for supposing it to have been the work of an incendiary.

A DEPUTATION from the congregation of St. Dunstan's Cathedral waited upon the Rev. Father Corbett on Saturday last, the Feast of the Epiphany, and presented him with a purse containing $175 as a token of their appreciation of his labors. Father Corbett is a diligent and faithful Priest, and is much beloved by his congregation, who have thus given practical demonstration of their attachment to him.

THE nominations for members to serve in the New Brunswick Legislature for the County of Westmorland were held on the 3rd inst. The Government ticket consists of Messrs. Hannington, Landry, Humphrey, and Black. The Opposition, of Messrs. Killam, Anderson, Robinson, and McManus. An impartial contemporary assures us that both tickets are respectable. Mr. Hannington is the Leader of the Local Government, of which Mr. Landry is also a member. In the interest of good government, all other things being equal, as we are assured they are, we confidently trust that the government candidates will be successful.

ST. PATRICK'S T. A. & B. SOCIETY.—The ninth annual meeting of St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society was held in St. Patrick's Hall, on the 7th inst., when the following officers were elected for 1883:—

President—Maurice Blake.
1st Vice-President—Thomas Flynn.
2nd Vice-President—Richard Walsh.
Recording Secretary—John Hagan.
Treasurer—Michael W. Smith.
Trustees—Peter Corkin, Richard Walsh, Michael W. Smith.
Managing Committee—John Bowers, Thos. Doyle, Michael Sweeney, Patrick Kehoe, Thomas Butler.
Janitor and Messenger—John Madigan.

THE Halifax Herald says:—The eloquent and soul-stirring moral sermons preached by the Redemptorist Fathers, both in St. Patrick's and St. Mary's churches, have been listened to with rapt attention by very large and constantly increasing congregations, during the past few weeks. It must be a source of great gratification to the zealous missionaries to notice the earnestness and good will manifested by the people throughout the exercises of the Mission. The good effects and the abundant fruit produced by their discourses will, it is hoped, be a lasting monument to the learning, piety, and holy fervor of these men who devote their lives to the work of salvation of souls.

THE Northern Light has been compelled to go into winter quarters, and the mails are now being forwarded by the old Capes route. On Wednesday last, there was no ice visible between Georgetown and Pictou; on Thursday there were about ten miles of ice of several inches in thickness, which, however, did not delay the steamer. On Friday morning she left Georgetown as usual, although it was blowing a gale from the North-West at the time, and the thermometer several degrees below zero, and on Monday morning she returned to Georgetown, having been unsuccessful in her efforts to reach Pictou Island. Since the Northern Light commenced running this winter, on the 12th December, she has made regular daily return trips.
