Town & Counties

☞ We are glad to see that friends Runciman & Co. took the second prize for wooden ploughs at the late Exhibition.

☞ Mr. Geo. Ard has been appointed postmaster of Bodmin p. o. in place of Mr. Wm. Harris, resigned.

☞ Mr. D. McConnell is about to remove his Marble Cutting establishment from Goderich to Exeter. We wish him prosperity in his new home.

☞ We would direct the attention of our town and country readers to the advertisment of Messrs. Fair & Co. A most excellent stock of Fall and Winter Goods is now being opened out at their establishment.

☞ We have to thank the Rev. A. McKid for a few bunches of the finest grapes we have seen this year. They are of the Isabella variety, and were disposed of as printers say in their advertisments, "with neatness and dispatch."

☞ It is said there is a kind of tobacco, to chew or smoke which makes a man forget he owes a dollar in the world. We suspect a good many of the readers of the Signal have laid in a stock of the article!

☞ Mr. John Morris, of Colborne, has laid upon our table a nice present in the shape of a box containing something less than a peck of very fine grapes, of the Isabella variety. Mr. M. disposed of several bushels of the rich fruit to-day at remunerative prices.—May the shadow of his vines never be less.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The third quarterly examination in S. S. No. 6, township of Goderich, Mr. J. Lawrence, teacher, took place on Friday last, in the presence of the trustess and a number of other visitors. The proceedings were such as to satisfy all present that the school is making good progress.

☞ Mr. H. Fidler, lighthouse-keeper of this town, wishes to state publicly that his wife, who has suffered from deafness for the past 25 years, underwent an operation by Dr. Cameron during his late visit here, the result of which is that she can now hear as well as she could before the commencement of her complaint.

LAW STAMPS.— Most of our readers are aware perhaps, that on and after the 1st of October, all law papers from which the Government derives any fees are to bear stamps representing the amount of such fees. The matter is compulsary and should be carefully attended to by Division Court Clerks and others interested, as set forth in the Act making the change. Ira Lewis, Esq., Co. Attorney, has been appointed Issuer of Stamps for these Counties, and will no doubt take steps to give publicity to the facts stated above.

THE TOWN COUNCIL met on Friday evening last. Present, the Mayor, Dep'ty Reeve and Councillors Horton, Wallace, Cameron, Smith and Longworth. A letter and one or two acs. from the Street Inspector were read and referred, and no other business being before the board, the Council adjourned in time to cut short a promising conversation on the Market Question. Mr. Longworth's formal protest will be found elsewhere.

FALL RACES.

A funny race came off at the Market to-day. A wager of $1 a side was laid that Carson would carry Charley Robertson on his back and beat old Jimmy Andrews in a race from the Market House door to Fitzwilliams' sign post. Accordingly, Charley mounted, and a start was made. But Jimmy, jockey-like, contrived to hold his competitors back until he could get ahead. When Carson had carried his load about ten yards, Charley slipped off and the two trotted quietly at Jimmy's heels. Poor old Jimmy, all unconscious of the trick—he ran to win, and never turned to look at his pursuers. Stewart's corner was turned, and sure of success, Jimmy ran so manfully that he must have covered ground at the rate of a mile an hour, but, alas, the fates were against him, for when within a few yards of the goal he tripped and fell. Just at that moment Charley leaped upon Carson's back again and was carried in triumphantly, winning by a length and a half. The party went back to the starting point, Carson took up the stakes amidst laughter and loud applause, and Jimmy left in a very chopfallen state of mind.

DR. CAMERON,

Who has operated upon many persons in this neighborhood for eye and ear diseases with signal success, induced by special and pressing request, will revisit Goderich on Monday, the 10th prox., and remain at the Maitland Hotel for 13 days. We have already published cases of remarkable cures affected, to which many more might be added. For instance, Mr. Brady, of Ashfield, was operated upon for deafness, and although before it he could not hear the ticking of a watch, he could afterwards hear the least sound at quite a distance. Mr. Paul Johnston of Colborne, was cured of cross-eye in a few moments, as was also Henry Colson, a young man in the employ of Mr. Thos. Andrews, of Goderich. All those who wish to secure the Doctor's services should do so at once as it will be the last opportunity.

The Doctor will be at Pollock's Hotel, Bayfield, on Monday, Oct. 24th, and remain until the 29th.

The Proposed Market Change.

The following protest has been handed in by Mr. Longworth for publication:

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Goderich, in the County of Huron, one of the United Counties of Huron and Bruce:

GENTLEMEN,—You will please take notice that the undersigned do hereby protest against all proceedings taken or to be taken by you, the said Council of the said Town of Goderich, in the matter of removing the Market from its proper site, for the following good reasons and grounds, viz:

1st. The Market place at present in use in the said Town of Goderich was granted in the year 1842 for a Market place and no other purpose, and by diverting or converting the said Market place to any other use than that of a Market place the agents or commissioners of the Canada Company would have a perfect right in law and in equity, to assume possession of the same, unless you, the Corporation, first obtain an Act of the Legislature for disposing of and removing from the Market place, now in the use and occupation of the said Town of Goderich.

2nd. Because the removing or changing the said Market is unnecessary and uncalled for by the inhabitants of the said Town of Goderich, as the accommodation in the Market at present in use is more than equal to the demands of the trade and calling of the said Town of Goderich, and is only a plan of a few interested parties, who wish to enhance the value of some property which they hold within the vicinity of, and in East street and Kingston street.

3rd. Because these parties never taking into consideration, they would leave the Corporation of the town of Goderich liable for the removal of the said Market off and from the present site to all the parties who, within the last twenty-five years, purchased property and made large investments in improving and fitting the same for business thereon, such as is, or may be required, in all such public places.

JOHN LONGWORTH.

Goderich, 3rd October, 1864.

A subscriber who resides in Minnesota has kindly sent us a copy of a little work written by Mrs. Hebbick a great sufferer in the Indian War of 1863. The story is well told, and is of the most awfully thrilling description. Mrs. H. is the mother of the little hero of 11, who carried his baby brother of fifteen months old fifty miles.

☞ The Provincial Exhibition will be held in the City of London next year. The Fair just concluded at Hamilton was one of the most successful ever held in the Province.

CARS WANTED.—A correspondent writing from Seaforth to the Globe, complains bitterly of the want of cars. Thousands of bushels of grain await shipment, and a single car has not been sent on since the 15th of last month. Our Goderich buyers make the same complaint. Just what we told you, gentlemen!

☞ A Chicago rowdy insulted a circus door-keeper lately, because he wouldn't sell him tickets at the door. The circus man demanded an apology, and not getting one shot the fellow dead.

☞ In a tract distributed by the Mormon preachers the following question and answer occurs: "What shall be the reward of those who have forsaken their wives for righteousness sake? A hundred fold of wives here, and wives everlasting hereafter!" Too much reward, that.
