Diseases of the Skin.

Most diseases of the skin arise from bad blood and lack of cleanliness, except when caused by grubs or insects. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Pimples and all Humors of the blood are curable by Burdock Blood Bitters, which purifies the blood.

Vital Questions!!

Ask the most eminent physician

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly

"Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women—"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu."

Ask the same physician

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c." and they will tell you:

Mrs. M. A. Nagle is a widow lady who resides on South and Tennessee sts.; in South Memphis. Near her lives Mrs. Chas. Knell, the wife of an industrious Swede, now with the Memphis and Kansas City R. Mr. Knell said he had in his pocket a rabbit-foot he had cut in Kansas, and it would bring luck if he was allowed to buy the tickets They gave him 50c. each, and he purchased a one-tenth ticket, and nailed the rabbit's foot to the wall and wrote the number of the ticket, which was 69,255, and it drew one-tenth of the Capital Prize of $150,000. *Memphis (Tenn.) Mr. Blake on Canadian Affairs.

At the city of London, Ont., on Thursday last, one of the greatest political demonstrations ever held in Canada came off. It was held in the Princess roller rink, which is capable of seating between 800 and 1000 people at table, but its capacity was greatly overtaxed by the immense crowds who kept pouring in long after the building appeared to be filled, the gathering straining to the utmost the excellent arrangements which were made by the committee who were in charge of the demonstration. The building was literally packed from end to end and for want of room. The Toronto Globe says,—The attendance during the evening must have been fully 4,000, and it included a large number of ladies. The chair was occupied by Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, President of the London Reform Association. To the right of the chairman were Hon. Edward Blake, the guest of the evening, Hon. Mr. Mowat, Hon. T. B. Pardee, and Hon. A. M. Ross. To his left were Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. David Mills, and Rev. Dr. Ryckman. The banquet, which was conducted on strictly temperance principles, began shortly after six o'clock and lasted till eight.

At eight o'clock the chairman, after calling the meeting to order, read a telegram from Brandon on behalf of the Manitoba Western Liberals, expressing confidence in the Opposition, and anticipating the early triumph of sound Liberal principles; also a telegram from the Halifax Young Men's Liberal Club, uniting in the greeting to Mr. Blake and wishing him God-speed in leading the Liberal party to victory, and rescuing the Dominion from the clutches of a Government based on fraud, corruption and oppression. Letters of regret for non-attendance were read from Hon. Alex. Mackenzie and Hon. C. F. Fraser. After the usual loyal and patriotic toasts were duly honoured, Colonel A. M. Ross delivered an eloquent speech in response to the "Army, Navy and Volunteers." The toast of "The Senate and House of Commons" was responded to by Senator Leonard and Sir Richard Cartwright. The next toast was that of the guest of the evening, the

HON. EDWARD BLAKE.

Mr. Blake was received with a tremendous ovation, the vast audience rising to their feet, cheering and waving handkerchiefs for several minutes. This ovation was renewed when he began to speak.

Mr. Blake said:—I thank you, from the bottom of my heart I thank you, for the warmth and cordiality of your reception. I know it to be far beyond any poor deserts of mine; but it is another and most marked expression of that continuous, abiding and unbounded kindness and confidence which has been showered on me by the Liberal party for these many years, and specially during those dark and trying times which have passed since I took the lead. Will you allow me to use this, my earliest opportunity, to congratulate the Liberals of Ontario on the activity they are now displaying, and particularly to express my joy at the energetic conduct and successful organization of the Young Liberals—(cheers)—and my grateful thanks for the honour done me by my election to the Honorary Presidency of their great Convention—a gathering from which I anticipate the best results. (Cheers.) I declare, Sir, that it would be as impossible for my friends and supporters in and out of Parliament to surpass, as it is for me to repay, their goodness. It has cheered and sustained me through many gloomy and some stormy hours, and I can never forget it while I live.—(Cheers.)

LEADERSHIP OF THE PARTY.

You know, gentlemen—I have never concealed it from you—that it was with reluctance I accepted the lead. High and honorable as is that post, I never coveted it; it suits me in no one of its relations to my life; I am deeply conscious how inadequately I fill it, and I grow each year more anxious to be allowed to return to the ranks. I am told by some Ministerial organs, who, of course, have very confidential relations with the Opposition—(laughter) that my wishes are seconded by a considerable number of our friends. (Laughter.) I am glad to know it, and I wish that our community of sentiment in this matter might lead that contingent so far to confide in me as to allow us to concert measures to accomplish our common end. If they would accept me as their leader for this purpose only, perhaps we might, so united, make more progress than we have done hitherto. (Laughter.) I am not in the habit of offering myself for position, but I make an exception in their favour, and shall expect their reply. (Laughter.) Meantime, as this is a question not of measures but of men, they and I as good party men must try and subordinate our views for the moment to those of the majority, in the hope that by continuous pressure we may convert them in good time to our opinions. To be serious, gentlemen, I trust that at no distant day you will relieve me; and meantime I will do my best, so far as health, strength, and abilities allow, to serve you in the place you impose upon me. (Tremendous cheering.)

PROMISES AND PERFORMANCES.

During the last few years many great struggles have taken place, and the opposing parties have developed their views on various important public questions. Let me run rapidly over the roll, and recall to you some of these issues, so that you may judge of the claims of each side to public confidence and support. Try the Government, as I have often told you, by their promises and their performances. There can be no fairer test. Let us look at

THE FISCAL AND FINANCIAL POLICY.

They declared Mr. Mackenzie's expenditure too high, and promised to reduce it. They have increased it about fifty per cent.

They declared his taxation burdensome, and promised not to raise it. They have raised it about fifty per cent.

They condemned his taxation as unequal, and promised to readjust it. They have redressed the inequality by imposing great sectional taxes, enormous burdens on prime necessaries of life, and a rate of duty on important staples used by the poor about twice as high as that laid on the rich.
