ONLY COPIES TO BE PRODUCED

Demand for Original Documents By the Opposition Refused By Government.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—Practically the entire session of the House today was occupied with a discussion on the question of whether members of the Opposition are entitled to have original documents in possession of the Government placed on the table, instead of copies.

The discussion arose on a motion by Mr. Ames to have the original applications and tenders relating to certain timber limits produced. Mr. Ames obtained copies of the documents in question last session, but declared that he was not satisfied with the information furnished, and desired to have access to the papers themselves.

The Government took the position that Mr. Ames' claim was contrary to parliamentary rules and practice, and without precedent, and after a pretty general debate the motion, in a small House, was defeated by 86 to 51.

$4,000,000 GALLERY GOES TO LOUVRE

Paris, Jan. 14.—M. Grout, the owner of one of the finest art collections in the world, died last night. The pictures in his gallery, which are valued at $4,000,000, include masterpieces by Turner, Constable and Gainesborough, and almost priceless examples of the French painters of the eighteenth century, such as Watteau.

There is much speculation as to the fate of the collection, but it is stated that the bulk of it has been bequeathed to the Louvre.

CANDIDATE IS IN JAIL

Man Named for Buckingham Council Is Serving Sentence.

Ottawa, Jan. 13. — Jean Baptise Clement, of Buckingham, one of the six men serving a term in Hull jail in connection with the Buckingham riots has been nominated as a councilor for that town. Clement still has 10 days of his sentence to serve. It is doubted that if elected he could legally take his seat in the council.

The cities and towns act, passed in Quebec in 1903, prohibits any person once convicted of an offense punishable by more than three years' imprisonment, from membership in the council of any city or town in the Province of Quebec. Clement was sentenced to two months' imprisonment only, but the charge of which he was convicted was rioting, which is punishable by seven years. It is a debatable question whether the act applies to municipalities incorporated before 1903, in which case Clement could be a member of the Buckingham council.

150,000 SPINNERS MAY GO ON STRIKE

Manchester, Jan. 14.—All efforts at intervention to bring about a settlement of the dispute between the cotton mill owners and their employes, which threatens to result in the locking out of 150,000 men, have come to naught.

The operatives, at a meeting last night, decided to break off all further negotiations with the master spinners, and a lockout now appears inevitable.

EMMERSON CASE HAS BEEN DISMISSED

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 13.—In circuit court here today James H. Crockett appeared with J. Douglas Hazen, K.C., and Mayor McLeod and counsel, prepared to go on with the case of the King on information of Henry R. Emmerson vs. James H. Crockett. As nobody was present to represent the crown or Emmerson, Hazen made application to have the case dismissed. Judge McLeod asked if the crown had been notified that application would be made, and Hazen said he notified Solicitor-General Jones on Saturday and yesterday. His honor then dismissed the case.
