Note and Comment

That a Canadian owner can take down the most money is again proven by the statistics of the Windsor meeting. The Windsor Racing Association's autumn meeting, which opened October 12 and closed October 23, embraced eleven racing days, during which time 68 races were decided. The total distribution in purses amounted to $29,775, in which 77 owners shared, 38 winning $300 or more each. The St. James Stable, owned by Mr. Wheatcroft of British Columbia, heads the list, with $1885. P. T. Chinn is second, with $1840, and third place falls to J. Burttschell, with $1420. Red Walker had $1005, Rod Mackenzie $900, A. J. Small $660 and J. E. Seagram only $440.

J. Howard was the most successful rider, with 16 winners and a percentage of .29, the total amount of money he won for the various owners for whom he rode being $5,960. Howard was followed by Davenport, J. Wilson, Ganz, Hammond and Musgrave. The percentage of winning favorites was .27.

The intermediate soccer championship of Ontario will be settled to-day by Brussels and Havelock at the latter place, whither Brussels goes with the lead of a goal, which was the only point scored in their last game at Brussels two weeks ago.

Kid Fleming, who is winning professional fights in the east, is a product of these parts. The other night at Plattsburg, N.Y., he stopped Young Otto of Glens Falls in three rounds of a 10-round bout. The local paper said it was a treat that those who failed to attend would have enjoyed, the treat being provided by Fleming, whose cleverness and science were fine.

Besides being a clever, plucky little fighter, according to the writer, Fleming is a well educated, gentlemanly fellow, who leads a clean life and is a companionable, pleasant acquaintance. Fleming is but 19 and with proper training there is no reason why he does not stand a good chance to hold the national championship at 116 pounds.

The subject of the sketch is Frank or Frenchy Fleming, son of James Fleming. He was born in the little house, now demolished, south of the Toronto lacrosse grounds, and was formerly a student at St. Michael's College.

Tommy Burns, erstwhile heavyweight champion, and quite as much in the limelight in Australia since being knocked out by Jack Johnson as before that eventful occasion, has blossomed out as a running-horse owner. Altho his start in that direction is a rather modest one, says a Sydney cablegram, he asserts that before long he will have a more pretentious stable, and that his own colors will be seen upon several of the more prominent tracks.

Burns made his initial purchase during a trip thru New Zealand. The first runner to sport the T. Burns colors is a two-year-old filly, selected in Auckland by Pat O'Keefe, whom Burns regards as as good a horseman as he is a sparring partner. The filly has been registered as Julia B., Tommy paying his better half a neat and not undeserved compliment in the naming of the animal.

Christy Mathewson and Fred Tenney of the Giants have a neat little trick they work to prevent the hit and run or to head off an aspiring base stealer.

With a man on first, Mathewson suddenly whips the ball to Tenney, who pays no attention to the runner, who slides back to the base to avoid being caught. Instead, Tenney returns the ball to "Big Six" at such an angle that Christy, catching it as he stands with his heel on the pitcher's plate, gives with the ball, and without the loss of a second brings his mighty right arm forward and delivers the ball to the batter.

The effect is that the runner is close to the base, while the batter, unless particularly wide awake, is caught napping.

The success of the scheme depends entirely upon the accuracy of Tenney's return throw. As soon as Mathewson throws the ball he returns to his position on the hill, gets the ball on his right side, and his swing, as he gives with the ball, is so natural that he is able to deliver it to the plate like lightning.

Just to show how far they carry things in the majors, it might be mentioned that Tenney and Mathewson practiced this stunt for a month before springing it in a game.

The Parkdale Handicap, the first dog race of the Canadian Whippet Racing Club, is creating a great deal of interest amongst the sporting public. A local bookie offered these prices on the event:

Prince Albert, 2 to 1 and even.

For the Man Who Cares.

There is a world of difference now-a-days in clothing values, for while a man can buy a suiting and have it made up for him at almost any price he has a mind to name, when he comes to scrutinize the cloths and note the style and the workmanship in even some of the higher priced lines he will find it hard to figure out a good money's worth, but say! with the trend of prices downward and a demand for quality upward, a man will find those genuine Irish Serge Suitings—guaranteed indigo dyed—which R. Score & Son, the West King-street high-class tailors, are making at Twenty-Five Dollars, to be the clothing surprise of the season.

JOHNSON AND JEFFRIES ARE BOTH IN NEW YORK

Make Arrangements to Talk It Over at 3 o'Clock This Afternoon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—It will be known to-morrow just when and where John Johnson and James J. Jeffries fight for the heavyweight championship of the world. By mutual agreement there will be a meeting between the rival pugilists and their representatives at the Hotel Albany at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of talking over the important details of the proposed match, arranging a date and place for the proposed battle for signing articles, posting forfeits and clinching the match.

Johnson, accompanied by his manager, George Little, arrived in town to-day from Chicago. The negro said that he came here for the express purpose of seeing Jeffries and ascertaining what the latter intended to do regarding a fight.

When Jeffries was informed that Johnson was prepared to talk shop at once Jeffries said: "I am not in the habit of rushing things. If Johnson wants to do business he must wait. To-morrow will do. There are lots of minor points to be considered and I must have time to think the mover."

Little said that he was satisfied to wait and guessed that Johnson was too. So the meeting was postponed until to-morrow.

That the fight will not be held until some time next spring is a foregone conclusion, as Jeffries expressed himself as not being prepared to battle until then.

Johnson's arrival was not attended by as great a crowd as upon his return to New York after he defeated Tommy Burns in Australia. He came on the Twentieth Century Limited, which reached the Grand Central station on time. The negro was greeted by about 5000 persons.

Johnson grinned from ear to ear as the crowd gathered around and shook him by the hand and asked him about the fight with Jeffries.

"I hope to meet Jeffries at once, the sooner the better," said Johnson. "I never felt bette rexcept the boil on my cheek bothers me some. I weigh about 206 pounds. How did I get that boil? I guess I have been living too high."

Speaking of the coming match with Jeffries, Johnson displayed an evident desire to have the articles signed right away and the whole negotiations for the contest concluded.

"I am ready to abide by the conditions that I entered into with Berger in Chicoga, except that I shall ask for a winner's and loser's division of the purse."

Johnson was dressed in rather quiet fashion, except for a large sparkling gem in his necktie.

"We have cancelled five weeks of theatrical engagements," said Little, "to come here and fix up this fight. I have left a note for Berger, saying that Johnson and I will remain at our hotel all day to make this match.

"As to the $5000 which I put up some time ago as a guarantee that Johnson would fight, I am willing to bet even money that Johnson wins and further, I will wager $20,000 more at the prevailing ringside odds that Jeffries is defeated.

"There won't be any delays or sparring for time in getting down to cases," said Johnson, speaking of to-morrow's meeting with Jeffries. "I am ready to consent to any fair and square proposition. Jeffries won't be allowed to do the dictating. I am the champion and when it comes to that end of it I am going to show my hand."

Johnson said that he weighs about 210 stripped. Johnson had words of praise for Ketchel and said if he possessed a little more weight he might have given him some trouble. He denied that he had deliberately fallen to the floor in that fight for the purpose of bringing about a sensational finish to the mill.

Burns Put One Over on Johnson.

Tommy Burns once whipped over a neat one on Johnson. This was shortly after the twenty-round draw with Jack O'Brien, and the men met in McCarey's office at Los Angeles to talk over the business arrangements for the second fight. Jack Johnson, on his way to Australia, dropped off the train to see old friends, and incidentally try to talk McCarey into giving him a pork and beans match. Los Angeles has been closed to Johnson for some years; he was a persona non grata with the fight fans. (Hey? Oh, that's Latin for "in Dutch.")

In the private office were McCarey, O'Brien and Burns, and they were talking money and gold belts and other nonsense. In the outer office was Mistah Johnson, sitting on a sofa and looking at his feet. He was a very humble Senegambian. Anybody could walk right up and talk to him.

Tommy Burns, always foxy in a certain slow-witted way, wished to make a dash before the newspaper men present, so he went to McCarey.

"You wouldn't give Johnson another fight in this town, would you, Tom?"

"No, indeedy!" said McCarey.

"Never?" asked Burns.

"I should say not!" said McCarey. "That's ab-so-lute!"

"All right," said Burns. "Remember that."

As soon as O'Brien and Burns came out of the inner room, Johnson pounced on them. He was going to make them declare themselves, he said.

"I want to fight the winner of this battle," said Johnson. "How about you, Mist' O'Brien?"

O'Brien ducked and sidestepped. He didn't think the fight would draw any money, etc.

"And you, Mist' Burns?" asked Johnson.

"If I win I'll fight you," said Burns.

Johnson leaped over and offered his hand.

"You heard him say it, gentlemen!" said he, delightedly. "Mist' Burns, I alus knew you was game. Why can't we make some arrangements now?"

"I don't want any arrangements," said Tommy, slowly. "The only thing I ask is that Tom McCarey shall have the match."

Johnson's jaw fell, and he looked over at the fight promoter. McCarey shook his head.

Is it any wonder that Johnson should enjoy his season as dictator?

Sporting Notes.

A series of races will be run at the Exhibition Park on Nov. 1 between the Prince George Hotel and the Queen's Hotel for a challenge shield.

Catcher George Gibson of the Pittsburg Pirates has signed a two-year contract.

Jack Johnson came away from San Francisco on Friday night, forfeiting his bail bond of $100, which he had put up for auto speeding and also leaving behind his automobile, which had been attached by the sheriff's office on an order from Sam Fitzpatrick, the former manager of the colored fighter, who claims that Johnson still owes him $150 for services rendered him in his recent battle with Stanley Ketchel.

RUGBY NEWS AND GOSSIP

Junior School Defeat Junior Meds 16 to 1.

Argonauts have lost two games this year to costly fumbles by the back division and with this in mind the halves have been working hard this week practising catching punts, they all being out yesterday afternoon from 1 to 2 and again last night, when the team held a good two hours' workout. The scullers are in excellent shape for their game with Ottawa to-morrow at Rosedale and feel sure they can get out of the maiden class by taking Clancy's men into camp. The game last week at Ottawa saw things break bad for the Argos and even Coach Clancy of the Rough Riders was asking for an explanation after the game as to how Ottawa managed to pull out a victory.

Ottawa leave to-night and will arrive to-morrow morning, bringing with them their strongest team with the possible exception of Jack Williams, who has not yet recovered from his injuries. The game starts at 2.30, while the reserve plan will remain on sale at 189 Yonge-street till noon to-morrow.

Who will win to-morrow, T.A.A.C. or Parkdale? is the talk in the west end these days and from this distance it looks like an even toss, as both teams are evenly balanced. Anyway it is going to be the best game in the O.R.F.U. since the game between Hamilton and Argos three years ago. T.A.A.C. have no less than three McMaster men on their team in First-brook, McCrimmon and Veal, the latter a big wing man of 195 lbs., and considered the best wing player on the McMaster team this year. Parkdale have also several changes from the last time they met T.A.A.C., but are not giving out the names of the dark horses. Special police protection will be provided to keep the crowd in check and none but players and officials will be allowed on the field. The game starts at 2.30.

In the Mulock Cup series yesterday, Junior School defeated Junior Meds by the score of 16 to 1, the score by quarters being 5 to 1, 9 to 1, 14 to 1 and 16 to 1. It was a very poorly played game.

Harvey Pulford will be the referee in the Ottawa College-Varsity game at Ottawa to-morrow, but the umpire has not been selected yet.

Green of the Argonaut half-back division is playing great ball. He knows the game from A to Z and should play a great game to-morrow at Rosedale against Ottawa.

Parkdale will hold their final practice to-night at Diamond Park at 7.30 for their game with T.A.A.C. to-morrow.

The Model School team met their first defeat of the season yesterday in an interesting game with the Invader Midgets. The score was 11 to 6.

Ottawa have been trying Stuart Christie out at centre half and he may play that position to-morrow against Argos at Rosedale. Charlie McGee, who has been out of the game for six years, has turned out to practice again.

Before the T.A.A.C.-Parkdale game to-morrow at Diamond Park, Central Y.M.C.A. and Parkdale team will play a junior O.R.F.U. game. The game starts at 1.45.

Quite a few Hamilton enthusiasts are coming down for the Ottawa-Argonaut game to-morrow at Rosedale.

Their is hardly any chance that Davey Tope will turn out with the Tigers this year.

Hamilton Tigers leave this morning for Montreal, where they play to-morrow.

Against Varsity to-morrow Ottawa College will play Jim Kennedy of the seconds at quarter.

"Wait till we beat the Argos then we'll give some attention to the Tigers," remarked Coach Clancy of the Ottawas when asked last night about the chances of the Ottawa team at Hamilton.—Ottawa Citizen.

Montreal Herald: If it were only the same in lacrosse now! Montreal and Tigers are playing a Rugby game on the result of which—for one side at any rate—a chance of a championship depends—and yet the two clubs are perfectly willing to take one of the members from each side and use them as officials. Just fancy Shamrocks and Montreal doing a thing like that.

Soccer Notes.

In the first game of the senior inter-faculty series the city teachers and senior arts played a scoreless tie on Varsity field.

Bonar football team will meet the Garrets in a Toronto and District League game next Saturday on the west side of Dovercourt Park. Kick off at 3.15 p.m. The following players are requested to be on hand early: McCoskery, Hannah, Marshall, Fred Wilding, Salmon, Lang, Ingram, Gardner, Copping, Carter, Campbellton, Wright, Gray, Skeeles, Wm. Wilding and Fife.

The Pioneers will play Davenport Albions on the latter's ground, Pacific-avenue, West Toronto, kick off at 3.30, and will be represented by the following: Maycock, Fisher, Watsham, Bruton, Harris (capt.), Ruddick, Watsham, Faulkner, Davey, Mortimer, Mackay. Reserves—Cowlesham, Cruikshank, Williams.

The team to represent Moore Park against "Don Valley" at Moore Park on Saturday next, kick-off 3 o'clock, will be as follows: Gaw; goal: Wallington and Locke, backs: Brown, Thom, Dickson, halves; White, Watson, Galbraith, Oakdue, Lamb, forwards; Patterson, Brooks and Kennedy, reserves. A Moore Park representative will meet the Dons and referee at C.P.R. crossing, Yonge-street, at 2.45 and conduct them to the grounds.

HARNESS HORSE GOSSIP

Star Direct, ,208¾, by George Star, out of Sassafras, and valued at $2500, is dead. Star Direct had just closed a successful season on the Michigan Circuit by finishing inside the money in everyone of his 12 starts. He took his mark of 2.08¾ when he badly upset the talent at Detroit in winning the 2.10 pace in straight heats.

That crack Canadian pacer, The Eel, by Gambolier, has only lost two races on the Grand Circuit this season. At Columbus he was beaten by Aileen Wilson in 2.06½ and 2.04¾, and at Lexington by Lady Maud C. in 2.05½ and 2.05, while in winning races this year The Eel paced in 2.03 and 2.02¾ at Kalamazoo, 2.04¼, 2.04 at Buffalo, 2.06¼, 2.03¾ at Hartford; won a heat at Columbus in 2.02 and one at Lexington in 2.05.

Only one pacer, W. A., by Blanaloo, dam unknown, reduced his record during the second week at Lexington. He started in the 2.18 class and went in 2.10 flat. Not a single trotter got a new mark.

During the two weeks' racing at Lexington several world's records were broken and two marks were established. Native Belle, by Moka, dam Yellow Belle, a 2-year-old trotter, went a heat in 2.07¾, equaling the world's pacing record for the same age, made by Directly in 1894, beating by three seconds the previous trotting time record for the division, 2.10¾, and 4½ seconds faster than the race record for the age, held by Trampfast, 2.12¾. The fastest previous against time record, 2.10¾, was held by Arion, b.c., by Electioneer, and was made at Stockton, Cal., Nov. 10, 1891.

Maggie Winder, a 3-year-old pacer, by Oratorio, dam Clara Direct, the property of Jacob Winder, of Bristol, Pa., paced to a new world's record that age of 2.06¼, reducing her own record of 2.06½, made at Indianapolis this season, when she beat the previous world's record, her own, 2.08¼, made at Lexington a few weeks previously. Her 2.06¼ mile reduced the world's record of 2.09 held by Brenda Yorke, by Moko, for two years.

Penisa Maid, by Pennant, set a new three heat record for the Transylvania with a 2.04¼. The former mark of 2.04½ was made by Sweet Marie in 1904.

The 3-year-old Kentucky Futurity race record for trotters was cut from 2.08¾, made by The Harvester in 1908, to 2.08¼, third heat, by Baroness Virginia, r.f., by Baron Review.

Drivers who got the money at Lexington were: Murphy, $20,100; Cox, $5880; Geers, $4850; Shutt, $4690; L. McDonald, $4500; Dickerson, $4100; Mallow, $3500; McMahon, $3050; Snow, $2190; Nolan, $2000; Hodges, $1750; B. Shaw, $1550; Haax, $1500; Francis, $1500; Willis, $1240; H. Jones, $1200; Chandler, $1150; Macey, $1150; Turner, $900; McEwen, $850; Gahaghan, $750; Nichols, $750; M. Sanders, $600; McCarthy, $550; Rinuey, $500; Serrill, $500; A. McDonald, $500; Floyd, $5; Dean, $500; Allbin, $500; Ross, $500; Kinser, $300; B. Walker, $200; Wright, $250; Falls, $750; Jackson, $250; Ludwig, $250; Horine, $200; Jamison, $200; E. Berryon, $200; T. Stuart, $150; Patterman, $150; Croop, $150; Jackman, $150; Bowsweeney, $100; Grist, $100.

IOWA SUFFRAGISTS FAVOR TACTICS OF OBSTRUCTION.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 28.—Stirred to actio by ferry speeches by more aggressive members, the Iowa Equal Suffrage Association to-day adopted a resolution favoring the militant methods adopted by the suffragets of England. The word "Obstructive" was substituted for "Militant."

BOWLING SCORES

The Stanleys, rolling against the Mineralites in a Toronto Bowling Club League series last night, put up a record for this season by totaling 1041 pins in their second game, or only 27 pins down on the city record, rolled by the Iroquois two seasons ago. However, the Stanleys' record of last night was remarkable, considering the calibre of the team, no particular star being on the line-up, but still a bunch of speed artists who are liable to break up a game any time. Altho losing two out of the three games the Mineralites produced the star performer of the evening. Tom Bird, the manager and captain of the Mineralites, was the high roller with 629, and also high single with a 235 count in his last game. For the Stanleys "Tom" Stegman, better known as the "Wild Bill" Donovan of the alleys, was there with his hook, having perfect control, and as a consequence the pins took the count for a 579 total. Joe Papineau was also there with bells on, getting a 223 count in the record game. The scores:
