BLACKMAILERS AT MONTREAL

Italians Demand Money From Fellow Countrymen and Fight Follows.

Montreal, Nov. 11.—As a result of a row tonight between Italians several men are arrested and two are lying dangerously wounded in the hospital. The fight occurred on St. Paul street, in what used to be the old Quebec Hotel. Three men entered a room in the hotel and demanded money from some fellow-countrymen. They refused and a fight ensued in which knives, revolvers and an axe played a part. The two men who are most seriously hurt are the men who demanded the money. One of the wounded men is expected to die. The police had a hard time trying to straighten out the tangle of names from the excited Italians, but finally succeeded in clearing the house and getting the injured to the hospital for treatment. The place where the fight occurred was a sort of boardinghouse, and it is the opinion that a deliberate hold-up by a Black Hand Society for money was attempted. There was apparently no drinking going on, and the way knives and other weapons were used showed the desperate character of the affair.
