Rev. D. J Gallagher.

Rev. D. J. Gallagher, of Silver Falls, announcement of whose death was made Monday morning, had been ill for quite a long time with typhoid fever, and for some time it was feared he could not recover. He was 31 years of age and was the son of Mr. Chas. E. Gallager, of Johnville. He was educated at Memramcook and at Quebec and Montreal seminaries. He was ordained to the priesthood at Christmas, 1894, and has been pastor at Silver Falls for some little time. He also has been stationed as curate to Rev. E. Doyle at Milltown. He was greatly esteemed and the progress of his illness has been watched with great anxiety by very many friends. He leaves father and mother and five brothers and two sisters. Mr. Gallagher and one of his sisters were with him when he died. His remains will be taken to Johnville this morning for interment.

Supreme Court of Canada.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28—The supreme court today concluded the hearing of the Ontario appeals and adjourned until Monday, November 6, when the maritime list will be taken up. The list contains only four cases, two being from New Brunswick, Jones vs. St. John, and Hesse vs. St. John Railway Co.

The female brain commences to decline in weight after the age of 30, the male not till ten years later.

Overcoats and Reefers

—FOR THE—

Rising Generation.

Bring along the children and let them romp around our Juvenile department. We will be pleased to see them and sure to satisfy their wants in the Clothing line.

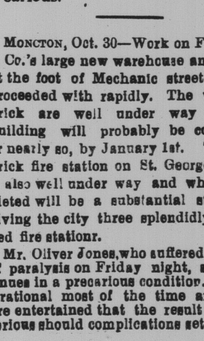
Fall is here and winter is fast approaching. We have the best and largest stock in Canada of children's Overcoats and Reefers. A locomotive doesn't have to whistle all the time to make its presence known. Neither is it necessary for us to constantly scream about good goods at a cheap price, though we have them all the time. One visit to our establishment will convince you that we are stating facts only. Every article is sold with a guarantee.

Boys' Overcoats,

The overcoats we offer are exactly the same as those made for men. The only difference is in the size. The construction, finish and style are similar to the men's garment. The coat comes in several shades of Fawn. It is made from the famous English Whipcord Cloth, single-breasted, proper length, strapped seams, silk lining, fly front. This garment can be worn in fall, winter or spring and will last for years. The quality and price will convince you,

$4, $5, $6.

Boys' Reefers.



The boy without a reefer envys his school-mate who wears one. We have them here for all ages, 4 to 15 years, all kinds of cloth, with storm collar, handwarmers, etc.

There are many lines of Fancy Mixtures, besides Canadian Frieze, Blue Nap, Serge, Curly Cloths, Blue and Black Beavers. The garments we show are an unexcelled lot. Most every purse will find a handsome coat to fit the boys. The prices at which they are offered have never before been approached in St. John. A splendid reefer, with large storm collar, good, warm and well made, for boys 4 to 15 years,

$1.50.

Prices for other reefers runs from $1.50 to $6.

Mail orders receive prompt and careful attention. You can buy goods just as well at your own home as if you were in our store. Anything you may order will be shipped to you direct as if it were passed to you over the counter.

MONEY BACK IF YOU WANT IT.

ANOTHER AFRICAN FIGHT.

Belgian Exploring Expedition Beats Off the Natives

LONDON, Oct. 30—Mail advices from the Congo announce that Capt. Mohun, formerly United States consul at Zanzibar, who is commanding the Belgian Tanganyika Congo Telegraph expedition has reached the Congo free state and was engaged at the end of July in a fierce battle at Tanguili, where the force consisted of ten Europeans with Captain Mohun commanding.

Shortly after the attack commenced Baon Dhamis, the Belgian commander, despatched three companies of soldiers to assist Mohun, and the enemy, consisting of cannibals, who horribly tortured their wounded, were finally routed. Captain Mohun did great execution with a Winchester repeater. It is estimated that the enemy numbered 1,500 men and lost 300 killed and 600 wounded. The Belgian force lost 10 men killed and 45 wounded.

MONCTON NEWS.

The Reid Warehouse and the Fire Station Nearing Completion—Condition of Oliver Jones Still Precarious.

MONCTON, Oct. 30—Work on F. P. Reid & Co.'s large new warehouse and offices at the foot of Mechanic street is being proceeded with rapidly. The walls of brick are well under way and the building will probably be completed or nearly so, by January 1st. The new brick fire station on St. George street is also well under way and when completed will be a substantial structure, giving the city three splendidly equipped fire stationr.

Mr. Oliver Jones, who suffered a stroke of paralysis on Friday night, still continues in a precarious condition. He is irrational most of the time and fears are entertained that the result may be serious should complications set in.
