LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

JOHN McLEAN, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa Friday evening, and left for Souris the following day.

REV. J. P. McGRATH preached his first sermon in this city, in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, on Sunday. Father McGrath's discourse was an able effort, and judging by it we expect soon to see him take his place among the foremost of our preachers.

A 300-yard foot race between Daniel McDonald and James McEachern, for $10 a side, was run at the Driving Park, Monday evening. Mr. D. J. McDonald, of the Post Office Department, acted as starter, and Mr. A. N. Large as timer. McDonald took the lead at the start and won by about 5 yards in 37¾ seconds.

A Lady base-ball team is to tour the Provinces, visiting St. John, Moncton, Fredericton and Halifax. A five club league; called the Young Ladies American base ball league, representing New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati and Chicago, is now on the road; and it is representatives of the last named city who are to star the Provinces.

AN Ottawa despatch says: All the returns for the census are now in and the statistician and his staff are busy in making their preliminary calculation. The result of the census must by law be communicated directly to parliament. This will, it is expected, be done some time this week. Then the total population of the Dominion will be known and it is probable that the growth of the cities will also be announced. Both are understood to be satisfactory.

ONE morning last week a small boiler in the Hill City oil mill, at Vicksburg, Mass., exploded, fatally injuring the engineer and fireman. The boiler which weighed 2000 pounds, flew into the air and fell into the house of Max Lowenburg, 300 feet away, going through the roof, floor and ceiling, and landed on his breakfast table. No one there was hurt, the family having left the table when they heard the report caused by the explosion.

CAPT. ANDREWS and his little boat "Mermaid" have been heard from on July 24th. The captain was alive and sanguine that he would reach England in safety, although he had been out from Boston 30 days and was still over 2,000 miles from his destination. The "Sea Serpent," Capt. Lawler, the "Mermaid's" opponent in the race across the Atlantic, has also been reported, having been spoken by the steamer Damara on July 18th. When spoken, the "Sea Serpent" was 55 miles west of the Scilly Islands.

DENIS QUIGLEY, an inmate of St. Joseph's Hospital at Patterson, N. J., has fasted 60 days. He was undergoing treatment for spinal and stomach trouble. He could not digest food, and his sense of taste was almost destroyed. His condition did not improve, and he concluded to try fasting. After passing the 60th day without taking nourishment, save an occasional cup of tea or a glass of water, he was able to eat a hearty meal. He now claims to enjoy better health than for many months.

THURSDAY afternooon the five-year-old son of Mr. James Morgan, of Southport, was playing in a field adjoining his home, in which a horse was at the time grazing, and out of playfulness he began striking the animal about the hind legs. The horse resented such fun, and letting drive struck the boy on the face, fracturing his nose and doing other injury. Medical aid was summoned, and the wounds dressed; but the little fellow died on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

A special from New Orleans says the registration in Mississippi shows that the provision in the new constitution of that state in regard to prepayment of poll taxes has had the effect expected, namely, the diminution of the negro vote. More than three-fourths of the negroes have declined to register or pay the poll tax. This provision assures a large white majority of voters in the state.

A Geneva paper says that the St. Petersburg police recently arrested 28 officers, 26 of whom were nihilists connected with a conspiracy to kill the Czar and force the Czarewitch to establish a constitutional monarchy. The nihilists it is said were arrested after offering desperate resistance for two hours with their revolvers. The police were assisted by soldiers. Seven nihilists were killed in the struggle and seven escaped.

There was a triumphal arch in the streets of Turin, Sunday, and numerous buildings were decked with flags and evergreens, because of the Parnellite meeting there. In a speech Parnell reaffirmed his distrust of the Liberals and said his policy would not change. He would keep his hands unfettered until he seen how the liberals fulfilled their pledges. Dillon and O'Brien were following a dangerous cause in trusting to Gladstone.

The British House of Lords, sitting as a committee for privileges, Friday, decided the remarkable and historic Berkeley peerage claim. The house decided that Randal Mowbray, Thomas Berkeley had established his claim to the honors and dignities of the Earl of Berkley and Viscount Darsley. The decision given today upholds the decision given in 1811, and consequently Mr. Berkeley will hereafter be a peer of realm. The house directed that Baron Fitzhardinge be non-suited.

John Dillon and Wm. O'Brien were released from gaol Thursday morning. Large crowds of people gathered about the gaol and gave both gentlemen a rousing reception and presented them with several addresses of congratulation. The general opinion is that O'Brien and Dillon will take a middle or conciliatory course in Irish political affairs and direct their efforts towards healing the differences existing and reorganizing the Irish Parliamentary party.

The conclusion of an important treaty of reciprocity between the United States and the republic of San Domingo is announced in a special from Washington to the New York World. The treaty will go into force and effect in September without further ratification. Last March the agent of the People's Bank at Lunenburg N. S., mailed at the post office there $1,500 for the agency at Mahone Bay, but the money was never received. An investigation was at once instituted but it was a failure. The mystery has been resurrected again by the arrest of postmaster Burgerine and Jacob Rhuland, of Mahone Bay. The postmaster of Lunenburg has died in the meantime, possibly of a broken heart, because of the suspicions then cast upon him.

Fifty drunken Italian railroad laborers started on a tour of devastation through Wayne county, W. Va., Friday night. They attacked the Brumfield family, who were thought to have considerable money, and on being refused admission the doors and windows were forced open.
