THREE MONTHS' SENTENCE FOR QUEBEC EDITOR

One of Bourassa's Men, and Made an Attack on the Courts of Justice.

Quebec, June 14.—Three months' imprisonment was the sentence handed Jules Fournier, editor of the Nationaliste, who appeared before Chief Justice Langelier on a charge of contempt of court. Mr. Fournier was the author of an article published in Le Nationaliste on May 9 last, under the heading "Prostitution of Justice."

Le Nationaliste is a French Sunday paper, published in Montreal, and the organ of the party, headed by Mr. Bourassa. Fournier, as editor, succeeded Oliver Asselin, who was released from the Quebec jail last week after serving fifteen days for slapping the face of Hon. Mr. Taschereau, minister of public works.

JAP PLOT FOUND TO GRAB HONOLULU

Incendiary Correspondence Discovered by Americans and Several Japanese Indicted.

Honolulu, June 14. — Seventeen Japanese leaders in the strike of Japanese labor plantations, of whom about 8,000 are out, were indicted by the grand jury today on charges of having conspired to incite disorders in the Hawaiian Islands.

This action followed disclosures yesterday, when an official search of the offices of the "Higher Wage Association" and the Japanese newspaper Jiji revealed incendiary letters, reports and other correspondence, tending to show that a conspiracy was in prospective formation among certain Japanese to wrest control of the island affairs from the whites. So important did the authorities consider the discovery of what appeared to be a plot that the grand jury was summoned hastily and documentary evidence seized in the raids was laid before the body. This resulted in the indictments.

Among the correspondence between the strikers and some of the leaders seized by the officers in their search, of which translations were submitted to the grand jury, is the following:

"The Japanese strikers are facing the planters with enough powder, lead and food to make victory sure in the end. Nor is the time to exalt the name of your nation and tint with blood the flag of the rising sun. Against those who oppose our action we must be ready with hammer of iron and rain of blood to make the obstinate and blind planters reflect, and to exterminate Somotaro Sheba, the traitor editor of the Shimpo, and his followers.

"If higher wages are not obtained, the sword may visit Sheba at any time, and he should provide for the livelihood of his family which will be left."

Bonds for the appearance of the men arrested were quickly furnished, and the seventeen men were released.

High Sheriff W. Henry, Sheriff Jarret and the attorney-general are acting together. They express themselves as confident that the disclosures and arrests made today have cleared the situation and given them entire control.

AFTER THE CORONER

London Newspapers Demand Records of Mary Ruse's Suicide.

London, June 12. — Several local newspapers have asked the coroner's office for the records of the inquest into the suicide in this city on May 16 last of Mrs. Mary Agnus O'Brien Ruise, but they have been refused. Mrs. Ruise was formerly the wife of a Cuban diplomat, and her name was prominently mentioned in the action for divorce brought by Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt against Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

There is reason to believe that a demand will be made in the House of Commons for the publication of these records, and that the question will be asked why the coroner refused them.

EXCURSION STEAMER WAS FAST AGROUND

Ashtabula, Ohio, June 12.—The passenger steamer Arundel, carrying 200 excursionists to Port Stanley, Ont., yesterday from Ashtabula harbor, went aground at Amboy, ten miles east of Ashtabula, at midnight on the return trip.

The passengers were rescued by the crew with small boats. Women fainted, but no one was hurt.

Many missed the trolley cars and slept in barns and fence corners.

HARRIMAN'S ILLNESS.

New York, June 12.—Dr. W. G. Lyle, who is E. H. Harriman's physician, said today that Mr. Harriman was not critically ill in Europe with an organic trouble as had been reported. Mr. Harriman's only illness was muscular rheumatism, the physician said. He had advised Mr. Harriman to consult an eminent Vienna specialist for the complaint, Dr. Lyle said, and he might afterwards take the baths at some German resort. Mr. Harriman is at present visiting James Stillman in Paris.

SHOT LIKE RABBITS.

Constantinople, June 14.—One of the foreign consuls in Turkey, who has arrived at Tarsus, after a tour of the scene of the April massacres has sent in a report confirming the previous appalling totals, in the course of which he says:

"Two thousand laborers were shot like rabbits at Hamadieh, and in the surrounding fields. Their bodies still are lying on the battlefield just where they were working."

Hotel Bell Boy Says He Was Employed by Howard Gould.

TO SPY ON HIS WIFE

Sensational Developments Are Expected in Case When Hearing Is Resumed.

New York, June 14.—There are indications that the separation and alimony suits of Howard Gould and wife will bristle with developments this week, when the trial is continued before Justice Dowling, in supreme court.

According to papers put on file in the county clerk's office, chiefly in the form of affidavits, Gould will be charged with an attempt to manufacture false evidence against his wife. Employees of the Hotel St. Regis, where Mrs. Gould has lived since her separation from Gould, are said to be involved, including J. E. Kennedy, a former house detective, and one of the best-known hotel detectives in the country.

In the signed confession of Michael Doody, now on file with the court, Kennedy is said to have offered the doorboy $2,000 to keep track of Mrs. Gould's movements, and write her down as coming back to the hotel intoxicated.

Confessed To Parish Priest.

The confession was first made to Mrs. Gould after Doody had gone for advice to his parish priest.

It was intimated yesterday that George Gould's examination may involve more than queries as to Howard Gould's inheritance from the estate of his father, Jay Gould, his investments and the present figure of his fortune. It is said that eleven years ago George Gould began searching for some flaw in Mrs. Howard Gould's record.

At that time she was a beautiful young actress, playing under her own name, Katherine Clemmons. Big Bill Hawley, then serving a term in Dannemora prison, in upper New York State, is said to have gotten into communication with George Gould through a warden of the penitentiary. He declared he could prove that Katherine Clemmons was already married, and that he would do so if assured that he would be pardoned through the Gould influence at Albany.

Fraud Evidence Alleged.

He furnished agents of the Goulds with names, dates and alleged facts. There was a thorough investigation of Miss Clemmons' past, but it came to nothing. Big Bill Hawley served his term, and Howard Gould, in the face of the family protests, married the actress.

Notwithstanding Hawley's first failure, it is said, he has been in the employ of the Goulds since Howard and his wife separated. This time he promised to prove M
