PRINCESS AVENUE SCHOOL PROVIDES "SOLID COMFORT"

Detail Company Well Housed in a Good Building.

The old Princess Avenue School is making very satisfactory winter quarters for the men of the Active Service Detail Company of the 7th Regiment. About 40 of the military police are also located there. The police, together with the 133 men of the 7th Detached Company, have settled down in what they describe as "solid comfort." The windows, a good many of which were broken, have been re-glazed. The heating and ventilation are excellent for the number of men in occupancy.

Those men not actually employed on guard duties, etc., are busy cleaning up leaves and other debris which have gathered during the summer.

The cottage at 535 Colborne street, which was formerly used as a kindergarten, has been turned into an orderly room and the back rooms into officers' quarters. A canteen has been established in one of the upper rooms of the main building, where the men may obtain soft drinks, chocolate and other good things which go to make variety in the soldier fare. A good many books in quite a respectable library enable the men to while away their few leisure hours.

The school was originally offered to the military authorities as a hospital, but it was decided that the hospital accommodation at the barracks was sufficient. It was considered, however, that it was too good a building to allow to lie vacant, and it was decided to use it as a barracks. That it will prove satisfactory as such is the expressed opinion of the men themselves.

PAINT, AXLE GREASE AND ROTTEN EGGS PLAY PART IN FRESHIES' INITIATION

First-Year Medicals Undergo Their Usual Trials at Hands of Sophs.

At last the medical school freshmen have been taken unto the bosom of the college, in a burst of feathers, shellac, paint, axle grease and rotten eggs. At one o'clock today as some twenty odd suspicious youths wended their way to lectures at the Institute of Public Health, they were preyed upon by the sophomores, aided and abetted by the third and fourth year:

Yea, verily, it was some initiation.

The Sophs have been quietly raiding every hencoop in the city for some weeks past, and judging by the looks of the Freshies, they missed nary a one. The first year youths were nailed at the switch, so to speak, and their attempts to put up a scrap were null and void. Master of ceremonies, Melville Platt, president of the second year, outdid himself in his many little attentions.

With loving kindness and much generosity the sophs bestowed sweet oil and paint of many colors on their willing (?) juniors. After the first-year lads had as much of their apparel off as the weather conditions and decency would permit, the axle-grease brigade went merrily to work to Mr. Platt's satisfaction. To top matters, the boys were treated to a rotten-egg shampoo, which was much enjoyed by the seniors, who stood off at a safe distance with kerchiefs to their noses.

The sophs then proved that they are admirable hosts by treating the gang to an auto truck ride around the forest city. At the market lane on Dundas street, their boots were thrown out in a pile, while they were taken on around the block again. The truck was beautifully decorated for the occosion, with huge placards such as "Damaged Goods," "Do the Freshies Love Sophs?" "This Is the Life" and many others.

The first year ads took the initiation in god part and enjoyed the affair just as much as the sophomores, but not in teh same way.

LIVE HOGS AGAIN RISING IN PRICE ON LOCAL MARKET

Grain Scarce at Steady Quotations—Dairy Products Remain Firm.

There was a small attendance of both buyers and sellers on the local market this morning, even for a Tuesday market. Hay had a brisk sale at $12 to $13.50 a ton. Straw was scarce, $8.50 to $9.25 a ton being offered for it. Grain was scarce. Oats brought $1.90 to $2 a cwt. for old, and $1.65 to $1.80 for new. Wheat was steady at $1.55 a bushel for new and $1.45 a bushel for old.

Potatoes were firmer, bringing $1.20 to $1.40 a bushel and $1.70 to $1.90 a bag. Scarcely any tomatoes were offered, but it is thought that a few more will be brought in before the close of the week and sold for about $40 a basket. New cabbage were sold for 60c to $1.50 a dozen. Pumpkins are selling for 5c to 15c each.

Apples were steady at 75c to $1 a bushel, and a few pears were offered at $1 to $1.25 a bushel. A few peaches were offered at 30c to 60c a basket. Grapes were for sale at 20c to 25c a basket, and citrons brought 10c to 20c each.

There was no rise in dairy prices. Creamery butter sold for 42c a pound retail. Dairy butter sold for 40c in rolls and 39c in crocks. Eggs were sold for 42c a dozen. Chickens were offered at 90c to $1.40 a pair, retail. Ducks brought 75c to $1.00 each, and turkeys 25c a pound, retail.

A higher price was paid for hogs, $10.60 a cwt. being offered by most dealers. Fat sows were sold for $8.10. It is stated that prices are likely to drop during the week owing to scarcity of feed. There was a slow market for little pigs only $4 to $6 a pair being offered.

Dressed hogs dropped slightly, selling in some cases for $14.50 a cwt. The highest price was $15. Hides and wool were firm.
