CHICAGO, Jan. 7.

There was a strong movement in wheat today, which in spite of cables and a decrease in visible supply, caused a drop of ¼c to ⅜c from Saturday's close. The weakness of wheat and an increase in the visible supply of corn produced lower prices for the latter, the close being ⅜c to ½c under Saturday. Oats shared in the general weakness, and lost ⅛c to ⅜c. Provisions were slightly higher.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat 75 cars, corn 550 cars, oats 230 cars, hogs 32,000 head.

Sheep and Lambs—What with 450 cars of cattle and hogs and 125 cars of sheep and lambs, the yards were overcrowded and it was impossible to put all the stock in position today. In the cattle and hog market, trade dragged and values were lower, but a distinctly different feeling pervaded the sheep section. There were 22 cars there of Canadas and an active trade at 10c to 25c higher than the best prices of last week. Good to choice Canada sheep sold at $3 75 to $4, and Canada lambs opened with sales at $4 75 of good, advancing, as to quality, to $4 95; several loads sold at $4 85 to $4 90; native stock shared in the advance, extra export ewes selling at $3 40 to $3 70; good to choice lambs, $4 40 to $4 75. All the stock that could be yarded sold, but there were quite a few cars which could not get in. If the run is not too heavy and only choice grades are shipped, prices will be higher before the close of the week.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects, and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

—Next!

—The end is not yet!

—A batch of statute labor summonses has been issued.

—Mrs. Claypole, a former resident of this city, died at Whitby, yesterday.

—Dr. George C. Davis has been confined to his room for several days with an attack of bronchitis.

—Dr. Macgregor, Kent Bridge, and Dr. Kingsmill, Thamesville, returned home this afternoon.

—Mr. S. R. Break, assistant secretary of the Detroit Street Railway Company, was in the city yesterday.

—Mrs. Robert Douglas' many friends in London West and the city will be pained to hear that she is seriously ill at her residence, Wharncliffe road, London West.

—The unusual record of five deaths at ripe ages is published in this edition of the ADVERTISER, namely, David Kent, aged 80, R. McDougall, aged 77; Daniel Black, aged 74; Mrs. Mary A. Claypole, aged 72; and Thomas Heighway, aged 69.

—By an unfortunate overlook on the part of the pressman, one page of yesterday evening's ADVERTISER was given twice, and a page was dropped. Today we give the more noteworthy portion of the news thus missed by our readers.

—The newly-elected officers of Dominion, Chorazin, Eureka and Forest City Lodges of the I. O. O. F. will be installed on Thursday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall. The district deputy master, Mr. John Pearce, of Mount Brydges, will conduct the ceremony. He will be assisted by several of the local brethren.

—The remains of the late Robert Morrison, Kent street, were taken to Florence this morning for interment. Mr. Morrison was formerly in business there, and removed to this city a year or so ago. He was 68 years old, and leaves a widow and a large family. Rev. Mr. Moorehouse, Christ Church, and Rev. Mr. Berry, St. Paul's, officiated at the house.

—The ninth Division Court was held this morning, Judge Wm. Elliot presiding, and Squire Jarvis, clerk. About fifteen cases were disposed of. The only one of importance was Atkins against Bailiff Burns for alleged illegal seizure and also seizure of goods which were exempt. The case lasted two hours and the judge reserved his judgment.

—The death is announced of Mrs. Alfred Luard, St. James street, after an illness of a few days. Mrs. Luard was a daughter of Mr. James Johnson and was married in this city to Mr. Luard in 1866. Deceased was 50 years of age and leaves a husband and six children – Charles, Fred and Harvey, of Boston, Mass.; and Richard, Dora A., and Lucy D. at home. Mrs. Luard lived for twenty years on the fourth concession of London township and was a consistent member of St. John's Church.

Reeve Macdonald Re-Elected.

The London West returns as given out last night showed that Mr. Saunby had a majority of two. Mr. John Simpson the returning officer made a recount this morning. He found that a spoiled ballot had been counted for Mr. Saunby in No. 1 polling subdivision, and also that Mr. Saunby had been credited with one vote too many in No. 2 division. This made the vote a tie, and on the deciding vote of Mr. Simpson, Reeve Macdonald was given a majority of one. This correction came too late to change the tables on page 3 of the ADVERTISER.

Married the Other Sister.

A month or so ago the ADVERTISER published an account of the disappearance of a south end young woman on the eve of her marriage. The prospective groom had furnished the house and made every preparation for the affair, and had even summoned his friends to witness the ceremony. He was very much put out at the turn things had taken, and refused at first to be comforted. It transpired afterwards that the young woman had gone to Port Huron, giving the reason that she did not care for the young man enough to marry him. She returned about a week ago and was in time to be present at the wedding of a younger sister to the young man she was to have married. Everybody connected is apparently satisfied, and another proof is furnished to the old saying that "All is well that ends well."

More Goods Identified.

Mr. R. Kidner, Burwell street, has identified the straps, valise and slippers which were found at the house of Thos. W. Ellis, who was arrested by Detective Nickle, on Sunday. Mr. David Rougvie, Queen's avenue, has also identified the opera glasses, the pocket book found on the prisoner, and a number of the coins. The place was entered about three weeks ago by means of a key. One of the skeleton keys found on the prisoner will open the back door. The police recovered some more articles yesterday from the prisoner's house. They were mostly in the nature of cutlery and include a silver plated nut cracker. A number of blankets and some jewelry await identification.

Death of Squire Black.

The death of Squire Daniel Black last night at his residence, Queen's avenue east, removed one of the best-known figures in this section of Ontario. He was born in Scotland, in February, 1819, and his parents removed to Canada in the same year and settled in Dunwich township, Elgin county. Deceased lived there until marriage, when he removed to Yarmouth township, in the same county. He continued there until 1877, when he retired to London, where he had since been an honored and useful citizen. He was for several years deputy reeve of Yarmouth township, and was a member of the board of directors of the London Mutual Insurance Company since 1860. He has been vice-president of the board since 1874. Mr. Black was twice married, his first wife being Miss Christina Ferguson, of Southwold, and his second Miss Mary McBrayne, of Yarmouth, to whom he had been united for 45 years and who survives him. Deceased had no family. Three brothers and one sister died before him, namely, John, Archibald and Duncan, all of Elgin county, and Mary, wife of Rev. D. Lamont, of Lobo. There are living one brother, James, of Wallacetown, and two sisters, Mrs. Campbell, of Aldborough, Elgin county, and Mrs. John McKillop, of Orford, Kent county, mother of Mr. J. B. McKillop, deputy county crown attorney, this city. Mr. Black's death was directly due to a stroke of paralysis, received on Dec. 26, while walking on the street. He lapsed into unconsciousness two days afterwards and remained in that condition until the last.
