DOCTOR SPHON'S
SICK HEADACHE REMEDY.

[illegible] Thousands have tried and found precisely the relief which the article promises to afford. Certificates of the strongest kind, and from the most respectable persons, are in the possession of the proprietor, some of which have been published. Instances in which permanent cures have been effected have come to his knowledge, where immediate relief was given for this troublesome complaint, and the effects have not yet left the sufferer for years. In most cases it is effected by the first dose. It taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progress of the complaint, and consequently the pain. Taken by an excessive dose, as it never can do, it would only throw it the contrary way, leaving it as it was before, leaving the patient healthy again in an excellent temper. All afflicted with headache should not fail to procure the article and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint.

Physicians have in many instances given it to their patients, and in every instance, to our knowledge, with great success. Some have found it a sudden cure. Sick and Nervous Headaches is a complaint with which physicians do not wish to have anything to do, and generally prescribe only for temporary relief; consequently Dr. Sphon's Sick Headache Remedy comes the nearest which some other proprietary articles meet from that source.

Try it once and you never will regret it. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and contains no mineral, or poisonous drug of any kind, and does not require any change of diet or exercise.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co.—Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher-street N. Y., and by the principal Druggists in the Union, and here by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.

"We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co. the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have depositors to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere.—We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her parental gonsiderable which, considering that they look on it almost a hereditary disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and indeed we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, though in vilage, hair enough, and of a purple quality, of our own.

DARING FRAUD.

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it be ever purchased or used unless it have the name of L. S. COMSTOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

TO THE BALD HEADED

Take a to certify, that I have been bald about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock & Co.

JUDGE PATTERSON.

Read the following from Judge Paterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.

Middletown, N. J., March 12, 1839

Messrs. Comstock & Co.

Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you think will best subserve the purpose for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.]

I hereby certify that my daughter has been afflicted with a bad headache for the space of about 20 years—the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time she was so severe, as apprehended soon to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Sphon's Headache Remedy as recommended by you, and to my great disappointment and joy of herself and friends it effected a very material cure. [illegible] the first dose [illegible] the article, and in every case where an attack has recurred this had immediate relief, and she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, and do not appear almost since she ceased using the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your ourdiful servant,

SIDNEY PATTERSON,
Judge of the Court of C. P.

HEWE'S,
NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

THIS article is offered to the public as a never failing cure for the Rheumatism, and it has for a number of years sustained its reputation, and accomplished cures which had defied the power of every other article. In acute and recent cases, the relief is invaluable, after one or two applications of the Liniment, and in chronic Rheumatism, the cases of cure are numerous. It is truly a remedy that recalles the nerve and bone with the most happy effect.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

DR. BARTHOLOMEW'S
PINK EXPECTORANT SYRUP.

THE cases of consumption are so numerous in all the northern latitudes, that some remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly at hand, to administer on the first appearance of so disturbing disease. This Expectorant syrup will in every case prevent the complaint—It is equal impossible for any person ever to have consumption who will use this remedy on the first appearance of cough and pain in the side, and in many instances has cured when physicians had given up the case as incurable.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?—Do not neglect it!—Thousands have met a premature death for want of a little attention to a common cough.

Have you a cough?—Rev. Dr. Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup, a well tried prescription containing no poisonous drugs, and been in extensive practice for several years, will most positively relieve, and save you from an early grave.

Have you a cough?—Be persuaded to purchase a bottle of this Expectorant Syrup to-day!!—To-morrow may be too late.

Have you a cough? Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup is the only remedy you should take to cure it.

For the following reason:—That in no one of the thousand cases [illegible] has been found necessary to relieve.

For sale at Dr. Sherman's, Maiden Lane, Comstock & Co. 2 Fletcher street, Hardy, and all other respectable Drug Stores—and Dr. McSTAY, St. Andrews.

ASK, INQUIRE—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

TO THOSE ONLY WHO KNOW BY TRIAL, a respectable observation can bear testimony to the effects of the perfect cure of the PILES, BOILS, CHILBLAINS, ALL SWELLINGS, and ALL EXTERNAL PAINS, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Ointment. Find out who has used it that will not bear it above all things, ever unequalled in merit and—which cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know, and I feel assured they will tell you, that no other remedy can be found to cure the PILES, BOILS, CHILBLAINS, ALL SWELLINGS, and ALL EXTERNAL PAINS, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Ointment. Find out who has used it that will not bear it above all things, ever unequalled in merit and—which cannot be found.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will pave many pains where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To Parents we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then it is not worth. The proprietor will not allow this article to be sold by any unless it cures, when all the directions are duly followed. It is, and will be, giving away just what it is worth. If he does it ought to be paid more for his ingenuity and his suffering.

All, Hays would never consent to offer this article, were he not compelled by his sense of moral—of religious duty—to do all in his power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a day's time, than share a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT.—Some unfeelers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO.; that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are deceived. Do not forget it. Take this direction home with you, and rigidly abide by it, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true of genuine.

LOOK OUT!!

"CAUTION" is the Parent of Safety.

AN ATTACK of the "PILES" may be positively prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT.—There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States in no small number, who have suffered up our endorsement, yet it is doubtful, considering the low price, whether they will from disease by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach; of this there is the most perfect proof.
