Ottawa Opposition Decline to Appear to Substantiate Their Charges.

Drummond County Railway Bargain No Longer Alleged to be Corrupt.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 5.—The special committee appointed to inquire into Drummond County Railway affairs, as a consequence of the charges made by opposition members in the last session of parliament, sat this forenoon. Mr. Lister was appointed chairman. Walter Barwick, Q.C., Toronto, will appear for the government, and B. B. Osler, Q.C., will act for J. N. Greenshields. Neither of these, however, were present today.

No charge was preferred, and no attempt made by the opposition to establish what they have been declaring in the house and circulating all over the country. It was decided to summon Mr. Courtney, deputy minister of finance, and Mr. Schrieber, deputy minister of railways, for next Tuesday. Mr. Morrison suggested that notice should be given to the public that the committee was sitting, so that no one would have the excuse afterwards of saying that they were not aware of the fact.

Hon. Mr. Haggart and Mr. Lister said that this was not usual. The public would have sufficient notice when the proceedings of the committee were reported to the house and through the press.

Mr. Lister said that if no one came forward, then the committee would have to proceed and probe the matter to the bottom. The committee adjourned until Tuesday next.

Breach of Promise Case Killed by a Husband's Entrance.

A St. Catharines Woman Plantiff—Damages Asked for $20,000.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 5.—Before Judge Disette, in the common pleas court, the case of Mrs. Margaret I. Johnson against William Hendy for $20,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage was called.

In 1874 Mrs. Johnson married Jacob Cusler at St. Catharines, Ont. He deserted her the day after the wedding, and later, she heard he was dead. She came to this city and married Johnson, living with him nineteen years. Then she obtained a divorce. Subsequently, she says, William Hendy asked her to marry him.

On Thursday, as the attorneys were taking their places, Jacob Cusler, now a resident of Pittsburg, walked into the room. The case was at once dismissed.
