FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, Oct. 21.

Society has spent a busy week, this being due in part to the presence in the city of several visitors, old-time residents of St. John, who are being entertained by their former friends. A few have already departed, as for instance, Mrs. Digby and daughter, Miss Kathleen, who left on Wednesday evening to take steamer for Naples to remain on the continent for two years. Mrs. Digby will be joined at Boston by her other daughters, Miss Dolly and Mrs. Creighton, both of whom will accompany her abroad. Other strangers in town are Mrs. King, who will visit her daughter, Mrs. James Stratton, this winter; Major and Mrs. J. H. Kaye, Mrs. Percy Robinson, of Toronto, and Mrs. Freeman Lake, of South Africa. The latter expects to spend some time with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Tuck; Mrs. Bancroft, of Mexico, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Vassie; Miss E. Robinson Scovil at Mrs. Barclay Robinson's; Miss Margaret Hare, of New York, and Miss Valerie Steeves, Fredericton. Next month Miss Maisie Domville, Montreal, will be the guest of Senator Domville and Mrs. Domville at Rothesay at "The Willows" for two months. Another visitor in the city next month—about the 3rd—will be Mrs. F. Widder, who will be the guest of her brother, Mr. George Wetmore, and Mrs. Wetmore, Summer street.

The tea given last Friday by Mrs. J. Morris Robinson for Mrs. Digby was a very delightful function. On Saturday afternoon the pupils of Netherwood held their annual sports day, which was enjoyed by a number of St. John friends, beside those of the village. A good programme was given as follows: Straight race, won by Miss Edith Cudlip; three legged race, won by Misses Edith White and Miss Edith Cudlip; hobble skirt race, won by Miss Mary White; sack race, won by Miss Edith Gilbert; suit case race, won by Miss Edna Pickles; obstacle race, won by Miss Jean Schofield. Much originality was displayed in the representation of class colors, and as each class marched on to the lawn, they were greeted with rounds of applause. First came the preparatories, looking very sweet in yellow and white; next came the collegiate B, in very pretty costumes of red and white. First coll, in brown and white, were quaint and attractive; second coll, green and white; third coll, in purple and phite, were also greatly admired, and last the fourth collegiate (the graduating class) in blue and white. When all were grouped together, in the glorious autumn sunshine, they surely made a very winsome picture, and the judges had a difficult task in deciding the prize, which finally resulted in a tie. They tossed for it, when blue and white won. Their costumes were a lovely shade of blue college caps and gowns, over white dresses. The class calls were also all good, the prize, however, was awarded to the second collegiates. A game between Hampton Consolidated School and Netherwood, with teams composed as follows:

Hampton.	Netherwood.
Goal.
Marietta Freeze	Dorothy Wilson
Marguerite McDade	Allison Peters
Centre.
Helen Dezmond	Miss Kinsman
Check.
