THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, Aug. 21—The lawn party given at St. Anne's church rectory, the home of Rev. R. L. and Mrs. Sloggett, last Thursday afternoon and evening, was one of the most enjoyable of outdoor entertainments given here for some time. The lawn surrounding the house was beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns. On the lawn were gay colored beds of tulips, which were sold rapidly to eager buyers. Home-made candies, ices and cake were also sold. The Calais Band gave some lively musical selections, which added greatly to the spirit and gaiety of the occasion. It is said that some 800 guests attended the lawn party and a goodly sum of money was realized, which will be devoted to the interest of St. Anne's church. Much credit is given Mrs. Sloggett, who suggested the party and so skilfully arranged it.

A large party of ladies and gentlemen drove from St. Stephen to Willow Cottage at the Ledge, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gay, to give them a surprise last evening, it being the 18th anniversary of their wedding day. Moncton, N. B., Aug. 25—Harry Nevles, who assaulted John Forbes, I. C. R. baggage master here, a few weeks ago, was sentenced by Judge Forbes at Dorchester Saturday to three years in the penitentiary.

Nevles assaulted Forbes because the latter refused to check his baggage without seeing his ticket, and Forbes was laid up some time as a result of the beating.

Nevles when sentenced was insolent to the judge, asking him why he did not make the sentence ten or twenty years.

The local Knights of Pythias observed today for decorating the graves of their departed brethren. The proceedings were marred by a heavy rain which continued all day. Only about thirty knights braved the storm and the Pythian ceremony at the cemetery was dispensed with. A brief address was given by Rev. Geo. E. Whitehouse.
