PER CABLE.

Consols are unchanged.

The London Echo contains an article upon the Union of Canada with Great Britain, in which it hints strongly that the connection between the two countries is merely artificial, and intimates that Lord Dufferin is possibly the last Viceroy of the Dominion. [The Halifax Chronicle's story, revamped.—ED.]

Disraeli addressed an immense Conservative meeting in Manchester last evening, in which he earnestly defended the Monarchy. To the Throne, he said, must be ascribed the blessings which Englishmen enjoy. The Sovereign does exercise a real influence. The monarchy was an institution around which in peril and adversity the people can rally. The English monarchy cost less than that of any other nation. The expense of the sovereignty of the United States, which embraced Congress and State Legislatures as well as the Executive, was between £700,000 and £800,000 sterling,—double the total of the English civil list. He closed with a vindication of the aristocracy and a defence of the House of Lords as an essential element of the Government.

It is stated that a Bonapartist re-action in France is about to be inaugurated.
