LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

ARCHDEACON READ has gone to England; probably not to return.

Is it not time that our Charlottetown Cricketers learned the game?

A YOUNG man lost a finger by a circular saw last week in Mr. Brehaut's woodyard.

D. A. MACDONALD, Esq., of San Francisco, has our thanks for several bundles of California papers.

PARTIES from the Island who attended Forepaugh's Circus at New Glasgow, N. S., last week, speak very highly of the performances.

WE had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Mr. W. D. Tanton, editor of the Annapolis Spectator, who is visiting his relatives in this city.

THE last Protestant Union publishes, among its selected articles, that beautiful poem by Father Ryan, intituled "Rest." There is yet some hope for our contemporary.

THE Patriot is more obscure than usual. The HERALD has made no reference to lobster factories about launching, or that have been launched, or that may or will be launched. Try again, Patriot.

ALEXANDER MCNEILL, Esq., of Cavendish, and his son Chester B. McNeill, Esq., of the firm of Sullivan & McNeill of this city, were registered at the Canadian Government offices, London, on the 16th ult.

HALIFAX MARKETS.—Oats, 41 cents; Barley, 70 cents; Butter, 18 cents; Lard, 14 cents; Potatoes (old), 40 cents; Potatoes (new), 70 cents: Mess Pork, $14; Thin Mess, $12; Rump, $11; Prime Mess, $10.50.

MESSRS. A. F. BELL (son of Mr. Francis Bell, Manager of the Stock Farm) William H. Mitchell (son of Mr. William Mitchell of this city) and Charles Mitchell left on Monday for Fort McLeod, Alberta, where they intend embarking in the cattle ranching business.

THE Halifax Recorder regarding that old lobster claw which astonished the Patriot man, says: "In Scott Act Charlottetown an Editor saw a lobster claw which in itself was as big as four ordinary lobsters. It must have been a fearful sight." And the Recorder is bitter Grit, too.

THE following persons have been appointed inspectors of licenses under the Scott Act, and of pedlars' licenses, viz: For Queen's County (excepting Charlottetown), J. S. Seaman of North Milton; for King's County, Charles Van Idorstine of Morell; and for Prince County (excepting Summerside), John McCaul of North Bedeque.

WE learn that one of our enterprising citizens is about engaging in a new speculation which promises to eclipse all previous efforts in the Arabs, Joseph Cook, or Redpath Concert Co. line. The City Fathers having allayed the dust from which he previously suffered to a large extent, he hopes to abate the fly nuisance by a consignment of spiders which he expects shortly to receive by Express.

MR. ARBUCKLE, School Visitor, inspected the School at Skinner's Pond, Lot 1, on the 27th ult., and reports it making rapid progress under the able management of Mr. Peter D. McGuigan, a very popular teacher from Hope River. Mr. McGuigan is an industrious young man, and his ability is acknowledged to be far above the average. He has already taken a front rank among the best Teachers in Prince County.

WE congratulate our friend, Mr. John McKenzie, of Summerside, upon the acquisition of additional honors. From the Indian and Colonial Exhibition now being held in London, he has received a silver medal for the best suit of men's clothing. Being already in possession of similar medals from Paris, Philadelphia and Montreal, we think that with this latest decoration, Mr. McKenzie's claim to "Champion Tailor of the World" is pretty well established.

IN to-day's issue will be observed the marriage of Professor S. R. Winans, of Princeton College, N. J. We had the pleasure of meeting the Professor on one of his visits to Charlottetown, some eighteen months ago, and we heartily congratulate him upon the auspicious event which we chronicle. To him we were indebted for the copy of that very interesting account of Malpeque, written by two young ladies of Vassar College, and which afforded no little amusement when the HERALD reproduced it.

NEWS of a dastardly outrage committed upon the confines of our city, has just reached us. We learn that the valuable filly owned by Col. DeCourcey, and which that gentleman has been assiduously pasturing all summer upon a free lot in the vicinity of Charlottetown, was maliciously and cruelly stabbed a few nights ago. Who could entertain any spite against so estimable a citizen as Col. DeCourcey, we are at a loss to conceive, and we sincerely trust that the efforts which he is making to discover the perpetrators of the cowardly deed, may be successful.

THE steamer Carroll arrived from Boston on Saturday with general cargo and following passengers: Mrs. Charles Speary and two children, Mrs. E. Morrow, Mrs. A. M. Pherin, Mrs. Coaley, Mrs. Joel, Mrs. Martin and child, Misses Hannah Halsey, Lizzie and Kate McCabe, Fanny Cairns, Peabody, Robertson, Maggie McKenzie, Alice Martin, Ayers, Nellie Worth, Edith Murray; Revs. J. S. Gleason, P. M. Kennedy, P. J. Preston, P. F. McAlenny, M. F. Flatley, R. Donnelly; Messrs. T. J. Flatley, E. Martin, J. Joel, E. Coaley, W. J. Phelan, Donald McPhee, D. Babin, Daniel Babin. The Carroll sailed again on Monday with general cargo and following passengers: Mrs. B. McCarey, Mrs. O. Winters, Misses Maggie McDonald, Annie Fraser, Katie McKinnon; Messrs. Daniel McKay, John Welsh.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind.

Obituary.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of one of the most esteemed and respected members of our community, Mr. Patrick Loughran, of Monaghan Road, Lot 36, who died on the 26th ultimo, in the 47th year of his age. Although the deceased had been ailing for some time, still his friends hoped to see him living to enjoy many years of peace, prosperity and happiness as a reward of a life of economy and industry. Mr. Loughran was one of our most industrious and successful farmers, and in all his dealings with his fellowmen observed the golden rule of "doing as you would be done by." All through his life he has been an active and faithful member, and, of late years, a warden of St. Patrick's church, Fort Augustus, where the funeral took place, on Monday, the 26th ultimo, attended by the largest concourse of people seen there on such occasions for many years. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. J. McDonald, P. P. The deceased leaves a wife and six children together with a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a good husband, and a kind, indulgent and valued member of society.—Com.

General News.

Michael Davitt will soon lecture in the United States.

Moncton's Tax Collector has stepped out with $1000.

The election in Chambly, P. Q. last Friday resulted in the return of Mr. Prefontaine, grit, by 92 votes. The election will be contested.

A cable despatch says:—Serious rioting took place in Belfast, Ireland, last Saturday and Sunday. A band of music marched to meet a party of Protestant Sunday school children who were returning from an excursion. The crowd accompanying the band groaned at a number of Catholics who were assembled on Carrick hill. The latter replied with stones and the others retaliated. Wild rumors spread throughout the city and a large mob of Orangemen soon gathered. The police tried to disperse the crowd but their efforts were useless and the Orangemen continued to increase. The mob attacked and wrecked a large tavern owned by a Catholic named McKenna. The police frequently charged the mob, but were repulsed with stones. The rioters then wrecked a number of houses believed to be inhabited by Catholics They uprooted the pavement and fired volleys of stones at the police. The latter were finally ordered to fire buckshot, and the command was promptly obeyed. A boy named Knox, who was going on an errand, was shot dead. Many persons were wounded, some of them seriously. The riot had now reached such proportions that it was deemed necessary to call out the military. The rioters were apparently awed by the appearance of the soldiers and soon dispersed to their homes.

MARRIED.

THE following analysis (made by the Dominion Analyst) of three BAKING POWDERS sold in this market should put a stop to the unjust efforts of the Royal to mislead the public into supposing that it is the only pure Powder. These impartial tests show that other Powders are as pure and wholesome.

W. SAUNDERS, Dom. Analyst, London, Ont., reports:

Royal—Contains Alkaline Carbonate—a mixture consisting mainly of Bi-Carbonate of Soda and Cream of Tartar—adulterated with about 20 per cent. of Starch.

W. F. BEST, Dom. Analyst, St. John, N. B., reports:

Pure Gold—Contains Cream of Tartar, Carbonate of Soda and Flour—fresh and pure.

WOODILL'S { Nov. 10, 1882—Not adulterated; same as usual. April 7, 1883—Not adulterated same as usual. June 4, 1884—Fresh and pure; same composition as usual.

MAYNARD BOWMAN, Dom. Analyst, Halifax, N. S., reports:

WOODILL'S { Of good quality; contains nothing injurious.

WOODILL'S GERMAN BAKING POWDER has held a reputation for purity and wholesomeness now nearly thirty years.
