A discount made on quantities for Sabbath Schools and other deserving institutions.

Do not forget our sale of brooms. The next counter is our Bargain Counter, which has just now more than usual attractions. The next counter, same side, brings you to the lamp goods, glassware, etc., a few of which we have spoken of at the beginning of this notice. Among other special bargains on this counter are lanterns 49c, worth $1; some elegant stand lamps, just received from the States, 98c, each worth $2; others 69c, worth $1; and so down to 15c. Aside from these regular lines are a lot of $1 lamps we are closing out at 49c. Surely these ought to be popular. In a passage way will be found samples of a purchase of carriage whips, which for real value were never sold before less than double the price we quote:—6 and 6½ feet whips, 7c, 14c, 21c, 25c, 49c. The two last are well worth respectively 65c and $1 each, and the same have been resold by those who are buying them of us for $1.25, they tell us. We must tell you further next time, as our space is up. Come and see us and get price list.

Mr. Finlay had suffered for months, had consulted three physicians, one of whom treated him for six months; he continued to grow worse, his appetite failed, had a cough, his liver was inactive and greatly enlarged, the pain in his right lung was hard to bear, the palpitation of his heart prevented him from making his slight exertion, he was generally run down in health and was obliged to give up work, and he had almost given up hope when he was advised to try the physicians of the Medical Institute for the cure of Catarrh, Dyspepsia and Chronic Diseases, located at 198 King-street west, which he did, and in two months was a well man and is so to-day, although it is nearly two years since. Mr. Finlay is a good, conscientious and honorable man, and will be glad to talk with anyone who may wish to call on him.

This institution besides treating Catarrh and Dyspepsia, treats all chronic and private diseases, and this testimonial is only one of over six hundred testimonials which can be seen on application. ## EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Dr. Washington, throat and lung surgeon, 79 McCaul-street, Toronto. Dear Sir,—I am repeatedly asked orally, and by letter, as to your treatment for catarrh (owing to my having been cured by you two years ago) and as to the permanency of the cure. To all such inquiries, I feel pleased to say that you cured me of one of the most stubborn cases of catarrh, after I had been treated by several physicians of note without any beneficial results. I am entirely well, and have been ever since. I cannot do less than tender you my gratitude for what you have accomplished in my case, and hope you will be the means of helping others. With kind regards, I am, yours very truly.
