Baptist Pastors' Conference

The regular quarterly gathering of the Pastors' Conference of the Middlesex and Lambton Association of Baptist Churches was held last Tuesday and Wednesday in the Watford Baptist Church, Rev. Geo. W. Conners, pastor.

Promptly at 2.30 o'clock the conference was opened by the president, Rev. A. C. Bingham, London, and Rev. J. R. Baldwin, B.Th., Mt. Brydges, conducted the devotional exercises.

Mr. W. C. Senior, Toronto, who has charge of the Convention Budget, being present as a guest of the conference, outlined some of the ways and means for securing adequate funds for the various enterprises of the church.

Two papers on Tuesday afternoon deserve special mention: one, a review of Prof. Cross' new book, "What is Christianity," by Rev. J. D. McLachlan, Strathroy. This work is not Biblically sound and therefore not safe to be put into the hands of the general Christian worker without its fallacies being ear-marked. The other was a review of "His Dominion" by Rev. R. R. McKay, B.A., of Sarnia. The value of this book cannot be over-emphasized and its study will prove to be most profitable. This is one of the text-books used in the various Young Peoples' Societies of the several Protestant denominations.

On Tuesday evening the Conference, together with Revs. Tiffin, Forster and McKenzie, who were visitors at the Conference, were entertained in the home of Pastor Conners, where the ladies of the church and congregation had prepared a war-time luncheon. This provided a season of delightful fellowship for all present.

The usual evening service was inspirational in its character. Rev. P. G. Buck, B.A., Forest, preached a most helpful sermon, after which Miss Sadie Clark rendered in good voice a solo entitled, "Alone," accompanied by Mrs. (Rev.) Tiffin.

The Conference concluded on Wednesday morning, Pastor H. G. Martin, Courtright, gave a brief biographical sketch of Frances Ridley Havergal, which was most informing. The review of "Studies for Personal Workers," another text-book in the course of studies for the young people, given by Rev. A. J. Loveday, of the Brooke-Enniskillen Church, was appreciatively received. This was followed by very helpful discussion. So important is this subject to the active Christian that by unanimous vote the balance of the program was suspended and the remainder of the session devoted to discussion thereon, in which the visiting ministers of the village took part, offering helpful suggestions from their own experiences.

The Conference closed by singing the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," followed by prayer by Rev. E. H. Sawers.

This was an historic session, since the Conference was organized in the Watford Baptist Church some twelve years ago, and in point of attendance, program, interest and offering surpassed all previous records.

REV. A. C. BINGHAM, Pres.
REV. J. YULE, Sec.-Treas.
