A LOCAL BUDGET.

—Mrs. William Ford, of 49 Church street, Windsor, Ont., died Thursday, aged 27 years. The remains were brought to London today.

—The firemen had a run to Gray & Parker's, 150 Dundas street, yesterday. A blaze had started in rear of the store, but it was extinguished before any damage was done.

—The town of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, have recently placed an order for a double 50-gallon Chemical Fire Engine with the Canadian Fire Engine Company, of this city.

—The annual harvest home services at the Memorial Church tomorrow will be of a specially interesting character. The rector, Rev. C. C. Owen, will preach at both services. The church is being tastefully decorated, and the music by the choir, under the leadership of Mr. Vivian Reeve, promises to be exceptionally bright.

—Wm. Doxtater, the young Indian who was shot by John Henry, the chief of the Muncey tribe, some time ago, has sufficiently recovered to be removed from Victoria Hospital to his home at the reserve.

R. yards at Toronto. Mr. David Grigg, once switch foreman, has been made road master on the North Bay division.

Situated as it is on the lake shore, and already having about 5,000 peach trees, makes it, with the addition, one of the finest peach farms in this vicinity. We are pleased to notice that peaches from the doctor's farm won first prize at the Western Fair this year.—Leamington Post.

—The city license commissioners will meet on Friday, Oct. 18, to consider an application from William Mahon licensee of the Hodgins House to have his license transferred to Arthur Sadlier, of London township.

—Rev. C. T. Scott, B.A., will conduct a special young men's service in Dundas Street Center Methodist Church tomorrow. The singing will be led by a choir of young men.

—The Welland Telegraph says: On Monday evening Mr. H. R. Morwood left the village for his new home in London, where he has purchased a partnership with Mr. Casey. Mr. Morwood came here four and a half years ago, and started a practice, which has flourished year after year. But H. R. thinks he is bettering himself, and his hosts of friends, although sorry to see him leave, send their best wishes for success.

—Rev. Thomas Wilson, of King Street Presbyterian Church, will preach tomorrow evening on "Christ's Claim on the Workingman." This will be the first of a series of sermons for workingmen to be preached in the King Street Presbyterian Church. The series is: "The Church's Need of the Workingman," Rev. T. SCHOOL MATTERS.

No. 1 committee of the board of education met last night. M. E. Hopkirk was admitted as a student to the kindergarten. The committee decided to recommend that Mr. R. K. Davidson receive an addition of $100 to his salary, making it the same as he previously received. A revision of the substitute list was made, and it was decided to have all substitutes report to the secretary at least once a month. Tenders for supplies were opened, and it was decided to accept the tender of Keller's ink; Mr. Mills, for pens; Messrs. Anderson & Co., chalk and erasers, and Sifton & Co., for mucilage. It was thought that the price for foolscap was too high, and it was decided to call for new tenders. The following will be recommended for positions on the teaching staff: Misses Williams, Strongman, Gahan and Porteous.

STEWART—PATRICK.

The Galt Reformer says: At four o'clock Wednesday afternoon an event of more than usual interest took place at the Albion Hotel when Miss Minnie Stephanie Patrick, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patrick, was wedded to Mr. Thomas Douglas Stewart, of London. The bride was charmingly gowned in cream batiste lace over cream silk, and carried the bridal roses, a beautiful shower of pink and cream flowers. The bride was unattended, and the groom also dispensed his duties alone. Rev. R. E. Knowles tied the knot. The going-away gown of the bride was an imported black and white wool with Persian bands. The presents, which attested the esteem in which the bride is held by her host of friends, were both numerous and handsome. The happy couple left for an extended honeymoon to the Pan-American and New York.

JEFFREY—LAW.

Dundas Banner: The marriage of Miss Annie, eldest daughter of James Law, to John O. Jeffrey, of London, took place on Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents on Ogilvie street, Rev. S. H. Gray conducting the service. Miss May Connor, of Hamilton, was bridesmaid, and Mr. George Jeffrey, brother of the groom, looked after his interests. The bride looked very handsome in a traveling dress of blue broadcloth, with hat to match, carrying a bouquet of pale pink roses. The bridesmaid's dress was pink organdie, with black trimmings and black chiffon hat. The groom's present to the bride was a set of sable furs, and to the bridesmaid, a gold bracelet. A number of very handsome and valuable presents were presented. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to sickness in the family, only relatives being present.

A DETERMINED WOMAN.

Finally Found a Food That Cured Her.

"When I first read of the remarkable effects of Grape-Nuts Food, I determined to secure some," says Mrs. C. W. Aldridge, of Salisbury, Mo. "At that time there was none kept in this town, but my husband ordered some from a Chicago traveler.

"I have been greatly afflicted with sudden attacks of cramps, nausea, and vomiting. Tried all sorts of remedies and physicians, but obtained only temporary relief. As soon as I began to use the new food the cramps disappeared and have never reappeared.

"My old attacks of sick stomach were a little slower to yield, but by continuing the food that trouble has disappeared entirely. I am today perfectly well, can eat anything and everything I wish, without paying the penalty I used to. We could not, and would not, keep house without Grape-Nuts.

"My husband was so delighted with the benefits I received that he has been recommending Grape-Nuts to his customers and has built up a very large trade on the food. He sells them by the case to most of the leading physicians of the county, who perscribe Grape-Nuts very generally. There is some satisfaction in using a really scientifically prepared food."

CHOLERA and all summer complaints are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victims before they are aware that danger is near. If attacked do not delay in getting the proper medicine. Try a dose of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and you will get immediate relief. It acts with wonderful rapidity, and never fails to effect a cure.

Pens of hardened gutta percha have been repeatedly tried in this country and England, but have not met with success.
