CALDWELL.—At Gaspereaux, on the 18th inst., Mrs. Nancy Caldwell, aged 93 years and 7 months, leaving six children and a number of grand and great-grandchildren with a large circle of friends to mourn their loss.

BOWLBY.—At Fairview, Cornwallis, N. S., Jan. 20th, Thomas Bowlby, aged 91 years, leaving six sons and two daughters. He was converted a long time ago. Since that time he lived a christian life in fellowship with the Baptist church, and he died the death of the righteous.

VANBUSKIRK.—James VanBuskirk died at Stonie Creek, Jan. 28th, of consumption, aged 38. Our brother professed faith in Christ some years ago and died trusting in Jesus. He leaves a dear mother and three brothers to mourn for him, but they are looking to God for comfort.

HUTCHINSON.—At Millville, Feb. 9th, Mrs. W. A. Hutchinson, aged 21 years. Her marriage Dec. 20th, was soon followed by a summons to depart and be with Christ. She possessed a sweet christian spirit and had strong assurance that it was well with her soul. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

RAY.—At Berwick, Feb. 1st, Mrs. Henry Ray, aged 72 years, leaving a husband and five sons. She was a humble devoted christian, a faithful wife, a self-sacrificing mother. She has walked in fellowship with the 4th Cornwallis church and, proved herself to be one of their best members. She died in peace with God and man. She sleeps in Jesus.

LARABY.—Feb. 1st, at Brookline, Mass., Elizabeth J. Laraby, aged 51 years. Sister Laraby was baptized and received into the Belfast P. E. I., Baptist church, by Rev. F. Kidson, about 26 years ago, and has ever since proved herself to be a consistent and devoted christian; and was much esteemed by the church. She leaves a sister, four brothers, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Her remains were brought to the Island and interred beside her father and mother.

CROSSMAN.—Mrs. Rosanna Crossman, died at her home Niagara, Albert Co., on Jan. 24th, aged 68. Our sister was baptized when a young woman, by Rev. Mr. Newcomb, and ever lived a faithful consistent life. She was a true "Mother in Israel" ever anxious that sinners might be saved. We will long remember her earnest words during the late revival we had at Stony Creek. She leaves a husband and large family to mourn the loss of a kind wife and christian mother. May God cheer and comfort them.

GILDART.—At North River, N. B., sister Sarah Gildart, aged 84 years. Her remains were brought to Elgin and buried beside her kindred. She was one of the connecting link of generations gone before. She was baptized 58 years ago by the venerable Joseph Crandall. At that time the beginning of the first Elgin church was just visible. Through a long and eventful life our sister was a faithful member. A large circle of friends, and sons and daughters now remember with grateful sadness the one gone before.

FREEMAN.—At her father's residence, Turner's Falls, Mass., Feb. 3, Nora M., youngest daughter of Isaac Freeman, aged 16 years and 3 months. Our young sister was baptized at Paradise, N. S., over four years ago by Rev. J. T. Eaton. During an illness which lasted several months she "endured as seeing Him who is invisible." Beautiful and sweet were the graces that adorned her character. Her influence was ever good. Her lot is with the blessed. The will of the Lord be done. A large gathering attended the funeral services which were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. Clark; the Rev. J. H. Balcom taking part.

PARKER.—At Bridgetown, Monday 4th inst., of pneumonia, Isaac N. Parker, aged 59 years. From our church and congregation, within a very short time, the familiar forms of Bro. Abner Foster, Bro. John Healy, Bro. Daniel Palfrey, and sister Mary Chipman have been taken; and now that of Bro. Parker. He was a godly man. He came to us from Tremont about two years ago, since which time he and his companions have been a source of joy to us. He had come to love his church home here, and he was in turn beloved by all. We were loth to give him up, but God took him, and we can but bow in submission to the divine will. His constant walk, quiet and gentle manner, and simple trust in God, make his loss to us the greater. He leaves an aged mother, a wife, and three daughters to mourn their loss. We tender to them our sincere sympathy.

Use SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great Blood and Nerve Remedy.

COLPITTS.—At Mapleton, Albert Co., N. B., Feb. 8, Lydia, wife of Deacon W. A. Colpitts, aged 69 years. Our sister's death was caused by paralysis, which was the result of a fall on the ice, injuring the head. The few days intervening between the accident and death were in a large measure peaceful. She was resigned to the will of God. She leaves a husband, two daughters, to mourn her departure. Our sister experienced religion early in life, under the preaching of Father Hammond. She united with the first Elgin church forty years ago, being baptized by Rev. W. Pulsifer. Both her father and grandfather, were preachers of the gospel, and bore the same name, Rev. Charles Lewis. Our sister will be missed at her home which was ever open to all, in christian work, and by the mourning loved ones. The text used at the funeral service was appropriate to her life. "They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth forever."

WITTER.—Mrs. James S. Witter died Jan. 26, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred D. Crawley, in White Plains, N. Y. Her parents Samuel and Mary Tupper, lived in Cornwallis, N. S., where Mary, their daughter, was born in 1818. While very young she was very much exercised in mind with thoughts of God and eternity. When about eleven years old she obtained peace by believing in Jesus and her joy was almost ecstatic. As she had trembled before the majesty of the Lord, she now rejoiced before Him, with a joy that seemed to her elders almost extravagant. After waiting two years in accordance with the wish of her parents, she was baptized by the Rev. Edward Manning into the fellowship of the Baptist church at Canard. Having an ardent desire for knowledge, she availed herself of such means for education as N. S. then offered young women, and so qualified herself for teaching as to secure the position of principal of a ladies school in Yarmouth. This she held for a number of years, until her marriage with James S. Witter, then doing business in the town of Yarmouth. She retained through life her fondness for study and for intellectual pursuits. Her choice of reading was on Biblical and theological lines. She was a devout student of the Scripture and her memory was stored with truth from its pages. She indulged her taste for writing when free from the claims of other duties, and wrote occasionally for the local press. Her sensible and useful contributions were freely accorded a place in the "poet's corner" of the weekly newspapers. She published two books, one entitled "A book for the young," being a history of the kings of Judah, the other "The Edomites," and she left another one "Angels" in manuscript all ready for publication. This last will probably be given to the public by her daughter. Mrs. Witter was always interested in the cause of Christ on earth. To the Sabbath school, the prayer meeting and the various agencies of the church, she gave time and attendance. Her communications were instructive and interesting, and always well received. For though mature in knowledge and in thoughtfulness beyond many, she seemed not aware of it herself and assumed no superiority in language or demeanor. She was truly of an honorable and devout spirit. She knew, too the certainties of the things commonly believed among us. Her sufferings during her last illness, was very severe, but they were borne with patience and joy. She repeatedly said to her daughter. "I am so happy." "I cannot tell you how happy I am." And she would say again and again, "Oh to think Jesus should save me—even me! And so with gladness and rejoicing she went to be with the Christ she first so revered and then so intensely loved. Mrs. Crawley, her only child, mourns the loss of a tender mother, but she expects some day to join the dear parents, both of whom have "passed into the skies."

Lunenburg Co. District Meeting.

On Tuesday, 12th inst., our District Meeting met at Chelsea according to appointment. Pastors present—Archibald, Parry, Whitman and Brown. Two services were held—2.30 p. m. and 7 p. m. The attendance was somewhat limited owing to a heavy snow that had lately fallen, and also to to the fact that quite a number of the men were, for the day, out of the place. The few who gathered in the afternoon for conference were made conscious that their waiting on the Lord was rewarded by a renewal of their strength, and a general spirit of expectancy was manifest. Rev. E. N. Archibald was the leader of this meeting, and was supplied by the Holy Spirit with arguments by which all present seemed induced to consecrate themselves more fully to the Master's work. At the close of the devotional part of this service Mrs J. W. Brown met the sisters of the church and organized a W. M. A. S., which will be reported elsewhere, while the brethren repaired to the house of Henry Kedy and held a short business session, with Rev. H. N. Parry in the chair. In the absence of the secretary, Rev. H. N. Shaw, Rev. J. W. Brown was appointed secretary pro tem. Bro. Parry was requested to communicate with the pastorless churches in the county concerning their grace of benevolence in relation to the Convention Fund. Bro. Whitman's relation to the field—the New Canada and Chelsea group—was discussed at some length. The earnest and faithful work of this young brother was recognized, and the hope expressed that our request to the H. M. Board would meet with such a response that it would be possible to retain his services on the field. In the evening a sermon was preached by Bro. Parry from the text found in Heb. 7: 25. The sermon gave us new lights on, and new delight in, the glorious truth of Christ's ability to save, the extent of this ability, and the reason of its display. In the after meeting which followed a large number of christians spoke feelingly of their hope in Christ, and as a fitting climax to the services of the day, some four or five young people rose, expressing their desire to seek and find the Saviour. Adjourned to meet with the Dayspring church on the second Tuesday in March, at 10.30 a. m.

A New Firm.

A change is announced in the Sun's advertising columns this morning in the proprietorship of the well known clothing house, Oak Hall, conducted for the last six years by Scovil, Fraser & Co. Messrs. W. J. Fraser and E. E. Fraser retire from the firm, and W. G. Scovil returns to it again, in partnership with his brother, J. M. Scovil, the new firm to be known as Scovil Bros. & Co. Oak Hall was originally opened by W. G. Scovil and E. E. Fraser. Later on J. M. Scovil and W. J. Fraser also became partners. Two years ago W. G. Scovil retired, but as above stated, has now returned. Messrs Scovil are too well known to the purchasing public of the province to need any other recommendation than is shown in their record as enterprising and successful merchants. The name of Oak Hall is more widely known to the readers of the newspapers than any other clothing house in the provinces. Situated on King street, at the corner of Germain, the building, four stories high, with magnificent plate glass windows, is one of the attractions of King street. The present firm may be counted on to sustain the fine reputation this establishment has gained in the past.

THE MESSENGER AND VISITOR wishes the new firm of Scovil Bros & Co. the success they deserve.

The business of Scovil & Page, in Halifax, will be carried on as heretofore in their well known, finely equipped and well stocked establishment 157 Barrington and 89 Gottingen streets.

This remarkable statement, to which we direct special attention is from a Tennessee farmer: My age is 63. I suffered intensely from Catarrh 10 years. Had intense headache, took cold easily, had continual roaring and singing in my ears. My hearing began to fail, and for three years I was almost entirely deaf, and I continually grew worse. Everything I had tried, failed. In despair I commenced to use the Aerial Medication in 1888, and the effect of the first application was simply wonderful. In less than five minutes my hearing was fully restored, and has been perfect ever since, and in a few months was entirely cured of Catarrh.

R. N.—My horse, six years old, has a drooping of the lower lip—now on one side then on the other, interferes with feeding. What is the matter? Also send me a package of Shives' Insect Powder for destroying lice on cattle. My son writes me that he got a 25 cent package from you last spring and that it worked like magic.

C M.—Have sent you Powders and Veterinary Liniment to your direction. In future you will be able to purchase them of Walton & Wilbens, merchants of your place, to whom we have this week shipped a large order.

W. B.—Have a mare that has been subject to windy colic; this last fall her wind became afflicted. I gave her three packages of Manchester Tonic Powder, and now she seems perfectly well. How do you account for it?

ANS.—The trouble with your mare has been caused by indigestion. Our Tonic Powder, by curing the indigestion, has removed the cause of the other trouble.

BURGOYNE R.—Have just noticed your column in MESSENGER AND VISITOR. It is a splendid thing for us farmers as you give us reliable information and goods.
