WIMAN RECEIVES SENTENCE.

FIVE YEARS AND SIX MONTHS IN SING SING.

Justice Ingraham Says Society Must Be Protected and He Did Not Feel Justified in Imposing a Lighter Sentence—Wiman Discourses on the Vanity of Life.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Erastus Wiman appeared before Justice Ingraham in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning to receive his sentence for forgery.

The ex-millionaire looked rather wan, and he was so poorly dressed as to excite comment among his old friends.

He was accompanied by his two faithful sons, who sought to comfort him by cheering words, but it was patent to everyone that Wiman dreaded the issue. Several of his Staten Island friends shook hands with him. He said he had passed a pleasant night.

Tracy Pleads For Mercy.

Gen. Tracy addressed the court in behalf of the prisoner, but in so low a voice that it is doubtful if even Mr. Wiman, who bent forward to listen, heard what was being said. Gen. Tracy said his client had done everything he could to repair the wrong he had wrought, and he pleaded eloquently for mercy for the financier.

The judge said he must impose sentence in conformity with the evidence. Certain laws were made to protect society, and if they were violated the offender must be punished.

Forgery in Several Cases.

"For a long period you used the money of your associate, Mr. Dun, and then resorted to forgery, not in one, but in several cases.

"You violated a trust in addition to appropriating another's money. I cannot think that you thought at any time that you had a right to take this money. Your letter shows that you knew you had not. But, on the other hand, the jury recommends mercy in imposing sentence.

"Your previous good character and great works entitle you to consideration, but I shall not feel justified in making the sentence less than five years and six months in State's Prison."

Wiman had been listening attentively and respectfully, but his face did not change either color or expression at the announcement. He sank into his seat.

A Certificate of Doubt Granted.

Gen. Tracy had previously made a formal motion for a new trial, which had been denied. He now stepped forward and asked for permission to apply for a certificate of reasonable doubt. This was granted and will be applied for to-morrow. Deputy Sheriff Brown was ordered not to take Wiman to Sing Sing until the matter is settled.

Wiman might have been interviewed after the sentence, but the burly deputy sheriff would not permit it. He led his charge off and down Center-street to the Tombs, followed by a crowd of idlers and hoodlums. During the scenes in court Mr. Wellman sat on a table on Gen. Tracy's right.

What the Sentence Amounts To.

The sentence, with the commutation off, will amount to 3 years and 11 months and 13 days.

After Mr. Wiman had been lodged in the Tombs he refused to talk to reporters about his sentence and went immediately to his cell and threw himself on his cot without opening his mail. Shortly after his return a clerk from his lawyer's called upon him, and he was closeted with him for nearly an hour.

The Vanity of Life.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The World has the following: In the little sitting room of the Tombs prison Erastus Wiman sat and discoursed seriously on the vanity of life. From a boy, with no money or prospects, he had worked himself up to a position which meant an income of $80,000 a year, and his name in the newspapers almost every day.

At great banquets the wise of the land sat and listened humbly to his voice. Reporters sharpened their pencils at sight of him and got him to tell young men how to succeed in life. The Staten Island ferryboats waited until he came aboard late at night.

Suburban Notes.

As the City Council is now considering the selection of a site for a consumption hospital to cost $50,000, towards which Mr. Gage has offered to contribute the handsome sum of $25,000, it might not be out of place to bring before the people the superior advantages possessed by the village of East Toronto for such an institution. The members of the Village Council of East Toronto have always expressed themselves as being willing to encourage everything that would tend to the welfare of the beautiful suburb, and there is no doubt a liberal bonus would be granted toward securing such an institution within the limits.

The Rev. W. Walsh of Brampton, Grand Chaplain of the Orange Order, will preach in the Church of England Tent at Balmy Beach, Queen and Balsam-avenue, this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Avenue Hotel, Toronto Junction, changed hands yesterday, the former owner, Mrs. A. Smith, again assuming control.

Mr. John McCague, J.P., an old and highly respected resident of York, died at his home, Victoria-square, yesterday, of dropsy, at the age of 61 years. The funeral will take place on Friday.

Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Parmelee's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effusions from the blood into the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results.

Pictures by Auction.

To-day at 2.30 Mr. Charles M. Henderson will sell a very fine collection of water-color drawings and oil paintings at 167 Yonge-street. We strongly advise intending buyers to be on hand, as undoubted bargains will be obtained, the sale being without reserve.

PREMIER FIELD-DAY FOR BARGAINS

ONE leading thought runs through our programme for Friday, and that is as the month draws nearer to a close to make the inducements to buy here of the most tempting character. The approach of midsummer is a suggestion along these lines, for at this time the season's stocks need to be brought down low, but the strongest reason of all is the fact that we are in the midst of exceptional building operations and the word can be understood in its plainest meaning that we must, for want of room, reduce stocks. For the sake of your pocket become acquainted with the bargains we are offering to-day.

Tips From Wall-Street.

The strong features in the afternoon were Lake Shore and Manhattan.

The proposal to put sugar on the free list was defeated in the U.S. Senate to-day by a vote of 33 to 22.

Henry A. King & Co., special wire from Hubbard, Price & Co. New York:

It is understood that the Atchison plan of reorganization is about ready for distribution, and we are advised from abroad that London has been a steady buyer during the last five points decline on the belief that after the shock of the first announcement of the assessment has worn off the price of the stock will advance. At the opening in New York stocks were inclined to weakness, the pressure to sell being most pronounced in Sugar and Whisky among the Industrials and in the railroad lists in St. Paul. Advices with regard to the Sugar schedule from Washington are conflicting, but are not on the whole encouraging and the whole press of the country is arrayed on the bear side of the stock. The discovery of a large short interest in Atchison, Union Pacific and Northern Pacific and a consequent sharp rise in the borrowing rates resulted in some free covering, causing the rally.

Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from Logan & Co., Chicago: Cables this morning came higher, with the advance sustained at the close. Our market opened at about ⅜ of a cent over last night's prices, for both July and September. The closing price is 60c July. We have so often said the near future is as much a weather question as the supply and demand is, and it may come as a chestnut. We have the same bad crop reports from Minnesota and the Dakotas. At this writing we believe the weather from this forward, no matter how favorable, cannot increase the yield or improve what has been in a manner lost. Provisions opened dull and easier on liberal receipts of hogs. Later there was a good demand by early sellers and prices firmed a little when the packers became sellers, causing an easier feeling and slight decline. The receipts of hogs are rather too liberal for the amount of trade passing in pit.

Schwartz, Dupee & Co. wired Dixon: The wheat trade was treated to another surprise in a strong opening on the strength of higher cables. Everything to-day at the close yesterday pointed to lower foreign markets. New York started higher in advance of Chicago and a small stampede resulted here. At the top there seemed to be a lot of wheat for sale, from just what source no one could tell, but the suspicion was that it came largely from Armour, who was supposed to have been a liberal buyer yesterday. Illinois State crop bulletin published to-day was favorable to wheat and the advices in regard to winter wheat crop, generally, continue of that tenor. There was considerable talk of export demand on the seaboard, but little done on account of the firmness in the ocean freights. There were sales reported here of about 100,000 No. 2 spring at 1⅛c to 2c over the July price. Cash No. 2 mixed oats sold to-day at 52c. June sold at 50c and July at 43¼c. The Iowa crop bulletin estimating only half a crop in that state was a stimulating feature in the market to-day, giving the shorts a chill and a strong desire to cover their contracts. July oats will either sell considerably or much lower. With favorable weather for harvesting and threshing receivers predict a large movement from this state the last half of July.
